

H. Bennetts Wed 50 Years Nov. 28

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bennett will observe their golden wedding anniversary when they hold open house at their home, 212 North 9th street, Sunday, November 18, from 2 to 5 p.m. All of their friends are welcome.

The Bennetts were married at Columbus, Kan., November 28, 1906. They came to Oregon, locating first at Halsey, 44 years ago. After living there for a time they spent a year at Dos Palos, Calif., and returned to reside at Creswell for a time before coming to Cottage Grove 35 years ago.

Not all of the couple's seven children will be able to be present for the anniversary. A son, Dale, is stationed in Iran with the U. S. air force. One daughter, Mrs. R. W. (Ethel) Snyder, who lives in San Diego, Calif., may not be able to attend since she visited here during the summer with her parents. The five other children of the couple are: Mrs. Chester (Daisy) Wheeler, Albany; Floyd Bennett, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Edna (Mildred) Kuppenbender, Pendleton; Mrs. Warren (Erma) Stoffer, Albany; and Mrs. J. V. (Velma) Trunnell, San Francisco. There are 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Lutherans Have Halloween Party

The recreation room at the Lutheran church was decorated in Halloween colors, scarecrows and cornstalks for an all-church Halloween party Friday evening. Forty members and children were present.

Entertainment for the evening was patterned after Art Linkletter's program, with Mrs. Harold Brandness as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Karl Drew was in charge of the fortune telling, which was followed by a spelling contest. Charleen Drew played a piano selection, "At the Rodeo," and Marilyn Drew played "On A Mule."

Charles Drew and Mrs. Richard Ourada were given prizes for singing parts of German songs. Prizes for the best children's costumes went to Charles Darden as a lady and Sheryl Darden as an Indian Girl. Prizes for adult costumes went to Mrs. Myrtle Lake as a Mexican lady and to Mrs. Eric Usilton as an old-fashioned gal. Remainder of the evening was spent in trying to capture apples and doughnuts on strings. The evening's entertainment closed with a lunch consisting of fruit, sandwiches, doughnuts, cider, and coffee.

REFLECTIONS

What Do I Get?

Dr. Ronald Ross dedicated his life to find the cause and cure of malaria; he didn't ask, "What do I get?" As Henry Ford tinkered with his "contraption" do you think he asked, "What do I get?" A cry, "Help!" is heard; a stranger dives in and rescues that person; did he do it for money? A crash! The ship is sinking! Over the inter-com comes this order, "Abandon Ship!" The captain proudly stands on the bridge, goes down with his ship. Did he ask, "What do I get?"

Self-respect comes first and next comes respect of fellow-man; this highly desirable recognition is the cause of man doing the impossible, to sacrifice his life if necessary, to rise above contemporaries, give to posterity some part of himself, if only to fulfill tradition; rarely is money even a small fraction of his incentive.
