

Pure Jellies and Preserves

That have the Pure Fruit Flavor 25c and 35c Jars

KERR & SILSBY

LOOKING AHEAD

and protecting yourself from eye troubles is indeed mighty good foresight. If your head is often dizzy or your vision blurs, it is time to allow us to make an examination.

We can fit you to glasses that will correct your fault and be a comfort to the eyes.

We grind our own lenses and make them fit the needs of your eyes.

The scientific, drugless adaptation of glasses for the aid of vision and the relief of eyestrain

D. J. Scholl
Optometrist-Optician
LENSES GROUND ON PREMISES

TALES OF THE TOWN

C. M. Chrisman, of Waverly, Kans., and Mrs. E. G. Seelye, of Tualatin, Ore., have been added to the list of those from outside the Cottage Grove country who find that The Sentinel is a welcome weekly visitor.

Spot cash for eggs every day in the year. Farmers' Cash Market. f28tf

W. H. Schwartz, of Payette, Ida., visited here during the past week. He is a Baptist minister.

Mrs. M. J. Wiseman spent the week-end at Walker.

Mrs. Clarence Hess and daughter visited during the past week at the home of Mrs. Hess' mother, Mrs. Barbara Hohl.

Another lot big 3-pound roll cotton $1 per roll at The Fair.

Mrs. S. Running, of Sacramento, visited during the past week at the home Lucy Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cox were in Eugene Sunday.

Rev. James Moore, district superintendent, conducted services at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Two or three second hand wagons for sale. Wynne & Kime. m21-28

SYRUP SALE

SPECIAL FOR SAT., MCH. 22

5 pound pail White Karo Syrup	55c
5 pound pail Dark Karo Syrup	55c
10 pound pail White Karo Syrup	$1.10
10 pound pail Dark Karo Syrup	$1.10
5 pound pail White Wedding Breakfast	55c
5 pound pail Dark Wedding Breakfast	55c
10 pound pail White Wedding Breakfast	$1.10
10 pound pail Dark Wedding Breakfast	$1.10
5 pound pail Marshmallow Syrup	60c
10 pound pail Marshmallow Syrup	$1.20
5 pound can Cane and Maple Syrup	90c

TOBACCO—We have not raised on the price of tobacco. FEED—LET US QUOTE YOU PRICES ON FEED.

Short's Grocery

WALK A BLOCK AND SAVE A DIME

Those from outside points who were here to attend the funeral of J. T. Allison were Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Allison and family and Mrs. Paul Sinton and son, of McMinnville; J. W. Allison and son, of Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Allison and Mrs. Clarence Hess, of Roseburg; B. F. Strange, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Strange and Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Abbott, of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kirkland, of Albany.

Miss Eunice Vandenburg returned from Eugene Saturday.

John Armstrong, of Eugene, is spending the week here.

Miss Jessie Smith is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Roy Smith is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Mill supplies; Swengel hardware.

Mrs. Lillie Crow, of Lorane, visited from Sunday to Tuesday with Mrs. Mary Ishmael.

Services will be held at 11 o'clock Sunday forenoon at the Presbyterian church, Rev. Large, of Eugene, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Churchill, of Roseburg, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. Churchill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Churchill, returned home Monday.

New buttons in the much wanted shades at The Fair.

Mrs. Henry Hohl and Mrs. George Hohl were called to St. Helens Monday by the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Esther Miller.

George Teeters was injured Monday while employed in the repair shop at the O. P. & E. railway. He was caught between two logging cars. Two ribs were fractured and both hands were sprained by being turned backwards.

We now have lime in stock. Any quantity. Swengel hardware.

A son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Tennis at Springfield.

W. L. Young and family are here from Bremerton, Wash., and have bought the George L. Little place on Coast Fork.

E. B. Crane was in from Black Butte Wednesday, accompanying W. B. Dennis, of Carlton, who had been out to the mining property in which he is interested.

Dry lime-sulfur is cheaper and better than the liquid solution. Wynne & Kime. m7-28

Mrs. Horace Cochran and daughter Margery arrived Tuesday from Tillamook. Margery had sustained another fracture of the arm and was brought here for medical attention.

Frank Hambrick has bought the John England place on West Main street. Mr. and Mrs. Hambrick and G. W. McFarland left Wednesday for The Dalles to pack the Hambrick household goods for shipment.

Rev. E. G. O. Groat left Tuesday for a visit of several weeks at Garfield, Wash.

WANT AD. RATES.—One cent a word with a minimum charge of 25 cents. Three insertions for 50 cents. No ad. charged for less than 50 cents. It's cheaper to pay cash. Want ads. are the little liver pills of the advertising world. m7tf

Everything in poultry supplies from the baby chick to the egg basket at the Farmers' Cash Market. f28tf

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ferguson, who had been here for a year keeping house for M. P. Garoutte, left Monday for their home at Canyon City, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Pearl.

Mrs. Rosa Rugger, of Creswell, spent the week-end with Mrs. Gottfried Graber.

With a 50c purchase Saturday you get a souvenir at The Fair.

Miss Ireta Cooley, of Eugene, visited this week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Juda White.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Lee Roy Woods, Jr., visited Saturday and Sunday at the home of Lieutenant Woods' grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Woods. Sergeant Dan L. Woods arrived Tuesday for a visit of several days at the same place. Both of the young men have just returned from service with the 69th. They were members of the old Sixth company. Their parents now live at Cornelius.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby has greatly improved in health during the past week.

The M. M. Thornton family have returned from Leona.

Souvenirs Saturday at The Fair—get yours.

Charles Ferguson, a member of the 65th, left last week to take a position at Portland. He had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ferguson. His parents gave a party in his honor the Sunday before he left.

Henry Smith, of Dexter, visited during the past week with his brother Charles.

Mrs. Basil Parker and daughter Luella visited this week at the home of Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney, and with Mr. Parker's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker.

Dr. S. M. Wendt was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Gilkerson returned Tuesday to their home in Grants Pass, after a visit at the home of Mrs. Gilkerson's mother, Mrs. Ellen Jones.

Buy a Florence automatic blue flame oil stove from the Swengel hardware and cut down your wood bill. The best oil stove made.

Mrs. J. Mark Comer returned Tuesday from a visit at Sutherlin.

Mrs. A. McKinney is visiting at Creswell this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Cochlin.

George Young, who recently underwent an operation, is again able to be out on the street.

A. E. Burrows and family visited in Eugene Tuesday.

Mrs. J. R. Medley and daughter Delia returned Tuesday from a visit at Oakland. They were accompanied by four of Mrs. Medley's grandchildren.

New dress skirts—special bargains at The Fair.

H. G. Boling was here from Myrtle Creek this week looking for a location.

Harry Culver was in the city from Grants Pass Tuesday.

Geo. C. Hewitt, representative of the internal revenue department, will be here from April 10 to April 12 to advise with income taxpayers.

A rumor reached here this week that Oscar McAllister, a former resident of this section, had been reported killed in action. The report can not be confirmed. He corresponded with Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hunt, of Wildwood, but they have had no word to that effect and do not believe it is true, although they have had not heard from him since the signing of the armistice.

Buy dry lime-sulfur from Wynne & Kime and cut down the cost of your spraying. m7-28

Eugene Register: William Lane has filed complaint in circuit court suing the Bank of Cottage Grove for the recovery of personal property to the value of $320. Mr. Lane alleges that a note given by J. W. Owen, H. E. Owen, T. E. McCullough and George Atkinson to Helen Lowell in the sum of $300 is rightfully his property.

An item last week stated that Mrs. Alfred Jury and Mrs. Martha Blackwell had completed and donated a quilt to the Red Cross. The second name should have been Mrs. Martha Blackmore.

Dry lime-sulfur is not a substitute for liquid lime-sulfur. It is the liquid in dry form and is cheaper. For sale by Wynne & Kime. m7-28

Roy DeLarzes, one of the casualties of the 361st infantry, arrived home last night and is still looking fit to clean up a whole regiment of Germans.

Telephone 79 and We Will Call for YOUR LAUNDRY

Rough dry with all flat pieces ironed

WE ALSO DO CLEANING AND PRESSING

Laundry picked up Monday till noon and delivered Wednesday evening. Will pick up any time up to Wednesday evening and deliver Saturday.

The COTTAGE GROVE LAUNDRY

Curtis Ventek and E. R. Crow were among those in Eugene Thursday of last week in connection with the famous Lorane road.

L. S. Hill is sporting a classy Haynes six, which he and O. E. Woodson drove up from Portland.

Herbert Brown, former member of the 65th, is visiting at the W. A. Ward home at Lorane.

Little Donna Bartell returned Monday from a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Harris at Eugene.

H. C. Madsen has just received a full line of the famous Pathe graphophones. Call and see them. f14tf

A. R. Sweetser, of the U. of O., delivered an inspirational lecture, "A Man's Job," to the men of the Methodist church Tuesday evening. The address was part of the campaign to stir interest in the approaching centenary movement.

Sergeant Ralph Teeters, of the 69th, arrived here Wednesday. He went to Astoria from Camp Lewis and his close friends say that Cupid's darts have more seriously wounded another soldier boy than did any of the German cannon.

Pathe records will bring to your own home all the music of the world, having laboratories in all the large cities in Europe and in New York. H. C. Madsen. f14tf

A dozen or more Silk Creekers attended the meeting of the county court at Eugene Tuesday, when the court set the location for the Lorane road.

Dr. Kime was in Portland several days of the past week.

New waists $2.98 to $6.50. The Fair.

An anniversary cake in the window of the Fair store has attracted considerable attention during the past week.

Mrs. H. H. Kibbey has received a beautiful Japanese handbag from her son, George Duerst, who is in the navy.

Full car poultry supplies at Farmers' Cash Market. Car lot prices. f28tf

Mrs. Helen E. Mouser writes from Portland to renew her subscription for another year.

The district court this week granted a divorce to S. H. Vaughn from Cora L. Vaughn on the grounds of desertion.

Oliver plows, harrows, discs and all kinds of farm implements are sold by the Swengel hardware.

The Red Cross has received a rush order quota and all sewers are urgently requested to give all the time they can to this very necessary and urgent work.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooley and Geo. Cooley were Eugene visitors Tuesday.

We Have 300 Pounds of Fine Dried Prunes

in our show window which we want to sell within the next week. Special price for the week—

2 Pounds, 25c; 9 Pounds, $1.00

DON'T FORGET ABOUT THE ONION SETS AND GARDEN SEEDS—TIME TO BUY NOW.

A. BRUND & COMPY

Grocers to Particular People Phone 65

All overseas soldiers and sailors and all men who were originally with the old regiment commanded by Colonel Hammond are invited to a dancing party at the armory in Eugene Saturday night. The boys are invited to bring their mothers, sisters, wives and sweethearts and to wear their uniforms. The affair is given by the 65th auxiliary, assisted by the 69th mothers and the chamber of commerce auxiliary.

Half soles save half on your shoe bill. Your shoes will last much longer if always kept repaired and the cost of repairs will be cheaper that way. See Doc Goff, the old original shoe doctor. f14tf

Mrs. D. H. Hemenway is home from an extended visit in Portland.

The L. S. Hill family plans to move to San Francisco in the near future.

Lots of new goods in this week at The Fair.

Home Ritchey has bought the Sixth street garage from S. P. Shortridge and Chas. Faulkner. Mr. Faulkner expects to leave the first of the week for Los Angeles.

Charles Faulkner returned Wednesday from a trip to Corvallis.

John VanNortwick has recovered from a severe attack of the grip.

Liberty bonds will be taken at par in exchange for goods or in payment on account at Swengel's hardware store.

A daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rutter at Gold Hill. Mrs. Rutter was formerly Miss Veta Hickey.

Pearl Plaster stopped off here yesterday to visit his parents and relatives while on his way from the presidio to Fort Columbia. He is in the coast artillery.

Mrs. C. E. Frost was in Eugene Tuesday.

George M. Hawley was in Eugene Tuesday.

Boys' overalls at The Fair.

LaSells Stewart, of the 20th engineers, has been promoted to a captaincy. He is now in the central part of France.

Mrs. G. M. Hall, Mrs. W. W. McFarland and Miss Maud Doyle visited in Eugene Tuesday.

T. G. Swanson, who spent the winter with his son, A. W. Swanson, left Wednesday for his home at Wheaton, Minn.

Get some of the enamelware bargains at The Fair.

Mrs. Sarah Purvance is visiting at Springfield with her daughter, Mrs. Ellison.

Mrs. Mary Cooper and son Kelly were in Eugene Tuesday and brought home a car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Foster have moved here from Eugene.

Mrs. A. French, who had been visiting Mrs. Sim Edwards, returned Tuesday to her home at Paso Robles, Calif.

Full line of Pathe records on hand; require no change of needles. The permanent, smooth, polished sapphire ball being round, it will not cut the surface of the record nor impair it in any way as a sharp point, hence the Pathe records are practically indestructible. H. C. Madsen. f14tf

A report was current here during the past week that Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelly had received word that the death of their son Delbert in France had not been confirmed. Word from Mr. and Mrs. Kelly is that they have received no word since that stating that Delbert's grave had been found in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cooper, of Salem, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cooper.

Millicent and Jerrine Burrows resided at an Oddfellows entertainment in Eugene Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Alspaugh, of Calgary, Alberta, visited during the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Powell.

Meet your friends Saturday at The Fair.

Mrs. J. S. Medley, of Eugene, was here Wednesday to attend the party given by Mrs. B. E. Job in honor of Mrs. L. S. Hill.

Miles Pletcher, who was visiting at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. Ogle Young, suffered a severe paralytic stroke Wednesday.

Will Banquet Soldiers and Sailors.

The minute men of the Methodist church will give a banquet to the soldiers and sailors of the Cottage Grove community in the banquet room of the church next Tuesday evening. All soldiers and sailors are cordially invited to be present. There will be an informal program.

R. A. M. ATTENTION.

Special convocation Cottage Grove chapter, R. A. M., Wednesday night, March 26. Mark master degree. Visiting brethren welcome.

By order W. M. Gottfried Graber, Sec.

GERMAN GAS MASK BEARS BLOOD OF HUN VICTIM

Mrs. Henry Selde received yesterday two of the gas masks used by the Germans on the west front. They are much different from those used by the Americans and are on exhibition for a few days in The Sentinel window.

One of the masks bears the blood blood marks of its former wearer and this mask Mrs. Selde has been asked to take care of for Floyd Owen, of the 9th aero squadron, of the army of occupation, who sent them to her.

Direct Connections for Foreign Exchange

OUR DIRECT AND INTIMATE CONNECTIONS WITH MANY HUNDRED CORRESPONDENTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE CIVILIZED WORLD ENABLES US TO PERFORM SPECIAL SERVICE IN FOREIGN DRAFTS AND MONEY ORDERS.

IF YOU DESIRE TO SEND MONEY TO YOUR FRIENDS OR RELATIVES IN FOREIGN COUNTRIES CONSULT THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK of Cottage Grove

MEMBER OF FEDERAL RESERVE BANK