Sheriff Elkins, Being Busily Engaged in His Official Duties, Has Sent Out the Following Letter in Lieu of a Personal Campaign:

During the past year, while holding the office of Sheriff of Lane County, I have made every effort to perform the duties pertaining and a physician was called from town thereto with credit to the office, to the people of the County, and to to attend her.

As the work has been heavy, due to the additional demands made upon my time by war activities, I have had no time to devote to a campaign in the support of my candidacy at the coming election,

On the other hand my opponent and certain individuals interested in his election have been quite active.

Among other things, my opponent has covered the County with Dwyre home one evening last week.

Clarence Cartwright, who arrived last Friday from Medford, has been quite ill at the J. F. Gildersleve home this dodgers proclaiming that he is not a member of any "elick." I do not know why he feels called upon to make this denial unless it is to refute his own advertisement which shows that he has held political office practically continuously since his majority, and is now holding the office of Treasurer of the City of Eugene-his term expiring January, 1921.

The Sheriff is, by reason of his office, chairman of the Local Grove Monday. Draft Board, and the County Clerk, by reason of his office, is seeretary. There will of course be a vacancy in the secretaryship of the board by reason of the retirement of Mr. Russell. It is apparent that to also change the chairman at this time would naturally interfere with the efficiency of this important war work.

We are all agreed that the special business of our nation and of each of us, is war. Our success in this matter is, of course, vastly more important than the question as to who shall fill some County office. In this connection I will say that I believe my experience and familiarity with the work placed upon the Sheriff's office as a result of the war ought to fit me to serve this County far more effectively at this time than a new and wholly inexperienced man,

If my services have met with your approval, I assure you that any assistance you may be able to render will be thoroughly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

D. A. ELKINS.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL FOR SUPPO

They occur in the most critical hand. They occur in the most critical period our country has ever faced or is likely to face in our time. If you have approved of any leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abrond, I carnestly beg that you will express yourselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a democratic majority to both the senate and the house of representatives.

Plain Truth Necessary.

"I am your servant and will necept your judgment without eavil, but my to administer the great trust as signed to me by the constitution would be seriously impaired should your judg ment be adverse and I must frankly tell you so because so many critical issues depend upon your verdict. No scrupte of taste must in grim times like these be allowed to stand in the way of speaking the plain truth.

I have no thought of suggesting that any political party is paramount in mut ters of patriotism. I feel too keenly the sacrifices which have been made ithis war by all our citizens, irrespective of party affiliation, to harbor such as idea. I mean only that the difficulties and delicacies of our present task are of a sortsthat make it imperatively nee essary that the nation should give it undivided support to the government under a unified leadership and that a republican congress would divide the leadership.

... The leaders of the minority in the present congress have unquestions been pro-war, but they have been antiadministration. At almost every turn since we entered the war they have ought to take the choice of policy a the conduct of the war out of my hands and put it under the control of instru mentalities of their own choosing. This no time either for divided counsel of for divided leadership. Unity of command is as necessary now in civil actions as it is upon the field of battle. If control of the house and senate should be taken away from the party now in power, an opposing majority could assume control of legislation and oblige all action to be taken amid contest and obstruction Split Would Be Disastrons. "The return of a republican majorit to either house of congress would, more over, certainly be interpreted on the other side of the water as a repudiation Mrs. S. P. Shortridge and daughter of my leadership. Spokesmen of the re-Elena spent Saturday night in Cottage publican party are urging you to elect a republican congress in order to back a republican congress in order to back up and support the president, but even if they should in this way impose upon some credulous voters on this side of the water, they should impose on no one on the other side. It is well understood there, as well as here, that the republican leaders desire not so much to support the president as to control him. The peoples of the allied countries with whom we are associated against Ger Raymond Wicks is laid up with the grip. His brother Miles has taken his place on the car.
