

COFFEE

Your choice of the following brands

M. J. B. ROYAL CLUB GOLDEN WEST
CARACUL SPECIAL BLEND FLYER

Flavor to suit your taste and price to suit your pocketbook.

KERR & SILSBY

Better Service

Better service means better glasses.
Our glasses satisfy because they are made to satisfy.

Consult With Us

We scientifically test the eyes and then make glasses for you that will bring relief to your eyes.

Broken lenses matched and frames repaired.

D. J. Scholl
OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST
LENSES GROUND ON PREMISES

TALES OF THE TOWN

Sidewalk lumber at Cottage Grove Manufacturing company.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hopper expect to leave about August 1 for Astoria.

Charles Rudolph returned Friday from a visit in Portland.

Harold Sams, who had been visiting here with his parents, left Friday to resume his duties on the battleship Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hawley returned Sunday from a visit in Eugene at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. A. Ward.

CITY MEAT MARKET

QUALITY

FRESH AND CURED MEATS
SAUSAGE & LUNCH MEATS
LARD AND COMPOUND.

Delivery before 9 a. m.
and after 2 p. m. Phone 89

J. O. Vincent, of Roseburg, was here this week on business. He formerly resided here.

Wood wanted—Inquire at The Fair. Nelson Whipp has passed the preliminary examination for the navy and leaves Saturday to be inducted into the service.

Miss Grace Sanford has returned from a visit with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. J. K. Palmer visited in Eugene during the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Gourley.

groceries

Our stock of groceries and canned goods is always fresh and clean because we turn our stock often and do not carry such a large stock, therefore it is always fresh and wholesome.

GET OUR PRICES ON
wheat substitutes
IN 50-POUND LOTS

THIS STORE WILL BE CLOSED ALL DAY JULY 4TH
Short's Grocery
WALK A BLOCK AND SAVE A DIME

Dealers, Attention! Limited lot of cotton wrapping twine on sale at $1.50 a cone at The Fair.

The spot cash and carry home your goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spray's. m22f

Mrs. Leon DesLarzes and daughter visited in Eugene Saturday.

The A. W. Swanson family motored to Albany Sunday.

The H. G. St. Clair family has moved to Eugene.

Mrs. Susanah Gardner returned Tuesday from a visit at Lowell.

Mrs. Charles Morrow, of Marcola, who had been visiting her mother at the home of her sister, Mrs. George McQueen, returned home Tuesday.

Remember the boys in France with your photo—it will encourage them. A. L. Monroe. jun28tf

Millard Wallace went to Portland Tuesday to join the quartermaster corps.

The C. S. Brooks family has moved to Wendling.

Mrs. Myrtle Bradford and daughter were here from Elkhead Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wise, of Prineville, visited this week at the home of Mrs. Wise's brother, Robert Hanna.

Wm. Brund is here from Dunsmuir, Calif.

Wm. Bartels and Pearl Plaster returned Tuesday from Central Point. They started with a car that Bartels had purchased, but left it in a ditch along the way.

Ladies' Shirt Waists

in voiles, silks and crepe—delicate garments for social functions and the more serviceable ones for home wear—and many are beautifully and elegantly trimmed. The prices range

$1.25 to $3.00

POWELL & HEMENWAY

Economy and Mason jar tops at The Fair store.

Mrs. B. F. Rindard has received a card from her son Raymond saying that he has arrived safely in France.

K. K. Mills has received word that his brother, James Mills, who recently visited here, has been promoted to a captaincy.

Mrs. R. C. Ostrander writes from Bandon to renew her subscription.

Veal and beef wanted. Highest cash price. Farmers' Cash Market. m22tf

F. B. Shortridge has collected the bounty on 111 gray diggers.

Mrs. G. C. Miller, of Washington, left Tuesday for Albany, after having visited several days here with her parents, "Uncle" Burne and "Aunt" Jane Veatch.

BINDING TWINE

HARVESTERS' SUPPLIES OF EVERY KIND

Wynne & Kime

HARDWARE

Mrs. A. L. Ide, whose husband is a member of the faculty at Monmouth, visited this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivel Loucks. Mrs. Ide has been engaged to teach psychology in Philadelphia the coming year and will return there unless securing a similar position in the west.

All kinds of records of latest war music at H. C. Madsen's. jne28tf

H. F. Oakes, who was injured in an automobile accident at Portland some months ago but who was thought to have nearly recovered, has been seriously ill during the past week.

IF YOU HAVE DISEASES OF THE Stomach, Disease of Skin or Gall Stones . . . See Dr. Oglesby

Leon R. Rowland, of Portland, representing The Timberman, was in the city yesterday visiting the millmen of this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Langston leave Saturday to make their home at Fort Bidwell, Calif.

W. G. Perry is suffering with what may prove to be a slightly fractured rib. He and J. K. Barrett were playfully punching at one another and the latter struck Mr. Perry a little harder than he intended to, causing the injury.

Wanted, hogs—fat or stock; highest market price. Farmers' Cash Market. tf

J. S. Maglady, manager of the Bohemia Lumber company at Row River, went to Portland Wednesday.

J. H. Chambers was in Eugene yesterday on business.

Andrew Brund, G. O. Knowles, T. C. Wheeler, O. O. Veatch, H. F. Wynne, John Bader and Elbert Bede, members of the Masonic lodge, attended the funeral of S. S. Spencer at Eugene yesterday afternoon.

Jar rubbers—get them quick at The Fair.

Miss Carolyn Woods has accepted a position in the Marshfield schools.

Rev. Joseph Knotts leaves Monday for Jefferson to attend a week's session of the Epworth League Institute faculty, of which he is a member.

Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. Jessup, Miss Cora Treynor and Miss Nellie Myers motored to Eugene Wednesday evening to see Margaret Anglin in "Billeted."

Spray will pay you $10 per ton for any kind of old iron or steel. Clean up and buy thrift stamps. m31tf

Mrs. A. W. Kime was in Eugene yesterday, having accompanied Miss Sadie Garoutte, who was returning to Marshfield.

Harry Martin arrived Wednesday from Mabel to attend the funeral of Mrs. J. A. Cardwell.

The David Sterling family returned yesterday from their outing on the McKenzie.

The J. W. Veatch family visited in Eugene yesterday.

Mrs. K. C. Mills, her aunt, Mrs. Jessup, and Mrs. Leah Perkins Wyatt motored to Eugene yesterday. Mrs. Mills' mother and sister, Mrs. E. J. Howe and Miss Lola, returned with the party.

Sherwin-Williams Silo Paint. Sherwin-Williams Roof Paint. We have it in barrels. Cottage Grove Manufacturing company.

Miss Elnor Knowles left yesterday for a two weeks' visit at Florence with her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Westerson.

John Ishamel is reported very ill. His daughter, Mrs. John Grigsby, has arrived from Washington.

The cannery expects to start the season's operations within two weeks.

Eugene Lammers has gone to Seattle to prepare himself for a wireless telegrapher with the colors.

Farmers' Cash Market—that means we pay you spot cash for your produce and for spot cash you can save money on your feed, poultry supplies, seeds and groceries.

Joe Porter was in Creswell between trains Wednesday.

Mrs. J. V. Stewart has returned from a visit in California.

Virgil Gowdy is up from Reedsport to spend the week-end at home.

Alex Lundberg and Clifford Smith came down from Diston yesterday and went to Eugene, where Mr. Smith will take the physical examination for entrance to the army.

Forrest Groves is assisting this week at the Woodson garage.

Fred Anderson has purchased a Ford. If cabbage heads are out instead of pulled, new leaves will come out and furnish good green food for poultry.

Mrs. Frank Knox and Mrs. S. L. Knox motored to Eugene Saturday.

Glen Smith, who is now firing on the Southern Pacific, was in the city Friday and Saturday on his way from Grants Pass to Portland.

Mrs. Vernon Fields and son left Tuesday to join Mr. Fields at Marshfield.

J. A. Wright returned Thursday afternoon from an extended visit in Illinois. Mrs. Wright and son Gordon remained for a longer visit.

Fine lot of diamonds just received by H. C. Madsen. A mighty good investment for anyone. They are going up in price rapidly. jne28tf

Mrs. A. W. Kime and son and daughter, Claud and Mrs. Roy Romaine, and Miss Maud Doyle returned Friday from their motor trip to the coast. Miss Sadie Garoutte, of Bandon, accompanied them home. The party motored down the coast to Eureka, Calif., and visited southern Oregon cities.

Mrs. Anna Hess returned Monday to her home at Roseburg, after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller. Mrs. Hess and Mrs. Miller visited in Eugene Saturday.

E. D. Cole returned Tuesday to Point Terrace, after having been here two weeks looking after business affairs.

Miss Helen Rodolf returned Tuesday to her home at Corvallis, after a week's visit with Mrs. S. V. Allison.

County Commissioner Spencer was up from Eugene Monday on road business. Miss Esther Jorgenson and Miss Lucile Callison have been elected teachers for the Walden school.

Farmers' Cash Market pays cash for chickens, eggs, hides, chittem bark and old iron.

If you will keep the bread in the ice box during hot weather, well wrapped to prevent absorption of moisture and odors, it will keep fresh much longer.

Rev. D. A. MacLeod was up from Camp Lewis for the week-end and gave an address at a union meeting at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

E. E. Finnen left Friday to work in the spruce camps at Toledo. The contractors wanted him to bring two or three more men with him.

A physician was called from Springfield a few days ago to attend Mrs. W. H. Lawrence, who has been seriously ill with liver trouble for several months.

Bill Wilkins and family, of Leona, visited Mrs. Fanny Rhodes last week.

Mrs. Wm. Wilkins and son Austin, of Lakeside, visited at the James Allen home during the past week.

Make the boy a present of a wrist watch before he goes away. Fine line just received at H. C. Madsen's—from $10 up. jly12tf

Mrs. Harvey Taylor and daughter Esther were in from Coast Fork Saturday.

A friend, writing from Santa Cruz, Calif., to Mrs. E. E. Finnen, of this city, says it has been so cold there a person couldn't sit still and write letters during evenings.

Mrs. B. F. Rindard has received a letter from her son Louis, saying that he had seen his brother Raymond and indicating that he is in France by this time.

Jars and Jugs

A COMPLETE LINE OF THE FAMOUS RED WING, MINNESOTA, JARS AND JUGS—ANY SIZE FROM

Half-gallon to 10-gallon

TIME FOR PUTTING AWAY MEAT, KRAUT, EGGS AND PICKLES.

WE WANT TO BUY SOME CLEAN QUART BOTTLES—BRING US SOME.

A. BRUND & COMP'Y

Grocers to Particular People Phone 65

Bathing suits and caps at The Fair. Bernard Piper, of Portland, visited during the past week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Piper.

Misses Maud and Edith White, of Payette, Ida., and Mrs. Hattie Redford and daughter Stella, of Eugene, were guests of Mrs. Albert Stocks during the past week.

Mrs. Jasper Patten has received word from her son, W. B., saying that he has been transferred to the U. S. S. Honston and that he has completed 11 trips to France.

Bones wanted at Farmers' Cash Market. jne21tf

Captain Wm. Stranahan, of the U. S. geological survey, is here doing military mapping for the government.

The family of E. M. Thurber arrived Friday from Marshfield. Mr. Thurber had been here for some time. The family will again make this their home. Mr. Thurber disposed of his moving picture business at Marshfield.

Mrs. Jennie Parmenter, who formerly lived near this city, and who was a county charge, died at the Springfield hospital June 22. She was 70 years of age.

Mrs. Roy Romaine, who had been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime, returned Wednesday to her home at Walla Walla, Wash. Her sister, little Geneva, accompanied her for a visit.

Charles Spray has returned from a visit in eastern Oregon.

Cases of typhoid, contracted by Miss Emilie Holderman and Miss Forrest Schneider while attending summer school at Monmouth, have been reported this week. As both of the young women boarded at the same place, and as there had been sickness in the house, the physicians say there is no doubt of their having contracted it there. Neither of young women is thought to be in a serious condition.

George McQueen, Jr., returned Sunday from Raymond, Wash., where he was employed in the shipyards. Kenneth DeLassus, who went to Raymond with him, is in Portland. They found shipbuilding rather severe work and rather dangerous on account of so many inexperienced men being employed.

Gray enamelware as low as tinware at The Fair.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Miss Mary Ellen Benson and Miss Gertrude Aldrich motored to Black Butte Monday and visited at the Armand Wynne home. Mrs. Wynne and the children returned with them and are spending the week in town.

J. W. Harms was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Frank Woodruff, who is doing plumbing work for the Southern Pacific in the spruce camps, was home for the weekend and remained over for the funeral of Mrs. Woodruff's brother-in-law, Captain Parker.

Dr. Sherman W. Moody, A. K. Meek and I. M. Sherman, of Eugene, were fishing on the coast fork Sunday and took home a fine creel.

Alta King's household goods were moved to Eugene this week. He is now head deputy in the sheriff's office.

E. M. Sharp has filed with the county clerk the assumed business name of Johnson and Sharp, stating that he is the sole proprietor of the business.

Joe Arnold arrived Sunday from Elensburg, Wash., for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Joe Porter. He is endeavoring to put on enough flesh to get into the army.

Mrs. J. E. Woodson Dies.

The sudden death at 8:30 last night of Mrs. J. E. Woodson came as a decided shock to the community. The cause of death was placenta, accompanying childbirth. The baby lived. Further details are not available as The Sentinel goes to press.

Save Money on Your Washings

By sending them to the Cottage Grove Laundry. Fuel, soap, and everything that enters into washing has greatly increased in price, but our charges have not risen accordingly. We can save your money besides, what's the use of sweating over the wash tub these hot days? DRY CLEANING A SPECIALTY

IF YOU WANT TO GET
BARGAINS
EVERY DAY
GO TO THE FAIR

Ten-day enamelware sale—nearly every piece at wholesale price.

Lot of mugs worth 25c at 15c.

Lot of Japanese cups and saucers worth 40c at 25c.

PAPER TOWELS, NAPKINS, PICNIC SETS, SPOONS, KNIVES AND FORKS, JAR RUBBERS, JAR CAPS, PAINTS AND PAINT BRUSHES.

WE ARE SELLING A GREAT MANY READY-MADE

Waists, Skirts and Dresses

FOR MISSES AND CHILDREN. NOW IS THE TIME TO

Buy—a—Sweater

WE HAVE A SMALL LOT LEFT AT THE OLD PRICES

New goods are arriving every day. Come in and see. We want you to come in and look around whether you buy or not

YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME AT

THE FAIR STORE