Weather Keeps DA From Filling Date As Speaker

CRESWELL—Due to the inclement weather District Attorney Eugene Venn was unable to be present at the January 24 meeting of Creswell Grange. His talk will be scheduled for a later time. Group singing was enjoyed, also numbers by the grange trio, Mrs. Murrel Olsen, Mrs. Mae Main and Ralph W. Crisp.

Frank Gardner presided at the business meeting, and Mrs. Floyd Hubbard and daughter Viola of Howe Lane became members by deposit of a demit. E. E. Allen, past master, administered the first and second degree obligation to Leonard Crockett of Camas Road. Seven applications for membership by initiation were presented.

It was voted to have a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper at the first meeting of each month. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Clark will serve the coffee at the February 14 meeting.

An invitation was read from Jasper Grange to attend their 25th anniversary February 1, and another for a box social at Thurston Grange February 8. Use of the hall was granted to a Pomona Grange youth group for a talent show the evening of March 29 and 30.

The office of assistant steward was declared vacant and E. E. Allen was elected to the office. Mrs. F. P. Clark, Mrs. Roy Hanson and Mrs. Allen were appointed to the garden and flower committee. Birthdays of the month were honored at serving time.

Freshmen Lead Attendance Record

By Helen Elwood
In the first semester of the 1956-57 school year more freshmen had perfect attendance records than any other class. MRS. KATHERINE B. MELTON
Katherine Melton, Creswell's Oldest Citizen, Is 99

CRESWELL—Creswell's oldest citizen, Mrs. Katherine B. Melton, celebrated her 99th birthday anniversary Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Burke, with whom she has resided for the past several months. A number of friends called on Mrs. Melton and others sent cards and candy. Mrs. Clara Traxler and Miss Lois Traxler, former Creswell residents now living in Eugene, took a birthday cake for the occasion and Mrs. Burke supplied another.

Mrs. Melton, in spite of her advanced years, is remarkably alert. She goes downtown with the Burkes to shop and, until the recent bad weather, walked two blocks to Sunday School and church at the Presbyterian church every Sunday.

Mrs. Melton came from Illinois to the Creswell community in 1899. She was a teacher before coming West.

MARTHA ROSS HAS FIFTH BIRTHDAY PARTY
CRESWELL—Mrs. George W. Ross entertained a group of little folk for her daughter Martha's fifth birthday anniversary January 22. Games provided entertainment. Refreshments including a decorated cake were served to Jo Taylor, Penny and Cindy Shoop, Debbie Ehrlich, Pat Fox and Johnny Walkup. Other guests were Mrs. Irma Ogram, Martha's grandmother and Mrs. Calvin C. Taylor.

STORK SHOWER GIVEN
CRESWELL—Mrs. Sam Lunas and Mrs. Clyde Heater were co-hostesses January 22 at a stork shower for Mrs. Charles Bailey of West D street. Games supplied entertainment until the gifts were opened.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. L. E. Zinkler, Ivan Parks, Arthur Skinner, Jacob Carlson, Elmer Odell, Kenneth Rolfe, Bailey and the hostesses. Several friends unable to attend sent gifts.

GIDEONS TO VISIT
CRESWELL—The Gideons will be guests at the morning service Sunday, February 3, at the Methodist church.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES IN PROGRESS AT ASSEMBLY
CRESWELL—Special evangelistic service began at the Assembly of God church, corner of Second and D streets, February 5 at 7:45 p.m. They will continue for two weeks.

Weather conditions and prior engagements kept the evangelist from arriving for the January 29 opening date announced earlier. Guest speaker is the Rev. Garmond Mindt of Sacramento, Calif. Mrs. Mindt and the Rev. Mr. Mindt are accomplished musicians and singers and will supply special music. The public is invited.

SQUARE DANCE PARTY PLANNED FOR FEB. 2

CRESWELL—A group interested in square dance parties will play host to all friends who would like to attend a party at the VFW hall Saturday, February 2. Records will provide music but a caller will be present.

New Pupils Enroll, Others Depart During Semester

By Helen Elwood
Three newcomers to Creswell Union High school in the first semester were: Wanda Robertson, senior; Jay Haley, sophomore, and Jack Holden, junior.

Students who enrolled and then left school during the semester were Sherry Beebe, Melba Jenkins, seniors; Debra Good and Bobbie Harper, juniors; Gwen Bentley, Carolyn Wrinkle, Tommy Carson, Ron Harper, Esther Carson, Jerry Jones, and Janice Sullivan, sophomores; Mary Ann Franklin and Geraldine Wetzel, freshmen.

The Elvira-Creswell basketball game which was scheduled for January 25 at the high school gymnasium was postponed until a later date due to bad weather. Principal Leo Myers does not know yet when the game will be played.

School also was dismissed because of the weather Friday and Monday. It will reconvene when the bad weather lets up and it is safe for the school buses to run.

Ramon Fountain, biology and chemistry teacher, plans a biology field trip some time in February, the date to be decided later.

Many of the high school girls are going to take a first aid course, which will be taught by Mrs. Leonard Zinkler of Creswell.

Originally set for January 24 at the city hall, the class was postponed until the 25th and then postponed to a later date because of the weather. The girls will be notified when a date is set to discuss meeting dates and time.

The Midwinter Ball held January 26 from 8 to 11 p.m. at Creswell school, was a huge success. Entertainment during the band break was provided by Arlene Thomson and Sharon Olsen, who sang two songs each. Refreshments were cookies and punch. Many students, parents and faculty members attended.

Around Town

Mrs. Edna Shurr of Browning, Mont., visited last week with Mrs. C. H. Harold. She is a niece of the late Mr. Harold. She had also visited her daughters, the Misses Marguerite and Miriam Shurr of Portland.

Johnnie Huston of North First street returned Monday evening from a trip to Williams Lake, B. C. He reported 61 degrees below zero in one place.

Dennis, young son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nixon, was taken to Eugene for treatment last week for an injury. He ran into a barbed wire while playing at his home and cut the eye lid badly but the eye itself escaped injury.

Mrs. W. C. Adams left Friday evening by bus for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Carwood and family.

Carl Sorenson and daughter Marie Ann of San Francisco, Calif., arrived Friday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sorenson of Creswell, Rt. 2.

Weather Is Main Conversation Topic

CRESWELL—Conversation for the past week in this area centers around frozen pipes, balky cars, slippery roads and postponed meetings. Schools vacated Friday and Monday but resumed classes Tuesday. Marshall Denney, who cares for Creswell's water supply, was a busy man. He was at home during the day just long enough to get the address of a new call for help. The garages also had much overtime work.

Local Members Attend Sorority Council Meeting

CRESWELL—All members of Beta Chi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi attended a city council meeting of the sorority at the River Road clubhouse, Eugene, January 23. The attendance from other clubs included about 50 members. A special program of entertainment was presented. Following the council meeting a short business meeting was held at the home of a local member, Mrs. Don Poole of Eugene.

Plans were made for the March of Dimes Mothers March Thursday evening, January 31 and for the annual fashion show, tentative date of which has been set for Saturday evening, April 6.

Present were Mmes. W. S. Calhoun, advisor, Fred Faw, Bob Rand, Jim Brewer, Joe Brewer, Carl Ehrlich Jr., Carleton Smith, and Mrs. E. B. Poole. The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. B. Poole on River Drive, Creswell. "Suppressed Desires" is the culture program topic lead by Mrs. Geoffrey Walsh who will include a story of her native Hawaii.

'Service' Is Theme Of Circle Meeting

CRESWELL—Mrs. Barney Doyle and Mrs. H. H. Dersham entertained Esther circle of the Presbyterian church Wednesday, January 16, at the Doyle home. Mrs. Catherine Dorris presided. "Service" was the theme of Mrs. H. A. Simmons' devotions, and she and Mrs. Dorris shared in discussions on Indonesia and the Philippines.

Funds for materials for overseas sewing were allotted with Mrs. W. B. Gillespie as chairman. New draperies for Fellowship hall were reported completed.

OLD-TIME PUMP
Remember the old-time pump, equipped with an iron or wooden handle, which had to be laboriously "pumped" in order to get a bucket of water? Sometimes, a wornout washer would cause the pump to "lose its prime," and in cold climates it was often necessary to thaw it out with a teakettle of boiling water. Remember?
