

FULLERTON CASE EXPECTED TO GO TO THE JURY YESTERDAY

The state closed its case against James Fullerton with the calling of one witness yesterday morning and L. L. Ray, district attorney, opened the argument for the state. H. E. Slattery, attorney for the defense, was to plead his case before the jury some time yesterday followed by H. L. Hammersley for the plaintiff. It was expected that the case would go to the jury yesterday afternoon.

Admitting that everything of a scandalous nature that he had printed in the "Hornet" had been upon hearsay, Fullerton attempted to prove his repeated assertions that "immorality is rampant" at the university. He apparently had no difficulty in recalling all scandalous rumors that anyone had ever told him but his memory failed him when he was asked to give the names of his informants. However he swore that it usually came to his ears from people who looked to be responsible citizens.

DISCHARGED SOLDIERS CAN PROCURE $60 BONUS

All discharged army officers and men are entitled to the $60 bonus recently granted them by congress by making proper application, according to information received here. There are a large number of men in Lane county who have been discharged and who have not received the bonus, although those discharged during the past few days have received the money. The necessary procedure to procure this money is as follows:

- All persons separated from active military service from April 6, 1917, to date of receipt of these instructions, who are entitled to the $60 bonus in reference, and who have received their final pay will forward claim for such bonus direct to the zone finance officer, Lemon building, Washington, D. C., who is hereby designated to settle such claims. Such applications must contain:
 - (a) The discharge certificate or order for discharge or relief, if no certificate was issued, but both certificate and order if both were issued, the paper bearing endorsement of final payment being required.
 - (b) A statement of all military service since April 6, 1917, showing place and date of reporting at first military station, and
 - (c) Address to which check is to be sent.
- When settlement is made all personal papers will be returned to applicant with check. No further correspondence is necessary except to advise of change in address of applicant. No other disbursing officers are authorized to pay claims covered by this paragraph.

Jesse Darling Makes Big Deal

Eugene Register: Jesse Darling, of the realty firm of Berger & Darling, of this city, has sold within the past few days the Boulevard apartments, at 42nd and Grand Ave., in Chicago, to Alfred Thomas, of that city, for $365,000.

Mr. Darling said that the building cost $400,000 when it was erected a number of years ago and that it brings an income of $60,000 a year. Mr. Darling was only part owner of the building, but it was in his name. It is in a very desirable residence part of the city, he says. Mr. Darling formerly lived there for a number of years.

Devers Now Assistant Attorney General

Attorney J. M. Devers, of Eugene, has been appointed assistant attorney general of the state and will assume his duties in the office of Attorney General George M. Brown, in Salem, immediately. Mr. Devers will devote a large part of his time to work in connection with highway construction in the state and he says this will probably keep him quite busy for a number of years to come in view of the extensive highway building program that has been started by the legislature and the highway commission.

SOCIETY.

At the regular communication of Cottage Grove chapter, O. E. S., Friday evening the past matrons and past patrons had charge and conferred degrees. This has become an annual custom and Friday evening was one long to be remembered, each past matron and past patron relating past experiences from time of initiation, some of them dating as far back as 32 years. An interesting letter was read from Mrs. Clara Burkholder relating the experience of the chapter's early struggles in the early years of its organization. There was a large attendance and the regular officers served a bounteous luncheon of ice cream, delicious cake and coffee. Mrs. Lydia Stouffer and Ben Lurch are the only living charter members of the chapter. The date of the charter is July 24, 1880.

Mrs. S. R. Smith entertained Monday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. D. J. Holmes, of Roundup, Mont., the time being spent in social chat and over fancy work. Dainty refreshments were served. The invited guests were Mrs. Chas. Beidler, Mrs. G. M. Scott, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. Albert Holliswell, Mrs. F. A. Garetson, Mrs. O. L. Nichols, Mrs. Elbert Bede, Mrs. Armand Wynne, Mrs. Chas. Adams, and Mrs. Leon DeLarzes.

After the regular meeting of the Masonic lodge Wednesday night a social session was held in honor of the soldier members of the lodge. Ten members of the lodge have been in the service. Those present were Major H. K. Metcalf, Captain C. C. Cruson, Lieutenant Clay Mosby and Victor Chambers.

March, 1919

Captain Cruson gave an interesting talk delineating his experiences as supply officer for his regiment. The armistice was signed just as the regiment was about to sail.

Mrs. Joe Porter and Mrs. Nelson Durham were hostesses at Constellation club at Masonic hall yesterday afternoon. A large number of members were present and a social afternoon was enjoyed with needlework. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at one long table with decorations of daffodils and violets. Mrs. A. H. Sprinkle was received as a member. Guests of the club were Mrs. F. A. Garetson, Sr., Mrs. Harry Metcalf and Mrs. Jas. Knight.

The seniors and juniors of the high school entertained the sophomores and freshmen in Moose hall Friday evening. Games were played and light refreshments served. Basketball preceded the entertainment. The boys of the senior and junior classes were defeated by the boys of the sophomore and freshman classes and the girls of the senior and junior classes were defeated by the girls of the sophomore and freshman classes.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin entertained the missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home Monday afternoon. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Herbert Eakin, president; Mrs. George Kerr, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. J. W. Buckley, secretary of literature. Mrs. Buckley and Mrs. Job were elected delegates to the presbyterial society which meets in Lebanon in April.

Mrs. A. L. Wynne entertained the M. P. G. club at her home Tuesday afternoon, there being a full attendance of club members. Mrs. H. W. Titus and Mrs. Elbert Smith were received as club members and Mrs. Herbert Eakin was a guest. The afternoon was spent in the usual social manner and refreshments were served.

The dance given Monday evening by the Honor Guard girls in honor of the soldier boys was a most successful affair and the number present indicated that the boys are warmly welcomed home. The hall was prettily decorated and excellent music was furnished by a Eugene orchestra. Punch was served free at a Y. M. C. A. booth.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church held a party in the church Monday evening. The time was spent in children's games, after which light refreshments were served. Miss Mary Ellen Benson and Miss Lenora Hubbell were in charge of the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Almond Hemenway are planning a family reunion to be held Sunday, the guests of honor to be Mrs. Hemenway's father, Daniel Read, and his sister, Mrs. Mary Miller, of Pleasant Hill. Both are pioneers of the county. Plans are being made for 30 or more guests.

Mrs. Sim Edwards entertained Tuesday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. Fred French, who, in company with her husband, was visiting here. Guests were Mrs. Lucy Holland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hill, Mrs. Lulu Stone and Ernest Lockwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall entertained a few friends at dinner Wednesday evening.

Boys Record Discharges.

Some of the discharged soldiers are having their discharges recorded with the county clerk, so that in case they are lost they will have record of them aside from the records of the war department. The 65th boys who arrived home last week are sending their discharges to Washington so that they will be able to get the $60 bonus, and there is always a chance of losing the papers in the mails or having them misplaced in Washington.

SOLDIER BOYS NOTICE.

You are most cordially and earnestly invited to a noonday dinner to be given by this grange in your honor Saturday, March 15. All boys who have at any time been in the service anywhere, are invited and their presence is most earnestly desired.

COTTAGE GROVE GRANGE.

Our reporter says: "When folks traveled by train, I could keep track of 'em, but since these dodgasted autos are leaving town by every road every hour, I've got a fat chance. When folks go visiting or have visitors, I wish they'd tell me about it."

Opens New Law Office in Eugene.

Eugene Register: Alta King, a former Cottage Grove attorney, for a year office deputy under Former Sheriff D. A. Elkins, and clerk of the judiciary committee of the recent legislature, has opened a law office in Eugene, having rented the rooms just vacated by J. M. Devers, who has been appointed assistant attorney general of the state.

CHICKEN SUPPLIES ARRIVE IN CARLOAD LOTS

That Cottage Grove is developing rapidly as a chicken producing country is evidenced by the fact that the Spray market has just recently received an entire car of poultry supplies, the first car of the kind ever to be received in Cottage Grove. The value of the car was $3200.

Food economy without any sacrifice is what you get when you use in making biscuits, pastry, cookies, cakes and salads, and on meats and hot baked or mashed potatoes and other vegetables. For hard sauces it gives the most delicious flavor. Makes toast and hot biscuits taste better.

The children show preference for "Columbia Brand" Oleomargarine on their bread, and you can give them all they want, for it is the "thrift spread." Furthermore, it has that high nutritive value so vital in the nourishment of children.

Two Excellent Recipes in which Columbia Brand Oleomargarine is used with pleasing results.

DOUGHNUTS

1 cup sugar, 3/4 tablespoons COLUMBIA BRAND OLEOMARGARINE, 3 eggs, 1 cup milk, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoon grated nutmeg, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, flour to roll.

Cream the butter and add one-half sugar. Beat egg until light, and remaining sugar, and combine mixtures. Add 2 1/2 cups flour, mixed and sifted with baking powder, salt and spices. Then enough more flour to make dough stiff enough to roll. Toss one-third of mixture on flour board, knead slightly, pat, and roll out to 1/4-inch thickness. Shape with a doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat, take up with a fork, and drain on brown paper. Repeat this process until mixture is used.

BISCUITS

2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder 1/2 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons COLUMBIA BRAND OLEOMARGARINE, and 3/4 cup milk.

Mix dry ingredients. Work in oleomargarine with tips of fingers; add gradually the liquids, mixing with knife in a soft dough. Toss on a floured board, pat and roll lightly to 1/4-inch thickness. Shape with biscuit cutter. Place on buttered pan and bake in hot oven. It is impossible to determine the exact amount of liquid owing to the difference in flour.
