Bill had just returned to his home in New York after spending some time in Texas. He greeted his wife with two Cadillac, sends of $100 bills and a mink coat.

"Where in the world did you get all this?" she demanded.

"Shucks, it was easy, honey," he said. "I was in Houston during Halloween and I went out playing trick or treat."

CURTIN — North Douglas Grange is planning a Swap and Shop day at the grange hall Saturday, September 15. Doors will be open at 1 p.m. with the sales starting at 3. Anyone may take tools, livestock, produce, canned goods, sewing or anything they have to sell or swap. Each one will be responsible for the sale of his own merchandise. The grange will have a snack bar open to sell hamburgers. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sowles took Leslie Goins and Michael Boohier to Eastern Oregon Sunday to hunt for rocks. They had a picnic dinner along and visited places of interest such as Peterson's Rock Gardens, Odell Lake and the Crooked River. They also stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Les Crane and left Leslie Goins there for a visit.

Miss Dorothy Meacham was hostess to a Teen Age party at her new home Saturday evening. The evening was spent pulling taffy, dancing, listening to music, and eating hamburgers.

While in Oregon, the Australian woman visited scenic spots in central and Eastern Oregon, including the reindeer farm, various springs, and Peterson's Rock Gardens. She also saw the black obsidian craters.

Her tour included a day at the coast where she marvelled at the hundreds of boats tied up at Winchester Bay. She took home with her samples of Oregon myrtle wood.

Miss Hanrahan's father, Timothy Hanrahan, was police commissioner of Brisbane for some 38 years.

Miss Joan Hanrahan, cousin to Mrs. Ann Hamilton of Cottage Grove, arrived in Cottage Grove August 29 after a week in New York and Canada. She was on a five week vacation from a governmental job in Brisbane, Australia.

Miss Hanrahan spent some time here with the Hamiltons and with the John Wells, Mrs. Hamilton's father-in-law.

MEMORY Lane
BANANAS
Remember when bananas were sold by the dozen? Today they come by the pound, and buying bananas isn't nearly as thrilling as when you used to watch goggle-eyed as the grocer, counting from one to twelve, reached high to cut them from the big bunch hanging from the ceiling. Sometimes he gave you thirteen. Remember?
