Wedding Is Fourth In Hanks Family To Be in October

Miss Deloris May Moore of Ophir became the bride of a former Cottage Grove man, Abraham Hanks, also of Ophir, in the Community Presbyterian church at Gold Beach Saturday, October 6. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Moore of Ophir. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Oxley Hanks, now of Creswell.

Dr. Sydney A. Walter, pastor of the Gold Beach church officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony, which was the fourth in the Hanks family to take place in October.

The bride wore a medium blue suit with white shoes and a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of pale yellow chrysanthemums.

Three attendants of the bride, Mrs. Ralph Allen, groom's sister of Gold Beach, and Misses Trudi Wade and Dorothy Disher, both of Ophir, wore white dresses.

Decorations at the church were white and yellow chrysanthemums and pink roses arranged in baskets at each side of

Ruth Long Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Ruth Long was the recipient of many gifts at a recent bridal shower given by Mrs. Edgar Ulmer. Miss Long will be the bride of Howard Mecum of Albany in an afternoon home ceremony October 27.

After the opening of gifts, which were stacked under the traditional umbrella decorated in yellow, refreshments were served. A three-tiered white cake with bride and groom atop, heart and bell-shaped sandwiches made with accented breads and frostings, coffee and punch were served.

Tiny plastic umbrellas holding mints and nuts were favors given to the following guests: Mmes. Opal Reed, Wayne Hilton, G. E. Finnerty, Vaisio Mullen, Al Wakefield, Clifford Crooks, Norman Kennedy, Kenneth VanNortwick, Frank Richardson, Ray Stewart, T. P. Fields, D. R. Roddy, Henry Lovell of Eugene, Ralph Long, Tommy Long and the honor guest and hostess.

Unable to attend but sending gifts were Mrs. Mabel Reynolds, Mrs. Annie Fields and Mrs. Mabel Gates.

Nothing is impossible. We merely don't know yet how to do it. —Thomas A. Edison

The altar. Kenneth Cooper sang "Always" and Mrs. Vesper Bailor played organ music and the wedding march.

About 40 guests attended a wedding reception at the church. White bells and flowers decorated the room for the reception. The cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by friends.

The couple made their wedding trip to the Oregon coast. Their home will be at Nesika Beach. Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. William Hanks and Nancy, Potlatch, Idaho; Mrs. Lulu Perkins, Springfield, Harry Hanks, Veneta; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cooper and Marylene, Phylaura, Dell and Dan of Eugene; Charles Blue, Cottage Grove; Miss Janice Jacobs, Drain and Mr. and Mrs. Abe Hanks, Creswell.

Issues on Ballot Discussed by Voter League Members

Business and Professional Women's club had as guest speakers at their regular meeting Monday evening two members of the Eugene League of Women Voters. They were Mrs. Charles Ford, state legislative chairman for the Oregon League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Leroy Deitling, voters service chairman of the Eugene group.

These women not only discussed very thoroughly both sides of the question on all issues on the November ballot, but they also went into detail as to how their information is obtained and compiled and what research is made before they will back or oppose any particular measure.

The League is non-partisan. Frank and open discussion on the issues was enjoyed by the 27 members and guests at the Monday meeting at the home of Mrs. Art Hill. Mrs. Tom Gallo was co-hostess. Mrs. Glen Arne was in charge of the program.

Further plans were made for the annual "Woman of the Year" banquet to be held at the Methodist church Monday, November 5. This will take the place of the next regular meeting of the local club.

Miss Gertrude Elliott, president of the local group, wishes to remind the public that tickets are now on sale for the annual banquet and can be secured from any of the local members. She hopes that there will be a good turnout of local people to this Award Dinner.

Special emphasis was put on the Fall Conference of Cascade District which is to be held Sunday, October 21, at Oakridge. This will be a 9 a.m. breakfast followed by the morning meeting. Mrs. Harold D. Peterson of Dallas, state legislative chairman, is the guest speaker for the meeting, and she promises to have some interesting material to present to the members.

Olsens Sell Store To G. Engelhardt

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Olsen announce the sale of their store, the Olsen Ash & N St. Grocery, to Mr. and Mrs. Gustav A. Engelhardt of San Jose, Calif., former owners of Bethel Drive-In Market in Eugene. The new owners took possession Monday. Health conditions of both Mr. and Mrs. Olsen necessitated the selling of the store, stock and home.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen and son Dan moved to 817 South First street for the present. Their only future plan at present is to remain in Cottage Grove. Dan graduated from the local high school and spent one year in the Navy. He is employed at a local mill.

Ellsworth Makes Record in Number People Contacted

A new record for personal contact during a political campaign in the 4th District of Oregon has been made by Congressman Harris Ellsworth. His campaign headquarters reported recently that since the start of his campaign for re-election on September 5th he has been in contact with over 21,000 people in the 4th District comprised of Linn, Lane, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Josephine and Jackson counties. Ellsworth's scheduled appearances have been at coffee sessions; lumber, plywood, and industrial plants; and at public gatherings. The 4th District Representative said today, "Each year I have visited the counties of the district to report to the people on the work of their Congressman in Washington, and this year, thanks to local Ellsworth for Congress committees, more efficient schedules have been arranged." He added, "the next three weeks I will visit as many communities as possible in Linn, Lane and Douglas counties."

The pastor reported on Area Evangelism to be held here starting February 24. After discussion he showed slides on "What Others Are Doing About Missions."

Further preparations were made for a rummage sale October 20 at the Chev-Olds sales room, 5th and Washington. Members will work there Friday getting ready for the sale.

A nominating committee, appointed for the coming election of officers includes Mrs. Carl Brands, Mrs. Charles Drew and Mrs. Martha Thorsen. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Thorsen and Mrs. Eric Usilton.

Next meeting will be November 1 with Mrs. Brandsness and Mrs. Henry Arp as hostesses.

Riding Club Plans Future Activities

Future activities were outlined at a recent meeting of Cottage Grove Riding club.

First of these will be a western dance Saturday, October 27, at the VFW hall. Music will be by Alpha Pitcher's orchestra, and proceeds will go toward the club's goal of raising funds for lighting the rodeo arena.

Members voted to have a cake sale for dessert at the potluck suppers at each meeting. Members whose birthdays fall in the month between the meetings are to take cake to be sold at 10 cents a slice.

A Halloween masquerade party will be held at the "Stub" Mosby ranch Saturday, November 3, at 7:30 p.m. The riders must be masked and the horses may be if the rider wishes. Prizes will be given and there will be games for the mounted riders and also the ones not wishing to ride.

Should there be rain the evening of the Halloween party, no horses will be taken but the masquerade party will be held. Refreshments in the Halloween motif will be announced later.
