PROGRAM AT ARCADE THEATER

FOR THE CURRENT WEEK
FRIDAY, JANUARY 31
Five Thousand an Hour

STARRING HALE HAMILTON

This brilliant comedy shows how a young man who is on the verge of financial ruin decides that there is no such word as "can't" in his dictionary, and resolves to go out and make a million in six weeks. How he does this, and also wins the love of a beautiful girl—all in schedule time—provides entertainment of the highest order.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1
The Seven Keys to Baldpate

STARRING GEORGE M. COHAN

This brilliant Broadway success with the author playing the leading role will meet with high approval. The plot has to do with an author who bet he could write a story in 24 hours. He went to a lonely inn in the mountains—and then things began to happen in an astounding manner.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 2 AND MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3
Exile

STARRING MADAME PETROVA

Madame Petrova needs no introduction as a star. In this oriental story she appears as the wife of the Lord Chief Justice of the Arab colony. This story is unusual, as the love element appears to work backward instead of forward, but the love story is there just the same, and you will enjoy the production from beginning to end.

Coming

Possibly on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 4 and 5, we may be able to present

You Look Shabby

If you are wearing badly-fitted glasses

Your Glasses

Are the most conspicuous part of your attire. People when talking to you, look directly at your eyes. Will your glasses stand this searching scrutiny, or are they like "a smudge upon the canvass," spoiling an otherwise pleasing picture? Besides spoiling the looks, ill-fitting glasses injure the eyes.

Joyful Glasses

Our glasses are optically and mechanically perfect—a joy either to look at or through.
