SOCIETY.

The basket social given by the Honor Guard girls at the Moose hall Saturday evening was fairly well patronized, the proceeds of the evening, including sale of baskets and dance tickets, amounting to $63.85. This fund is to be used toward defraying the expense of a reception for our soldier boys. The hall was gaily festooned with hearts and streamers of red and white in honor of Saint Valentine day. A valentine lottery booth was a special feature. A. W. Helliwell auctioned the baskets, some of them selling as high as $5. Miss Wilma Thurber entertained with instrumental music while the crowd was congregating, followed by a prepared program, consisting of vocal solos by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, Miss Myrtle Potts and Miss Marie Veatch; readings by Mrs. Frank Helliwell, Mrs. Almond Hemenway and the two little Burrows girls, and an instrumental solo by Miss Ruth Stewart. The evening concluded with a dancing party.

The Order of Eastern Star, at its regular meeting Friday evening, initiated Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey in the degrees. In honor of St. Valentine's day the rooms were gaily festooned with hearts and a social evening was enjoyed after close of chapter.
