

Victory Cookies

Mary Anns, Spiced Jumbles
Mother's Fruited Ovals

BULK COOKIES

A fresh shipment just arrived

KERR & SILSBY

It's the Specialist's Skill

that tells the story—not only in scientific eye examination and lenses furnished but also in the "know how" of adjusting the glasses to such a nicety that the greatest ease, comfort and style are given to the wearer.

Let me give you the benefit of my twelve years' experience.

People wearing my glasses like to send me their friends.

D.J. SCHOLL
OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST
Lenses Ground on Premises

TALES OF THE TOWN

William R. Hawley is plaintiff in a circuit court suit against Joseph Schneider, seeking a judgment in the sum of $417.54 with interest at 6 per cent from March 1, 1916, alleged due as rental on a ranch owned by the plaintiff.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hawley were in Eugene the first of the week assisting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ward, in packing their household goods. Mr. and Mrs. Ward are moving to the Hawley ranch at Lorane.

Andy Nelson came up from Eugene Tuesday to assist the Cottage Grove Electric company in connecting up some motors.

Old rags wanted. Five cents pound. Must be clean and fairly good size. Do not bring small pieces or thick pieces of cloth. Old underclothes, if not too heavy, old shirts, and any kind of dress goods make the kind of rags we want. Old stockings, small pieces and narrow strips are of no use. The Sentinel, 011tf

George Hall arrived Tuesday from Corvallis, where he is attending the S. A. T. C. He is recovering from a severe attack of influenza.

CITY MEAT MARKET

Oleomargarine, lb 45c
Gold Crest creamery butter 65c

ALL KINDS SAUSAGES
AND LUNCH MEATS

PHONE 89

Delivery before 9; after 3:30

Mrs. D. J. Gover is here from Portland for a few days. Both Mr. Gover and son Henry are employed in the shipyards.

Kenneth Mills writes from Mare Island navy yard to his mother, Mrs. G. F. Mills, that the yard is under quarantine for influenza and diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Monday from the Champion, having been called by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGowan, of McMinnville, stopped here this week to look after the digging of their potatoes while on their way to California for the winter.

"Never to late to mend" does not apply to shoe repairing. Bring the shoes in before they are hopelessly beyond repair. If brought in time we can make them just as good as new. Dr. Goff, 011fe

A 9-pound daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt and Mrs. Leah Wyatt have received word that their son and husband, Ernest Wyatt, who is with the colors in France, has just recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. They knew he had been in the hospital but did not know the nature of his illness.

John Bader has been confined to the house this week with a bad cold.

The spot cash and carry home goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spry's. m22tf

Miss Josie Coleman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Olcott, has returned to her home at Wells.

Mrs. C. H. Haight, of Delight Valley, returned Wednesday from a visit at Yreka, Calif.

Fred Stickels, republican candidate for sheriff, was in the city briefly Tuesday.

R. B. Hanna has returned from Ione, where he was employed installing a plant for the Standard Oil company.

Reckoned cheap for sale at Sterling's. s20tf

County Assessor and Mrs. D. P. Burton are up from Eugene for a few days.

Al Churchill has joined the government survey party that is working out of Landmark.

Dale Veatch, of Portland, arrived Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends. He had been at O. A. C., where he took the examination for the S. A. T. C., but was turned down with about 1100 others. He reports that the epidemic of influenza there has been quite severe.

Farmers' Cash Market pays cash for chickens, eggs, hides, chittum bark and old iron. m22tf

Mrs. J. V. Johnson left Saturday with her mother, Mrs. John Anderson, whom she was taking to a hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Charles Fickett, of Chicago, formerly Mrs. W. H. Abrams, spent the week end with Mrs. H. A. Miller. She had been at Eugene in connection with a suit in district court.

Miss Nellie Myers is here from Eugene visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith, while the Eugene schools are closed on account of influenza.

Miss Ada Matthews desires a class of piano students. Phone 156 L. 011fe

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona Friday and disposed of his home here to a party from Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. George Salton visited in Eugene Friday.

W. P. Huff was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Kenneth DeLassus has returned from Portland.

Levi Stewart, an old soldier and 80 years of age, has had catarracts removed from his eyes and is again able to see, after ten years of blindness.

A marriage license was issued Friday to Ezra Messenger, of Dorena, and Ivy Neal, of Walker.

HOW DO YOU KNOW when you're going to die or have a fire? Whether you do or not, you should simply protect yourself and family with either life or fire insurance, or both. Talk with Harry Metcalf. It costs nothing to talk and he may be able to give you some information worth while. s27tf

Judge Skipworth has adjourned court until after the abatement of the influenza epidemic.

Mrs. Frank McFarland was in Eugene Monday.

George Lammers and son Fred were in Eugene Tuesday on business.

T. C. Wheeler was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

The City Meat Market buys veal, live and dressed. Phone 89. s21fe

Elbert Bede was in Eugene Tuesday on business with County Clerk Russell.

Ernest Lockwood was in Eugene Monday on business.

Lee Travis, of Eugene, has received word from Minneapolis that a fortune awaits George W. Kinschi and wife Lydia, who are thought to have moved to Lane county some years ago. Mr. Travis has so far been unable to locate the parties or their heirs.

A fine photo is the least expensive and the best Christmas present you can give, but YOU MUST MAKE AN EARLY APPOINTMENT FOR YOUR SITTING or you will not get THEM ON TIME. 011fe

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, Mrs. Anna Gowdy and Mrs. B. R. Job attended church at Creswell Sunday evening.

O. H. Hawley and family, of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hambrick, of The Dalles, and Mrs. C. M. Van Buren, of Portland, were called here by the illness and death of G. F. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Westwood, Calif., visited this week with Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper.

Mrs. Nellie C. Bassett, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Nettie Arne.

Miss Carolyn Schelling has gone to her home at Westlake while the schools are closed.

W. L. Hubbell has returned from eastern Oregon, where he was erecting stations for the Standard Oil company. He has another contract but is suffering with a boil which prevents his working for a short time. His brother, W. N., remained on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Monday from the Champion, having been called by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGowan, of McMinnville, stopped here this week to look after the digging of their potatoes while on their way to California for the winter.

"Never to late to mend" does not apply to shoe repairing. Bring the shoes in before they are hopelessly beyond repair. If brought in time we can make them just as good as new. Dr. Goff, 011fe

A 9-pound daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt and Mrs. Leah Wyatt have received word that their son and husband, Ernest Wyatt, who is with the colors in France, has just recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. They knew he had been in the hospital but did not know the nature of his illness.

John Bader has been confined to the house this week with a bad cold.

The spot cash and carry home goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spry's. m22tf

Miss Josie Coleman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Olcott, has returned to her home at Wells.

Mrs. C. H. Haight, of Delight Valley, returned Wednesday from a visit at Yreka, Calif.

Fred Stickels, republican candidate for sheriff, was in the city briefly Tuesday.

R. B. Hanna has returned from Ione, where he was employed installing a plant for the Standard Oil company.

Reckoned cheap for sale at Sterling's. s20tf

County Assessor and Mrs. D. P. Burton are up from Eugene for a few days.

Al Churchill has joined the government survey party that is working out of Landmark.

Dale Veatch, of Portland, arrived Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends. He had been at O. A. C., where he took the examination for the S. A. T. C., but was turned down with about 1100 others. He reports that the epidemic of influenza there has been quite severe.

Farmers' Cash Market pays cash for chickens, eggs, hides, chittum bark and old iron. m22tf

Mrs. J. V. Johnson left Saturday with her mother, Mrs. John Anderson, whom she was taking to a hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Charles Fickett, of Chicago, formerly Mrs. W. H. Abrams, spent the week end with Mrs. H. A. Miller. She had been at Eugene in connection with a suit in district court.

Miss Nellie Myers is here from Eugene visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith, while the Eugene schools are closed on account of influenza.

Miss Ada Matthews desires a class of piano students. Phone 156 L. 011fe

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona Friday and disposed of his home here to a party from Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. George Salton visited in Eugene Friday.

W. P. Huff was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Kenneth DeLassus has returned from Portland.

Levi Stewart, an old soldier and 80 years of age, has had catarracts removed from his eyes and is again able to see, after ten years of blindness.

A marriage license was issued Friday to Ezra Messenger, of Dorena, and Ivy Neal, of Walker.

HOW DO YOU KNOW when you're going to die or have a fire? Whether you do or not, you should simply protect yourself and family with either life or fire insurance, or both. Talk with Harry Metcalf. It costs nothing to talk and he may be able to give you some information worth while. s27tf

Judge Skipworth has adjourned court until after the abatement of the influenza epidemic.

Mrs. Frank McFarland was in Eugene Monday.

George Lammers and son Fred were in Eugene Tuesday on business.

T. C. Wheeler was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

The City Meat Market buys veal, live and dressed. Phone 89. s21fe

Elbert Bede was in Eugene Tuesday on business with County Clerk Russell.

Ernest Lockwood was in Eugene Monday on business.

Lee Travis, of Eugene, has received word from Minneapolis that a fortune awaits George W. Kinschi and wife Lydia, who are thought to have moved to Lane county some years ago. Mr. Travis has so far been unable to locate the parties or their heirs.

A fine photo is the least expensive and the best Christmas present you can give, but YOU MUST MAKE AN EARLY APPOINTMENT FOR YOUR SITTING or you will not get THEM ON TIME. 011fe

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, Mrs. Anna Gowdy and Mrs. B. R. Job attended church at Creswell Sunday evening.

O. H. Hawley and family, of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hambrick, of The Dalles, and Mrs. C. M. Van Buren, of Portland, were called here by the illness and death of G. F. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Westwood, Calif., visited this week with Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper.

Mrs. Nellie C. Bassett, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Nettie Arne.

Miss Carolyn Schelling has gone to her home at Westlake while the schools are closed.

W. L. Hubbell has returned from eastern Oregon, where he was erecting stations for the Standard Oil company. He has another contract but is suffering with a boil which prevents his working for a short time. His brother, W. N., remained on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Monday from the Champion, having been called by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGowan, of McMinnville, stopped here this week to look after the digging of their potatoes while on their way to California for the winter.

"Never to late to mend" does not apply to shoe repairing. Bring the shoes in before they are hopelessly beyond repair. If brought in time we can make them just as good as new. Dr. Goff, 011fe

A 9-pound daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt and Mrs. Leah Wyatt have received word that their son and husband, Ernest Wyatt, who is with the colors in France, has just recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. They knew he had been in the hospital but did not know the nature of his illness.

John Bader has been confined to the house this week with a bad cold.

The spot cash and carry home goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spry's. m22tf

Miss Josie Coleman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Olcott, has returned to her home at Wells.

Mrs. C. H. Haight, of Delight Valley, returned Wednesday from a visit at Yreka, Calif.

Fred Stickels, republican candidate for sheriff, was in the city briefly Tuesday.

R. B. Hanna has returned from Ione, where he was employed installing a plant for the Standard Oil company.

Reckoned cheap for sale at Sterling's. s20tf

County Assessor and Mrs. D. P. Burton are up from Eugene for a few days.

Al Churchill has joined the government survey party that is working out of Landmark.

Dale Veatch, of Portland, arrived Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends. He had been at O. A. C., where he took the examination for the S. A. T. C., but was turned down with about 1100 others. He reports that the epidemic of influenza there has been quite severe.

Farmers' Cash Market pays cash for chickens, eggs, hides, chittum bark and old iron. m22tf

Mrs. J. V. Johnson left Saturday with her mother, Mrs. John Anderson, whom she was taking to a hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Charles Fickett, of Chicago, formerly Mrs. W. H. Abrams, spent the week end with Mrs. H. A. Miller. She had been at Eugene in connection with a suit in district court.

Miss Nellie Myers is here from Eugene visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith, while the Eugene schools are closed on account of influenza.

Miss Ada Matthews desires a class of piano students. Phone 156 L. 011fe

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona Friday and disposed of his home here to a party from Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. George Salton visited in Eugene Friday.

W. P. Huff was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Kenneth DeLassus has returned from Portland.

Levi Stewart, an old soldier and 80 years of age, has had catarracts removed from his eyes and is again able to see, after ten years of blindness.

A marriage license was issued Friday to Ezra Messenger, of Dorena, and Ivy Neal, of Walker.

HOW DO YOU KNOW when you're going to die or have a fire? Whether you do or not, you should simply protect yourself and family with either life or fire insurance, or both. Talk with Harry Metcalf. It costs nothing to talk and he may be able to give you some information worth while. s27tf

Judge Skipworth has adjourned court until after the abatement of the influenza epidemic.

Mrs. Frank McFarland was in Eugene Monday.

George Lammers and son Fred were in Eugene Tuesday on business.

T. C. Wheeler was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

The City Meat Market buys veal, live and dressed. Phone 89. s21fe

Elbert Bede was in Eugene Tuesday on business with County Clerk Russell.

Ernest Lockwood was in Eugene Monday on business.

Lee Travis, of Eugene, has received word from Minneapolis that a fortune awaits George W. Kinschi and wife Lydia, who are thought to have moved to Lane county some years ago. Mr. Travis has so far been unable to locate the parties or their heirs.

A fine photo is the least expensive and the best Christmas present you can give, but YOU MUST MAKE AN EARLY APPOINTMENT FOR YOUR SITTING or you will not get THEM ON TIME. 011fe

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, Mrs. Anna Gowdy and Mrs. B. R. Job attended church at Creswell Sunday evening.

O. H. Hawley and family, of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hambrick, of The Dalles, and Mrs. C. M. Van Buren, of Portland, were called here by the illness and death of G. F. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Westwood, Calif., visited this week with Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper.

Mrs. Nellie C. Bassett, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Nettie Arne.

Miss Carolyn Schelling has gone to her home at Westlake while the schools are closed.

W. L. Hubbell has returned from eastern Oregon, where he was erecting stations for the Standard Oil company. He has another contract but is suffering with a boil which prevents his working for a short time. His brother, W. N., remained on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Monday from the Champion, having been called by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGowan, of McMinnville, stopped here this week to look after the digging of their potatoes while on their way to California for the winter.

"Never to late to mend" does not apply to shoe repairing. Bring the shoes in before they are hopelessly beyond repair. If brought in time we can make them just as good as new. Dr. Goff, 011fe

A 9-pound daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt and Mrs. Leah Wyatt have received word that their son and husband, Ernest Wyatt, who is with the colors in France, has just recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. They knew he had been in the hospital but did not know the nature of his illness.

John Bader has been confined to the house this week with a bad cold.

The spot cash and carry home goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spry's. m22tf

Miss Josie Coleman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Olcott, has returned to her home at Wells.

Mrs. C. H. Haight, of Delight Valley, returned Wednesday from a visit at Yreka, Calif.

Fred Stickels, republican candidate for sheriff, was in the city briefly Tuesday.

R. B. Hanna has returned from Ione, where he was employed installing a plant for the Standard Oil company.

Reckoned cheap for sale at Sterling's. s20tf

County Assessor and Mrs. D. P. Burton are up from Eugene for a few days.

Al Churchill has joined the government survey party that is working out of Landmark.

Dale Veatch, of Portland, arrived Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends. He had been at O. A. C., where he took the examination for the S. A. T. C., but was turned down with about 1100 others. He reports that the epidemic of influenza there has been quite severe.

Farmers' Cash Market pays cash for chickens, eggs, hides, chittum bark and old iron. m22tf

Mrs. J. V. Johnson left Saturday with her mother, Mrs. John Anderson, whom she was taking to a hospital for an operation.

Mrs. Charles Fickett, of Chicago, formerly Mrs. W. H. Abrams, spent the week end with Mrs. H. A. Miller. She had been at Eugene in connection with a suit in district court.

Miss Nellie Myers is here from Eugene visiting her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith, while the Eugene schools are closed on account of influenza.

Miss Ada Matthews desires a class of piano students. Phone 156 L. 011fe

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona Friday and disposed of his home here to a party from Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. George Salton visited in Eugene Friday.

W. P. Huff was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Kenneth DeLassus has returned from Portland.

Levi Stewart, an old soldier and 80 years of age, has had catarracts removed from his eyes and is again able to see, after ten years of blindness.

A marriage license was issued Friday to Ezra Messenger, of Dorena, and Ivy Neal, of Walker.

HOW DO YOU KNOW when you're going to die or have a fire? Whether you do or not, you should simply protect yourself and family with either life or fire insurance, or both. Talk with Harry Metcalf. It costs nothing to talk and he may be able to give you some information worth while. s27tf

Judge Skipworth has adjourned court until after the abatement of the influenza epidemic.

Mrs. Frank McFarland was in Eugene Monday.

George Lammers and son Fred were in Eugene Tuesday on business.

T. C. Wheeler was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

The City Meat Market buys veal, live and dressed. Phone 89. s21fe

Elbert Bede was in Eugene Tuesday on business with County Clerk Russell.

Ernest Lockwood was in Eugene Monday on business.

Lee Travis, of Eugene, has received word from Minneapolis that a fortune awaits George W. Kinschi and wife Lydia, who are thought to have moved to Lane county some years ago. Mr. Travis has so far been unable to locate the parties or their heirs.

A fine photo is the least expensive and the best Christmas present you can give, but YOU MUST MAKE AN EARLY APPOINTMENT FOR YOUR SITTING or you will not get THEM ON TIME. 011fe

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jackson, Mrs. Anna Gowdy and Mrs. B. R. Job attended church at Creswell Sunday evening.

O. H. Hawley and family, of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hambrick, of The Dalles, and Mrs. C. M. Van Buren, of Portland, were called here by the illness and death of G. F. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cooper, of Westwood, Calif., visited this week with Mr. Cooper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cooper.

Mrs. Nellie C. Bassett, of Portland, is visiting Mrs. Nettie Arne.

Miss Carolyn Schelling has gone to her home at Westlake while the schools are closed.

W. L. Hubbell has returned from eastern Oregon, where he was erecting stations for the Standard Oil company. He has another contract but is suffering with a boil which prevents his working for a short time. His brother, W. N., remained on the job.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Monday from the Champion, having been called by the serious illness of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. Sherman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. McGowan, of McMinnville, stopped here this week to look after the digging of their potatoes while on their way to California for the winter.

"Never to late to mend" does not apply to shoe repairing. Bring the shoes in before they are hopelessly beyond repair. If brought in time we can make them just as good as new. Dr. Goff, 011fe

A 9-pound daughter was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lynch at Lorane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt and Mrs. Leah Wyatt have received word that their son and husband, Ernest Wyatt, who is with the colors in France, has just recovered from an attack of spinal meningitis. They knew he had been in the hospital but did not know the nature of his illness.

John Bader has been confined to the house this week with a bad cold.

The spot cash and carry home goods means cheaper goods. Make a saving at Spry's. m22tf

Miss Josie Coleman, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. H. H. Olcott, has returned to her home at Wells.

Mrs. C. H. Haight, of Delight Valley, returned Wednesday from a visit at