

Our Windows Have Many Suggestions

Fine China and Cut Glass

to help you in your Christmas shopping. It will pay you to go a long distance to see them.

Our Christmas Eats

are of the best quality and will appeal to every appetite.

A Merry Christmas to Our Friends, One and All

KERR & SILSBY

I AM FULLY EQUIPPED

TO RENDER AN UNSURPASSED SERVICE TO ALL WHO DESIRE THE AID OF GLASSES.

Our long experience enables us to secure the most satisfactory results in every case. And as we grind our own lenses, we can supply glasses to our patients in the shortest possible time.

ANY LENS DUPLICATED IN A FEW HOURS' TIME.

D. J. SCHOLL

OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST
LENSES GRIND ON PREMISES

TALES OF THE TOWN

The pictures of Dan Parker, Clarence Milne and Sam Veatch, three Cottage Grove boys with the colors in France, appeared in a Portland paper Sunday. Milne and Veatch are with the 65th artillery and Parker with the 18th engineers.

The City Meat Market buys veal, live and dressed, Phone 89. n2tfc
Claud Schilling writes from Loma, Mont., to make arrangements for the uninterrupted visits of the Live Wire Newspaper.

Kewpies 15c and 20c at The Fair; just in; a great bargain and new.

IF YOU HAVE DISEASES OF THE Stomach, Disease of Skin or Gall Stones . . . See Dr. Oglesby

Gottfried Graber is a flu sufferer this week. His partner, Mr. Knowles, has just recovered from a bad cold.

Walt Cochran took the "flu" on for a short engagement during the past week.

A fine assortment of clocks for Christmas at H. C. Madsen's. n8tfc
"Pug" Johnson, who was at Camp Lewis, has returned here, having been discharged without having the opportunity for a round with the Kaiser.

Why not buy your wife or daughter a nice dress skirt for Christmas at The Fair.

Short's Grocery

Wishes You a Merry Christmas

We have a full assortment of
Oranges, Bananas, Candies and Nuts
of every description

Walk a Block and Save a Dime at

Short's Grocery

The Columbia records are the best made. The newest war songs and dance records always on hand at H. C. Madsen's. n8tfc

Silk hose bargains at The Fair; buy your wife a pair for Xmas.

Mrs. W. E. Fulmer is home from Portland, where she was called by the serious illness of her son Harry. She also contracted the flu and is still quite weak.

War! War! War! We are all fighting hard for a living and I want more work. I do all kinds of shoe repairing at 300 Main St., east end of bridge. Isaac Goff. d29 j10pd

Fletcher Harlow returned Sunday from Corvallis, where he had been attending the S. A. T. C. He has just recovered from an attack of influenza. His brother Carol is expected home soon from Washington, where he was in the spruce division.

Monroe's studio open every Sunday from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. until the holidays. Make an appointment now. o25j

Beautiful hose 65c to $2, every pair a special bargain, at The Fair.

A Burleson family has arrived here from Iowa to make this their home.

Good Chevrolet, four new tires, $250; team, wagon and harness, $250. Some black wood. John Carpenter, phone 86-J. d13-27pd

Harry Williams is clerking in the postoffice during the Christmas rush.

Mrs. A. S. Phelps continues to improve and is now out of danger.

Men's Work Clothing

OVERALLS, JUMPERS
WORK SHIRTS
SOCKS, SHOES, ETC.

POWELL & HEMENWAY
The Daylight Store

Christmas is coming. Our elegant line in jewelry, bracelet-watches for men and women, the Rockford silverware, best, and cut glass is complete. Call early and make your selections at H. C. Madsen's. n8tfc

Mrs. McDonald, of Roseburg, visited during the past week here with her daughter, Miss Margaret.

Arthur Lehner, operator at the S. P. depot, suffered with the flu during the past week.

For good stuff to eat get a waffle iron from Swengel Hardware.

S. K. Busick, who had been visiting here and at Dorena, returned Monday to Roseburg.

The Garetsons motored to Eugene Monday.

SEASONABLE HARDWARE

The holiday season suggests certain kinds of hardware, such as cutlery for the table, axes and saws to use on the woodpile, lanterns for outdoor use, tools for Christmas gifts, etc. We have everything. dectf

Wynne & Kime
HARDWARE

Dolls, toys, wagons and everything for Christmas selling fast at The Fair. Our prices are right.

Mrs. Paul Markley and Mrs. F. H. Allison left Monday for Dunsmuir, Calif., where Mrs. Markley lives. She had spent two weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Allison.

Fit-all kits and leather novelties for men, at The Fair.

Lawrence Phelps, who was called here by the illness of his mother, who is now out of danger, returned Wednesday night to his position at Klamath Falls. His wife remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Steve Stephens, of Everett, Wash., sister of Mark Garoutte, visited relatives here this week.

CITY MEAT MARKET

FRESH AND CURED
MEATS
SAUERKRAUT
MINCEMEAT
QUALITY GOODS AND REASONABLE PRICES
TELEPHONE—89

Pocket cutlery, safety razors, shaving stick soap, scissors; all high grade and guaranteed goods sold by Swengel Hardware.

Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mrs. W. T. Garoutte, Mrs. W. C. Johnson and Mrs. Steve Stevens visited Mrs. Henry Fisher in Eugene Wednesday.

J. N. England was confined to the house this week but doesn't know whether or no he had the flu.

Ladies' fancy sweaters; see them at The Fair.

J. F. Godard, Mrs. Ilma Beager and Miss Cassie McCord took the teachers' examinations at Eugene this week.

Howard Cox has returned from Camp Lewis, having received his discharge.

DEMAND FOR TELEGRAPH OPERATORS—Young men and women trained in few months under the supervision of a successful dispatcher. Indorsed by railroads. Opportunities to earn expenses. Write for bulletin, Telegraph Dept. 218 Railway Exchange Bldg., Portland, Ore. n29-j17c

H. J. Shinn and O. M. Baldwin were in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Middy ties 25c to $2 at The Fair. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eddy spent Sunday in Eugene with their daughter and son, Flora Sylvester and Merritt.

W. A. Cox is putting up several large chicken houses and plans to assist materially in making this the Petaluma of Oregon.

J. A. McCully was down from the Combination mine for the week-end.

For a real Lisk roaster go to Swengel's Hardware store.

Kenneth DeLassus spent the week-end in Springfield.

Mrs. Clair Spray and Mrs. Wm. Edwards came up from Roseburg Saturday. Mrs. Edwards had been visiting there and Mrs. Spray came here for a visit.

W. J. White will fill in his spare time as pharmacist at the New Era.

Special prices on rings—less than cost. Scholl's Jewelry.

Max Wilson has returned from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ves Wallace were here from Oakridge for the week-end.

Marry Martin, of Mabel, was here Wednesday on his way home from California.

Andy Dovens has returned from Texas, having received his discharge from the army.

Everything for babies—booties, sacques, wool sets, hoods, etc., at The Fair.

O. E. Woodson left Wednesday for Stamford, Texas, to spend the holiday season with relatives.

Harry Parker came down from Lundpark Wednesday and returned home yesterday morning.

Buy the boy a rifle; he wants it; get it from Swengel Hardware.

Oscar and J. E. Woodson have both recovered from their session with the flu.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus spent Sunday in Eugene.

Rag rugs; home made; good bargains at The Fair.

M. Q. Ecklund, who has been employed at the Latham plant, plans to return to his old job at Montague, Calif. He will take all his children with him and his mother will also make her home with him. The children were recently left without their mother and his mother was shortly before left without her husband.

How to Prevent Disease

Now is the time to have your pillows washed and sterilized. Do you ever stop to think of the hours your head has hammered the pillow? The natural grease from your head is ground into the feathers. We make them sweet and wholesome. 50c a pillow.

The COTTAGE GROVE LAUNDRY

Coffee percolators; at Swengel's.

Life is only worth living because of what you can do while here and of what you will leave behind to keep your memory green in the minds of your family and friends. Leaving a life insurance policy is one of the surest ways of being remembered as a man who thought much of his wife and children. Talk with H. K. Metcalf. Both life and fire insurance. dectf

Nathan E. Manock, who was here from the Mare Island navy yard on a furlough and was visiting his wife at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. VanNortwick, was called to Dallas by the serious illness of a brother, who has since died. He arrived here about two hours ahead of the birth of a daughter.

Don't worry but watch out; our trade is the largest we ever had—the last few days will be hard to get you what you want. The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway were called to Portland by the serious illness and death of R. R. Giltner, husband of Mrs. Hemenway's sister.

Charles Fox has arrived from the Columbia river, where he spent the summer fishing, and has gone into the Bohemia district.

George F. Bennett and O. B. Morgan were in Eugene Saturday.

Flashlights—largest stock in town; lowest prices; fresh batteries. The Fair.

Mrs. H. H. Fiester and Mrs. Chas. Beidler were among those from here in Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Laura E. McKernan has been appointed administratrix of the estate of Samuel H. McKernan. T. C. Wheeler, W. C. Johnson and George H. Brainerd have been named to appraise the property.

"Uncle" Burne Veatch was in from Mosby creek Monday. He passed his nineteenth birthday anniversary Nov. 10 and says he is feeling fine and dandy. He certainly looks the part. He reports "Aunt" Jane as well and active and says one would think the existence of the world depended upon her getting a certain amount of work done every day.

The ladies' aid of the Methodist church held their regular meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon. On account of the prevalence of sickness there was but a small attendance. Mrs. A. Brund was the only one of four hostesses present.

Mrs. J. D. Westenhaver, formerly of this city, writes from Aberdeen, Wash., giving the location of the several Westenhaver boys. Charles was recently home. He had been in the hospital recovering from the flu and expects to soon be sent to Honolulu. Robert is in

MARKET CHANGES HANDS AND NAME

The former People's Meat Market is now under new management and is now Kelly's Cash Market. Selling for cash means lower prices and these are worth more right now to the public than credit. We are certain you will like the new plan and we will do our best to please you.

KELLY'S CASH MARKET
TELEPHONE—15

FOR CHRISTMAS

California soft-shell No. 1 Walnuts, per lb.	40c
California soft-shell No. 1 Almonds, per lb.	40c
Fine Rice Pop Corn, guaranteed to pop, per lb.	20c
New Jersey Cranberries (Late Howe), per lb.	20c
Frame Honey, per frame.	40c
Large Oranges, sweet and juicy.	3 for 25c

We will not have any candy this Christmas. Owing to the scarcity of sugar and the great need for conservation of that article we do not feel that we can conscientiously sell candy.

OUR STORE WILL REMAIN CLOSED CHRISTMAS DAY

A. BRUND & COMP'Y

Grocers to Particular People Phone 65

MRS. JOHN SIMPSON AND MRS. GRANT BROWN SUCCUMB TO INFLUENZA

Two more have been added to the deaths from influenza, making a total of four during the past week and a total of eight here during the epidemic.

The last two are Mrs. Grant Brown and Mrs. John Simpson.

The entire Brown family had been sick and Mrs. Brown's condition had been serious for some time, although it was at one time thought she had passed the danger point. Death occurred yesterday morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow, Rev. Joseph Knotts officiating. She leaves a husband and four children.

Mrs. Simpson died Wednesday evening. The funeral will be held at 2:30 today, Rev. Joseph Knotts officiating. She was 19 years of age and leaves two children, aged 2 and 3 years.

Sydney, Australia, and will be home in February. Eddie is in Lima, Peru, and will return in March. Ewing was ready to sail for New Zealand when taken down with the flu, afterwards undergoing an operation for appendicitis. He has been out of the hospital three weeks.

A divorce has been granted O. M. Baldwin from Lillian C. Baldwin.

Buy your wife a nice ready-made waist for Christmas. See The Fair Bargains.

"Grandma" Scott, a well known resident of Saguinaw, died at Eugene Saturday. The funeral was held at Walker Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson, of Blue Grove, Texas, visited during the past week at the Dick Roberts home.

Low Bender has purchased the John Baker bakery business and will be ready for business within a short time.

A. W. Sumers, formerly in business here, now a traveling salesman, was in the city this week.

Mrs. W. J. Woods was here from Albany Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bert Trask.

Mark Garoutte is recovering from a session with the flu.

Albert Hellwell has taken the flu on for a round.

T. C. Wheeler, N. W. White and G. W. McFarland attended the meeting of the budget committee in Eugene Thursday.

"Pet" Anlauf is here from Portland for the holidays. He is recovering from an operation, the flu, and a few other things and looking fine.

Wanted, at once, 25 head dairy cows and heifers. J. W. Veatch. d20c

C. M. Shinn decided to stay at home yesterday and try to shoo away the flu. - O. L. Nichols is home from Douglas county, where he spent the summer at engineering work, to spend the holiday season with his family.

The schools will take the regular Christmas vacation beginning tonight and will be closed all of next week.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey suffered with a severe cold Wednesday but is now much better. Her son Donald has recovered from a slight attack of flu.

Andy Nelson has been up from Eugene several days this week doing electrical work.

The suit for divorce brought by James McKay against Mary Elizabeth McKay in circuit court has been dismissed on motion of the plaintiff, and the suit of Mrs. McKay against Mr. McKay for dissolution of partnership has settled out of court and dismissed.

Miss Maud Nichols, stenographer for J. H. Chambers, was called to Raymond Sunday by the serious illness of a sister.

Victor Chambers, who has been discharged from the army, arrived home last night.

Messenger Claims Flu Cure.

W. J. Messenger claims to have a sure cure for the influenza and that is to inhale fumes from spirits of camphor every hour or so, and rub a bit on the end of the tongue. He says that all in the Row River vicinity who have tried this cure have fully recovered.

Former School Officers Die.

H. C. Baughman, former superintendent of schools of this county, died at Talent, Ore., Saturday night. His brother, J. D. Baughman, formerly a rural school supervisor of this county, died at Harrison, Ida., a week before. Both were victims of influenza.

Card of Thanks.

As far as we are able to do so by the printed word we wish to express our sincerest appreciation of the many kindnesses shown us in our recent and bereavement.

Bert Trask,
20pd Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Holderman.

SILK CREEK.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Dec. 18.—Miss Elva Wilson left Monday for Newberg, where she expects to teach this winter.

Mrs. M. F. Babcock returned Monday from a week's stay in the Grove.

Elder and Mrs. J. A. Rippey, who spent the week-end here, returned Monday to their home at Roseburg.

Alvah Walker has returned to Walla Walla, Wash., to resume his college work which was interrupted by the flu.

It is expected that Elder J. Mark Comer will speak at the Seventh-day Adventist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Cottage Grove's

SOLID OLD BANK

The First National Bank

INVITES YOUR BUSINESS

Resources $450,000

Your Holiday Menu

calls for Crescent Better Extracts. They are full of flavor, and the flavor does not cook out—it's the binder.

(E-33)

Get them from your grocer
All standard flavors

COTTAGE GROVE HOSPITAL

MODERN, HOME-LIKE HOSPITAL FULLY EQUIPPED FOR THE CARE OF ANY CASE

Absolutely no contagious cases admitted. Only competent nurses employed. Support your home hospital—one that deserves it.

Dr. S. M. Wendt, Surgeon