OLD ARE OUT AND NEW IN AT COURT HOUSE

Many Deputies and Clerks Are Retained by New Officials.

There have been several new faces n the county court house since Monday, Fred G. Stickels taking the place of Dillard A. Elkins as sheriff, Roscoe S Bryson succeeding Stacy M. Russell as county clerk, Miss Edna Ward succeeding Samuel W. Taylor as county treasurer and W. W. Branstetter succeeding Marion Veatch as coroner. As previously announced, there was no change in the force of the county clerk, and the only new man at present in the office of the sheriff is Fred W. Houghton, who is a former employe of the office under J. C. Parker, ex-sheriff.

Alta King, who has been head office deputy for Sheriff Elkins, has been hosen as one of the legislative clerks in the state legislature, having been appointed by Representative L. E. Bean. Oren Davis, another office deputy, be engaged in writing the tax rolls for some time to come. Tom Bailey, outside deputy, has not announced what line of work he will follow. Earl Luckey, inside deputy, is retained by Mr. Stickels.

Miss Ward has not announced who will be her assistant, but for the present there is not enough work to keep two people busy.

The deputies in the office of County Clerk Bryson, all of whom are retained, are Claude D. Lee, Mrs. Lee, Miss S. E. Skene and Lloyd Howe. There are sevral young women employed as indexers. comparers and at other work in the of-
