

Does Your Horse Kick On His FEED?

A POORLY FED HORSE reflects discredit on its owner, but the owner gets the worst of the deal because economy in feeding the horse affects its working capacity as well as its appearance. If your horse kicks on his feed you can correct it by buying your feed here as you get the best quality for the least outlay. Farmers, contractors and horse owners generally know that our feed is always up to the standard.

Some Good Advice

Strengthened by Cottage Grove Experiences.

Kidney disease is too dangerous to neglect. At the first sign of backache, headache, dizziness or urinary disorders, you should give the weakened kidneys prompt attention. Eat little meat, take things easier and use a reliable kidney tonic. There's no other kidney medicine so well recommended as Doan's Kidney Pills. Cottage Grove people rely on them. Here's one of the many statements from Cottage Grove people.

D. C. Hubbard, retired farmer, 640 Sixth street, Cottage Grove, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for the past ten years. When ever I have noticed that my kidneys were not acting properly, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have soon put them in good working order. It is Doan's Kidney Pills that are responsible for my present good health."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hubbard uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. m7-14

Savarin Eggs.

Fry a quarter of a pound of bacon and chop and spread in the bottom of a baking dish. Peel a quarter of a pound of mushrooms, fry them lightly in bacon fat, lift out and lay on the bacon, sprinkling lightly with salt and paprika. Poach and drain four eggs, lay over the bacon and mushrooms, cover with two tablespoonfuls of bread crumbs, dot with bits of oleo and set in a hot oven for a couple of minutes. Serve in the baking dish.

GIVES WIFE ADLER-I-KA!

"My wife was pronounced incurable by physicians unless operated (complicated bowel trouble). I began giving Adler-I-Ka and she is improving. I shall continue until she is cured." (Signed) J. H. Underwood, Marion, Ala.
Adler-I-Ka empties BOTH upper and lower bowel, flushing ENTIRE alimentary canal. Removes ALL foul matter which poisons system. Often CURES constipation. Prevents appendicitis. We have sold Adler-I-Ka many years. It is a mixture of buckthorn, cascara, glycerine and nine other simple drugs. New Era Drug Store.

NOTICE OF SALE.

Whereas by the last will and testament of A. H. Spare, deceased, which will was admitted to probate in the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County on the 15th day of January, 1915, power and authority is given to the Executor of said will and estate to sell and dispose of the real property of the said estate, and of the real property hereinafter described at private sale.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of A. H. Spare, deceased, with the will annexed, will from and after the 1st day of August, 1919, proceed to sell the following described real property, to-wit:

Beginning at the South Southwest corner of the Henry Small D. L. C. No. 57, and running thence North 31.83 chains; thence east 37.96 chains; thence North 1.91 chains; thence East 7.10 chains to the center of the channel of the Coast Fork River; thence in a Southeasterly direction, following up the center of the channel of said river to intersection with the West boundary line of the right-of-way of the S. P. R. R. Co.; thence South 29 degrees West, following said west boundary line of the right-of-way 8.10 chains; thence West 46.14 chains to the place of beginning, containing 149.82 acres of land, more or less, excepting therefrom a strip of land running along and near to and parallel with the west bank of the said Coast Fork River, heretofore deeded to Lane County, Oregon, by the said deceased for a public road, and containing 1.02 acres, more or less. All in section 32, Tp. 20 South Range 3 West of W. M. in Lane County, Oregon, at private sale at his office in Cottage Grove, Lane County, Oregon, for the highest price obtainable in cash.

OLIVER VEATCH,
Administrator with the will annexed of the estate of A. H. Spare, deceased. J4a1

BEN LURCH, Directors.

A. E. Gronewald has been appointed county school superintendent of Wasco county for the unexpired term made vacant by the resignation of Clyde T. Bonney.

The Pendleton county council has taken definite action toward obtaining a landing place for airplanes. The place selected will be at the Sam Bitter place, three miles east of the city.

Two hundred horses have been replaced by tractors in Lane county within the last year. Since the planting season of 1918 began 60 machines have been purchased in the county, and the larger number of them were bought this year.

Farmers of Lane county will soon have borrowed $700,000 under the provisions of the federal farm loan act. Appraisements are partially completed for loans of $100,000, and $600,000 already has been borrowed through the federal bank at Spokane.

The Corvallis fire department succeeded in preventing further spread of the flames which threatened to destroy the town of Peoria. The sawmill was a complete loss. It was valued at $10,000. Half a dozen private dwellings were also destroyed.

Although it has been a continuously dry season so far around Baker, the ranges are in fine shape. About 35,000 sheep are grazing on privately owned land in Sumpter and Austin, and including those in the Whitman forest district, the total will run to 70,000.

Oregon ranks among the first of states of the country engaged in club work, reports L. J. Allen, in charge of pig club work at the Oregon Agricultural college, who has returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended a conference of pig club agents and swine specialists.

Russell Brooks, son of Mrs. Mildred Robinson Brooks, county recorder of Marion county, whose appointment as American vice consul to Rotterdam, Holland, has been announced, is perhaps one of the youngest members of the American diplomatic service, being but 28 years old.

Government action in an effort to recover to the state the remaining 12,000 or 13,000 acres of land still in litigation in the notorious Hyde-Benson land fraud cases were initiated upon the arrival in Salem of C. R. Arundell, representative of the federal land department and an expert in land fraud litigation.

Because of the numerous complaints of property, overgrown with brush, grass and weeds, of banks that have caved down on sidewalks and covered the paths, Mayor Baker of Portland has instructed Chief of Police Johnson that the police must begin a determined campaign to force property owners to clean up their premises.

The high price now being paid for loganberries is the basis of numerous lawsuits now pending in the Salem courts. Berries have risen in price from 3 cents two years ago to 9 cents this year and growers, who were under long-term contracts, are seeking to rescind them in order to take advantage of the present high prices.

Motor vehicle registrations in Oregon totaled 72,848, according to figures made public by Sam A. Kozar, deputy secretary of state. The total registration for all of 1918 was 63,325. Motor vehicle fees for the first six months of the present year amount to $542,840. This is nearly $100,000 in excess of the total fees received all last year.

The oil produced by the mint growers of the Willamette valley will be pooled this year, according to decision of the Willamette Valley Mint Growers' association at a meeting held in Eugene. By pooling it is expected a price of from $8 to $10 a pound will be obtained for the oil this year. It sold for $4 a pound last year and $3 a pound during 1917.

Nine hundred and thirty thousand dollars in bonds of the Teel Irrigation district are being issued by the secretary of state's office, following final approval at a meeting of the irrigation securities commission Thursday. It is expected that definite development work on the project, which covers 16,000 acres of land in Umatilla county, will now be undertaken at once.

At a meeting of the desert land board in Salem the transfer of the Morson Land company's project to the Walker Basin Irrigation company was approved, thus clearing the way for immediate development work on the 27,000 acres in Deschutes and Klamath counties included in this project. The Walker Basin company is headed by Frank M. Tomes, a banker of La Pine, and includes some of the most influential men of La Pine and the Walker Basin among its stockholders.

Clyde (Red) Rupert, escaped convict from the Oregon state penitentiary, a former well known athlete and ex-police officer of Portland, was arrested at Brawley, Cal. Rupert was recognized on the streets of Brawley by Robert Lee Ringer of Portland. It is said. Rupert was sent to prison for the theft of $19,500 in Liberty bonds from a Portland bank. He was watchman at the bank at the time of the theft. He made his escape four months ago while working in the state convict camp in the lime quarry at Gold Hill, Ore.

BACK IN TEXAS.

(Oregon City Courier.)
(From Mrs. Moody, back in Texas to Mrs. Cochrane, in Oregon.)
Oh, the sun is shining bright,
Back in Texas,
Not a storm-cloud mars the sight,
Back in Texas,
And you hear the drone of bees
In the flower-scented breeze,
And the birds sing in the trees
Back in Texas.

Fields are filled with golden grain,
Back in Texas,
Peaceful cattle dot the plain,
Back in Texas,
And the lofty mountains high,
Reaching out to meet the sky,
Fling their shadows far and high
Back in Texas.

Oh, the air is full of health,
Back in Texas,
And the earth is full of wealth,
Back in Texas,
Don't you hear the prairies call?
There's a welcome there for all,
Be your station great or small,
Back in Texas.

(From Mrs. Cochrane, in Oregon, to Mrs. Moody, back in Texas.)

I got your letter, daughter dear,
With its eulogy, in rhyme,
Of the sunny land of Texas,
Where the birds sing all the time.
But there's a state called Oregon—
Perhaps you didn't know—
Where they don't ship soil from other states
To make the flowers grow—
In Dear Old Oregon.

Where the streams are full of finest fish,
The mountains full of game,
And the blessings of the country are
Too numerous to name.
Where the whistling farmer's ploughshare
Turns up the richest mold,
And the valleys, in the autumn, gleam
With fruit like yellow gold.
In Dear Old Oregon.

And talk about your mountains
Reaching up to meet the sky!
Why here, whichever way you turn,
Their snow caps greet your eye.
And cherry trees hang red with fruit
As the summer days go by
In Dear Old Oregon.

Yes, I know about old Texas,
With its plains so broad and bare;
Where the sun's so hot in summer
It will fairly singe your hair;
Where the prairie dog and coyote
Are the only game you see—
Oh, I guess the prairie's calling—
But it isn't calling me
From Dear Old Oregon.

A little alum in the water used for washing perspiring hands and feet will alleviate any unpleasantness.

A little methylated spirit used to moisten the polishing paste for brass and copper goods will keep them from tarnishing for a long time.
