White Chrysanthemums Deck Church for Sunday Wedding

White chrysanthemums and white tapers in candelabra decorated the Methodist church Sunday, November 24, for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Northway and Nels Martin Hansen of Medford. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Northway of Cottage Grove. Mrs. Leoma Hansen of Metolius is the mother of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Fremont Paul, pastor, officiated at the 8 p.m. rite. Wedding solos were by Mrs. Rodney Stanhope, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Boyd Allen was the organist.

The bride wore a dress of white lace and tulle, the v-neck bodice of lace and the full tulle skirt made with large bow at the back and a short train. Her net veil fell from a small Juliet cap and she carried a blue orchid with shower of streamers with her white Bible. She carried a handkerchief which her sisters also had carried at their weddings. Her blue garter was the traditional "something blue."

Miss Evelyn Northway was maid-of-honor for her sister. Her ballerina-length blue dress was made with full skirt and she carried a bouquet of red roses. Two bridesmaids, Miss Deanna Decker of Pinedale, Wyo., and Mrs. Virgil Moon, another sister of the bride, wore ballerina dresses of white net over satin and carried bouquets of red roses.

Floylene Tatom, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a full-length blue frock, and Gregory Boyce was ring bearer.

Mrs. Northway wore a pink street-length dress with corsage of pink roses for her daughter's wedding. The groom's dress with tan accessories.

Robert Kreha was best man and Charles Blue and Wallace Sorensen ushered.

The bride's table at the reception in Friendship hall was centered with the cake and decorated with pink roses and candles at each end. Mrs. Edward Meyers served punch, Mrs. Merle McCoy poured coffee and Mrs. Allen Stanley served the cake. Miss Verna Buck of Yoncalla was in charge of the guest book.

Following a weekend honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen are at home at Medford, where he is chief clerk with the Rock Island lines. For traveling the bride wore a green tweed suit with grey accessories and her bridal orchid. Mr. Hansen attended University of Washington where he was a member of Phi Kappa Sigma.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Langston, and Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Hansen, all of Medford.

ESA Chapter To Raise Money For Eugene School

Beta Zeta chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International met at the city library Wednesday evening to complete plans for their bazaar to be held at Cottage Grove Auto Sales, 5th and Washington, Saturday, December 1.

Funds raised at contribution to the Children's Hospital school in Eugene. Support of this school is the main philanthropic project of Oregon chapters of Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Anyone desiring information about the school is welcome to contact any member of the Cottage Grove chapter.

Saturday's sale will feature gift items, baked good, candy and rummage. Donations of rummage will be greatly appreciated. Anyone wishing to donate may phone 899.

MR. AND MRS. NELS MARTIN HANSEN (Eleanor Northway) are at home at Medford where the groom is chief clerk for the Rock Island lines. They were married here last Sunday in an evening ceremony at the Methodist church.

Newlywed Couple To Reside Here In New Home

By Mrs. Charles Denzer
Miss Carrie Lou Lisenby became the bride of Virgil Lee McCaskill in a ceremony immediately following the morning service at the Church of Christ in VFW hall Sunday, November 11. They will live in a new home they are building on the east side of Cottage Grove.

Mr. Walter Gay officiated at the 12 o'clock noon ceremony. The hall was decorated with bouquets of fall flowers. Many invited guests attended in addition to the Sunday morning congregation.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with pink and white accessories. Her flowers were carnations, pink and white. Mrs. James Lisenby of Dorena attended the bride. She wore a navy blue dress with white accessories.

Mrs. C. M. Herard of Greenville, Miss., is the mother of the bride. The groom's mother is Mrs. Orla McCaskill of Elmore City, Okla.

Brownies Pack Basket For Deserving Family

Brownie Scout Troop 27 packed a basket for a deserving family for Thanksgiving, using money from their calendar sales to buy a chicken. Each of the 16 girls added something from home. The project was done in classrooms and aroused much interest, according to the leaders, Mrs. George McAlpine and Mrs. Elsie Heilinger. The troop is sponsored by the grade school PTA.

Boots and Sandals Plans Two Affairs To 'Benefit' Barn

Boots and Sandals Square Dance club has a busy month ahead. Two special events are planned to help meet expenses on the Barn at 10th and Jefferson streets. A bazaar and food sale will be held at Rose Lockers building, December 15. The committee in charge will announce further plans soon. The other is a "come as you are" party at the Barn Tuesday, December 11, at 10 a.m.

A large number of Boots and Sandals members plan to attend the Roseburg Buckaroo's birthday dance Sunday, December 2, from 1 to 5 p.m. Music will be furnished by the Eddie Kay orchestra.

Regular dance scheduled at the Barn for Saturday, December 15, has been cancelled to allow the club to visit the Circle 8 club of the Albany Howard Barnard will call the dance at the Liberty school.

A special dance will be held Saturday, December 8.

Beginners' classes will continue each Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. It is not too late for those interested to enroll. There will be no workshop for the advanced dancers Thursday, December 6, but all other classes will be held as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Guisinger and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnard attended a dance sponsored by the Portland Area Council of the Oregon Federation of Square Dance Callers at Cedarville Park, Portland, last Sunday. Barnard was one of the many from this area who called. He also was initiated into the Willamette Valley Callers' Assn. While in Portland, they visited Hershel Mape, who is a patient at the veterans hospital, and report him getting along fine.

The club has extended get well wishes to Miss Pauline Swenson, a member of the new class, who underwent major surgery Friday at the local hospital.

The decorating committee has asked members to furnish tree ornaments and other Christmas decorating materials. Mrs. Marvin Ponton heads the committee. Members also are asked to take either pie or sandwiches Saturday, December 1, when dancing will start at new time, 8:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend any or all functions at the Barn.

Mail Gifts Now!

You're going to mail gifts! You want them to arrive on time and in good condition! They probably won't unless you MAIL THEM NOW.

It's Christmas Eve, the last parcel post delivery has been made; the package you expected did not arrive. The spirit of Christmas has been dampened. Is procrastination? Though mail trains flash across the country they can't deliver something that was not mailed-on time.

Men in our Mail Service work feverishly, sorting, packing, dispatching, receiving, sorting and delivering. We can lighten their load, avoid disappointments, by MAILING GIFTS NOW. (Put an address inside your package. Use tough paper. Tie securely. Print name and address.)

The men and women in our Post Office go far beyond "Rules and Regulations"—Let's show our appreciation! Mail 'em Early! Now!
