The war department has declined to pay the watchmen who guarded the dam of the Cold Springs Irrigation project in Oregon during the war. It was thought necessary to have the dam guarded and it was supposed that the watchmen would be paid by the government, just as were many watchmen who guarded the private property of transportation, light and power companies, but the settlers have found the cost of these watchmen charged up to them as part of the maintenance.

Those logging roads in Oregon which have refused to carry any kind of freight for residents along their lines because they believed it would make them common carriers within the meaning of the law and subject them to payment of revenue taxes on everything hauled, including their own lumber products, are needlessly alarmed. The commissioner of internal revenue rules that the income tax law of 1919 relieves them of the payment of any tax except on such traffic as they haul for hire for outside individuals or concerns.

Baker county has been infested with ground squirrels, known as sagebrush rats, for many years, and these rodents have proved disastrous to crops.
As a result the county court has provided that all infested lands may be called a public nuisance by the county court, and the owners or occupants will be ordered to proceed to destroy the squirrels. Any land remaining infested 30 days after the publication of the legal notice may be treated with rodent poison by persons authorized by the court, and the entire cost of the operation will be charged against the negligent persons in the form of taxes.

resulted in a wave of improvement on the part of Hood River men and res-taurateurs.

Tubercular rats found in the slaughcently landed in New York from over-as the record flour period for Portland.

By unanimous vote, the members of the Eddyville Mohair and Wool Grow-cents better per pound than had previously been offered.

Delegates gathered in Bend from Deschutes, Crook, Jefferson and Sherman counties elected W. S. Ayres as president of the Deschutes Baptist association. H. C. Doty of Redmond was chosen vice-president, with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Norden of Bend secretary and assistant secretary, respectively.

Fire that destroyed a Chinese laundry at Salem, precipitated an outbreak in Chinatown which may develop into a long feud. Several families are involved. The trouble started when the owner of the building in which the laundry was located accused sons of a Chinese woman named Hing of setting the fire. Mrs. Hing then made murderous threats, according to the officers.

Judge Eakin has handed down a decision awarding the office of county judge of Columbia county to Martin White, who contested the election of W. J. Fullerton, his opponent at the November election. The official canvass gave Fullerton a majority of three votes. White secured a recount on which Fullerton gained an additional three votes, but 40 ballots were laid aside on account of irregular markings. Judge Eakin awarded 24 to White and 14 to Fullerton, giving White a majority of six votes.

TOURISTS PASS ON WAY NORTH NOW ALMOST DAILY

California tourists are coming through Cottage Grove almost daily on their way to points north, and while all of them admit that they started out too early for comfortable motoring all the way, none of them report any serious trouble in getting over the bad places on the highway now that the warm weather is here and the mud has almost all dried up.

One man said that a detour can be made around the place where the contractor in Cow creek canyon has barred the way across the highway, and that the ground will soon be in such condition, if the dry weather continues, that cars will be able to travel over the grade that is being built.

The worst place along the whole highway, said this tourist, is between Redding and Dunsmuir, Calif., where there is also much highway construction work being carried on. However, the California law requires the contractors to build detours around the work, and while the substitute roads are said to be abominable, there is little delay in making the trip.
