COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MAY 10, 1918

NUMBER 33

COTTAGE GROVE IS 230% EFFICIENT IN DRIVE

Cottage Grove's Subscription to Third Liberty Loan Bonds Is $92,250.

County Goes Over Quota by Fifty Per Cent; Cottage Grove, Coburg, Creswell and Florence Are Biggest Contributors.

Cottage Grove's subscription to the third liberty loan totals $92,250, an over-subscription of $52,150. The amount asked of this district was $40,100; the response was more than 230 per cent efficient.

The entire county exceeded its allotment of $477,000 by more than 50 per cent, the subscriptions totalling $689,650, all cities in the county going well over the minimum set. In addition to Cottage Grove, three other cities—Coburg, Creswell and Florence—more than doubled their quotas.

The totals by districts follow:

District	No. Subs.	Am't.	Quota
Eugene	2289	$458,500	$353,200
Junction City	423	55,200	29,100

QUESTION OF PICNIC IS UP BEFORE CLUB

Majority of Merchants Favor Entertaining Traveling Men but No Action Is Taken.

Whether or not a traveling men's picnic shall be given in the city this year is the most question among the merchants. The matter was taken up at the meeting of the commercial club Monday night, but no decision was arrived at by the club and the promotion of the plan was left up to the merchants of the city.

There is some variance of opinion as to whether such a picnic would be advisable, but the majority seem to think that it would be a pleasant and beneficial event for the town and not out of keeping with the times. Last year the traveling men were given to understand that they might again enjoy Cottage Grove's hospitality this year, and while the invitation was by no means a formal one, it was understood that the drummers would be welcomed here again this year.

The affair held here May 25 last year was an unqualified success and the guests were hearty in their appreciation of it.

Planning for Patriotic Rally.

Cottage Grove is planning a splendid feature for the big patriotic and educational county school rally to be held at Eugene May 17 and 18. ## DAYLIGHT ATTEMPT MADE TO ROB S. P. SAFE

Intruder Frightened Away After Having Smashed Combination Dial. Gets No Money.

A clumsy and ineffective attempt to rob the safe at the Southern Pacific station was made during the noon hour Tuesday.

Upon his return to the office at 12:35 after an absence of 30 minutes, G. F. Mills, agent, discovered that the safe had been tampered with and the combination dial knocked off. The safe was locked and impossible of opening by ordinary means. The intruder had gained entrance through the freight depot door. A man having business at the depot tried the door during the time the thief must have been at work and this is thought to have frightened him away.

Mr. Mills suspected Jack McNeill, a recent arrival from Portland, who had been around the depot a good part of the time since he came to the city May 1, and whom he had seen near the depot as he left for his home at noon. He accordingly notified the authorities of the attempted burglary and his suspicion of McNeill.

Officer McKernan visited the Central hotel, where McNeill had been rooming, but McNeill made his escape by passing down the hall of the second story, from his room at the front of the building to a room at the rear where he descended by means of a ladder placed against the window.

About 1:30 p. m. McNeill was overtaken, walking along the country road toward Eugene, by B. S. Swengel, who gave him a lift to that city, not suspecting that the man was wanted for any crime. A motorcycle stolen the same evening at Eugene is thought to have been taken by McNeill.

McNeill, who was about 35 years of age, left behind him an unpaid board bill, a pair of gray trousers and a black sweater at the depot, and a pair of overalls under the hotel building. A hammer and chisel which he used in his bungling efforts to open the safe were identified as tools recently stolen from the Hamblith & Rohde blacksmith shop.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON TO TRAIN OFFICERS

Course Is Under Direction of Colonel John Leader and Captain Jacob Kanzler.

The long hoped for reserve officers training camp will be established at the University of Oregon under direction of Colonel John Leader, of the British army, and Captain Jacob Kanzler, Portland, of the United States army. The camp was assured by the passage of the Chamberlain bill, official notice of which reached the university Saturday. This action put the university course on a par with that of all other schools offering officers' training. The work will embrace every department of military endeavor, both practical and theoretical.

The new work was begun immediately, but the intensive training of 10 to 12 hours a day will not be begun until June 1. About 300 students of the university and perhaps 35 members of the faculty have made known their intention to take the course.

Training is open to all males between the ages of 18 and 45 who can meet the physical requirements. Colonel Leader thinks that a large number of men enrolled in the home guards will seize this opportunity of winning commissions.

NEW RULES PROVIDE SUGAR FOR CANNING

Purchases Not to Exceed 100 Pounds Allowed Single Families.

New rules governing the sale of sugar have been announced by the federal food administration to insure a sufficient supply for use during the canning and preserving season. The rules permit retail dealers to increase their stocks gradually so that a rush upon transportation will not develop when the canning season actually arrives, and allow the sale of quantities of sugar not exceeding 100 pounds to be made to a single family, where certain requirements, as to registration of purchase to be made by purchaser and returned through the retail dealer, are met.

Sugar to be used by the consumer for purposes other than canning and preserving shall not be sold by the dealer in greater quantities than the present allowance.

Sales to family consumers are limited to 81 purchases.

Farmers or others living outside the limits of any city or town may purchase in 25-pound lots.

Sugar shall not be used or advertised as a leader for special sales, nor to encourage the sale of other merchandise.

ALLEN EATON TELLS OF HIS MISTREATMENT

Admits His Own Mistake and Asks for Fair Treatment by the Voters of Lane County.

Allen Eaton's talk at the Arcade theater Wednesday evening was an able defense of his patriotism and loyalty, an admission of his own mistakes, and an appeal for vindication from what he characterized as an attempt on the part of members of the Eugene commercial club to down him by methods far more heinous than any mistake of which he had been guilty.

Mr. Eaton attempted to make it plain that he had no intention of acting in a disloyal manner in attending the meeting at Chicago, for which action he has been so severely criticized, and which he says was taken advantage of by his enemies for a campaign of persecution never before equalled in Lane county, and in which he said methods were employed that were as questionable as his action would have been if he had been guilty of believing in all the things which have ever been charged against the People's Peace council, the meeting of which in Chicago he attended. He declared that he had never been a member of this organization, that his connection with the meeting was slight, and that he took no part in it.

To a representative of The Sentinel, following the meeting, Mr. Eaton stated that he hoped he had made it plain that he regretted very much having attended the meeting at all, that he certainly should not have attended had he had any realization of the construction that he did not believe and never had believed in any of the disloyal things charged as the platform of this organization, that he had paid very little attention to this organization before his attendance at the Chicago meeting, did not know of the dispute into which the organization had fallen and that nothing could at this time induce him to attend any kind of a meeting of that organization, even though recent events had not transpired.

He maintained that many of the delegates to the Chicago meeting were sincere men, but he conceded that the meeting was indiscreet and his own attendance also indiscreet, as afterwards appeared.

Mr. Eaton also stated that after the Chicago meeting he went on to New York, where he attended another meeting of entirely different people opposed to the Chicago meeting.

Mr. Eaton went into detail in his explanations of what he characterized as malicious and lawless methods used to persecute both him and his family, said that he was not permitted to even show whether a meeting of his friends which he wished to address was to be a loyal or disloyal one, that he was threatened with tar and feathers, that he was refused the privilege of working in the Red Cross and liberty loan drives when even convicts were granted that privilege.

Mr. Eaton outlined some of the legislation he favored and came out in harmony with the ideas of the Cottage Grove candidate for joint senator for radical changes in the delinquent tax list publication.

NEW SCHOOL SCHEDULE PROVES GREAT BENEFIT

Conserved Time Plan Enables Pupils to Hold Helpful Jobs.

The new high school schedule, under which school is assembled at 8:30 a. m. and dismissed at 2 p. m., put into effect about three weeks ago, is working out so splendidly that Superintendent Glass has been requested to report to the national director of the federal reserve department on the plan. Under this schedule, in which the school day is divided into 40-minute periods, with a 45-minute lunch period at noon, the pupils are enabled to hold positions in the afternoon. Many are employed at regular afternoon jobs in the mills and on farms and elsewhere, others doing odd jobs. Some boys are earning a regular wage of $2 for their afternoons.

Enlistments under the Boys' Reserve are coming in very slowly in this district and under advice of the national director are not being urged in this community, as there is sufficient work here to employ all of the boys profitably in view of which it is not thought wise to send them to do similar work elsewhere.

YEAR-END P-T MEETING IS TO BE HELD

Resume of Year's Activities to Be Made and Readings, Music and Talks Will Be Given.

The final parent-teacher meeting of the year will be held in the high school auditorium Tuesday, May 14, at 8 p. m., at which time a resume of the year's work will be made and a special musical program will be given.

The program follows: Selection by the Christian church orchestra; piano solo, Hildred Hall; readings, Bonita Benger and Millie Burrows; vocal solo, Miss Minnie Wilcox; talk, "Summing Up the School Year," Alta King; readings, Miss Helen Simpson and Mrs. Carrie Hemenway; address, "The Relation of Our Schools to the World War," O. M. Kem; talks, "Closing the Year," Elbert Bede, Superintendent Glass, Alfred Skei and others.

INTERESTING PROGRAM IS GIVEN BY LEAGUE

O. M. Kem Gives Address for Himself and Elbert Bede.

An interesting patriotic program was given at the high school Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Patriotic League. Drills by the west side and east side lower grades were particularly pleasing. The male quartet gave a number and there were readings by Miss Martha Wilkinson, Miss Hazel Loucks and Clyde Bureham. O. M. Kem delivered a splendid patriotic address and decided to give half the credit to Elbert Bede, who was on the program for a similar address but decided that he could please the audience better by not holding them longer at so late an hour.

LOST MAN, THOUGHT DEAD, IS FOUND ALIVE

Lynn Hollow, Or., May 8.—(Special to The Sentinel).—Mr. Babcock, the old man who wandered away from the McCubbins mill and was lost, was gone a week before he could be located, though both mill crews and the men of the neighborhood searched for him far and near.

When found he was asleep on a bed of moss in what is known as the "Hole in the Ground," in Camas swale, and had neither coat nor hat and no food. Aside from being very weak from lack of food and exposure, he seems not so much the worse for his experience.

SHOULD RECEIVE LANE VOTE

Eugene Guard: William H. Hornbrook, editor of the Albany Democrat, has announced his candidacy for the position of member of the democratic national committee from Oregon. Editor Hornbrook is one of the leading men in his party in the Willamette valley and in the state and a man of whom Oregon might well be proud to have as representative in the supreme council of the party in the nation.

Mr. Hornbrook has represented his country in the important post of minister to Siam. He received an appointment to this position from President Wilson and with his family removed to that country, where he remained but a short time because the climatic condition threatened to impair the health of his children. Mr. Hornbrook, upon returning to Oregon, resumed publication of his Albany paper, which had been leased during his absence.

When a resident of Idaho, before coming to Oregon, Mr. Hornbrook was a leader of the democratic party in that state, representing Twin Falls county, which is strongly republican, in the legislature.

Voters of Oregon will elect members of the republican and democratic national committees at the primary election in May. So far as the democratic choice is concerned, Lane county should roll up a good vote for Mr. Hornbrook. He is big enough for the position he seeks and he is a prominent resident of our neighboring city. The honor and responsibility given him will not be misplaced.

MISS ADA MATTHEWS GIVES HER SENIOR RECITAL AT U. OF O. SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the recital hall of the school of music at the University of Oregon, Miss Ada Matthews gave her senior recital. She was assisted by Miss Kate Chatburn, contralto. Miss Matthews program was as follows:

Beethoven—Concerto in C Minor, Op. 37, Allegro Con Brio, with Cadenza by Beethoven.
Haydn—Andante Con Variazioni.
Schumann—Papillons. Introduction, Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11.
Augusta Holmes—A Threnody, Miss Chatburn.
Grieg—Op. 40, Halberg Suites, Prelude, Gavotte, Rigodon.
Cyril Scott—Irish Reel.
Stanford Granger—MacGuire's Kick.
Gounod—To Spring (words by Jules Barbier).

A message to Mars would cost ten million dollars, according to Prof. Pickering. There is no congestion of service as yet.

WILL MAKE DOUBLE RED CROSS FUND CAMPAIGN

Cottage Grove to Raise Money for National and Local Work Simultaneously

Plans for Local Campaign in Hands of Mrs. C. H. Corson and Alf. Jury; National Committee Yet to Be Appointed.

Next comes the second war fund drive of the American Red Cross for $100,000,000, with which, in Cottage Grove, will be coupled the local branch campaign for funds to carry on its military relief work. The campaign will begin May 20.

Cottage Grove's quota in the coming national campaign will be determined at a meeting in Eugene Saturday night of the executive committee which will be attended by C. E. Umphrey and T. C. Wheeler as Cottage Grove representatives. It is thought that this quota will probably be a minimum of $3500. In last year's campaign the city's quota was $5000, which, however, was thought to be a disproportionate amount for a city of this size.

Twenty-five per cent of the amount raised in the national campaign will go to the local chapter for its war work. A forecast of the amount of money that will be required for the work of this branch during the coming year indicates that not less than $4000 will be required to carry on the work. It is to make up the deficit of approximately $2500 between the forecasted requirements and the assets of the branch as represented in membership money and the 25 per cent to accrue from the national campaign, that the local campaign will be made. Since the beginning of the year the branch has allowed no benefits to be given nor solicitation of any sort to be made, and after this campaign no other will be made during the year.

This local campaign, then, will be the only opportunity of the year to give financial aid to the local war work. For this reason, it is expected that this campaign will be generously responded to by all loyal citizens. A plan to distribute the payment of subscriptions has been worked out so that the pledges to the local fund can be met with monthly payments in amounts not less than 25 cents, if it is found difficult to meet the entire pledge at one time. The subscription cards, which will be in the hands of the soliciting committees next week, will read "cash in full," "semi-annually" or "monthly." Contributors can then choose the manner of payment most convenient to themselves.

Mrs. C. H. Corson will act as chairman for the local fund campaign, and Alf. Jury as cashier.

Next week a full statement of all the work done and all the money received and expended by the Cottage Grove branch will be published in The Sentinel.

The chairman and cashier of the national campaign in this territory will probably be announced from the meeting at Eugene Saturday night.

The districting of the territory will be the same as that of the third liberty loan campaign. In the districts where there are organized auxiliaries—Dorena, Divide, London, Blue Mountain, Mount View, Saginaw and The Cedars, the work of soliciting will be handled by the auxiliaries. In other districts, committees will be named to do the work. A prospectus of the entire territory will be worked out before beginning the campaign.

The state campaign is managed by Henry L. Corbett, with Fred H. Strong, of Portland, as assistant manager in this district. Mr. Strong is an especially efficient man in campaign management and has distinguished himself in war work.

A notable feature of the impending campaign is that for the first time the Red Cross will conduct a campaign through its own organization.

Every dollar subscribed will go to Red Cross work, 75 per cent to the national Red Cross and 25 per cent to the war work of the local branch, and in this case $1.00 is really $1.02, for of every dollar subscribed to the Red Cross in the drive last year, $1.02 has been available, the two cents representing interest.

The entire expenses of the campaign will be met with a voluntary subscription, not a cent to be taken from the war fund to defray the unavoidable expenditures.

It is hoped that the campaign here will be short and snappy, the gifts coming as easily in a short time as in a longer one. The Portland chapter plans to complete its campaign in two days.

It is expected that all subscriptions, both for the local and for the national campaigns, will be published.
