SOCIETY.

A get-together of Cottage Grove folks, temporarily in Portland, was held Wednesday evening of last week in Peninsula park, where there assembled Mr. and Mrs. Robin T. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Skei and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitlock, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Glass and Miss Elsie Gustafson and Miss Anna Gustafson. Mrs. George Kerr and son George, Miss Ruth Stewart and Mrs. Anna Lindstrom Erickson and her husband were so unnerved by the violent thunderstorm of the early morning that they were afraid to venture out of the storm cellar by 6:30 in the evening and so missed a bountiful lunch spread under the trees of the park. The evening passed so pleasantly that all agreed to meet a week later at Laurelhurst park and invite other Cottage Grove folks of the city.

Mrs. W. Fraser Johnson entertained charmingly Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Ross G. Thomas, of Indianapolis. She was assisted by her cousin, Miss Hewitt, and by Mr. Johnson's mother. A dainty two-course luncheon was served, the hostess being assisted in the serving by her daughter, Miss Martha Johnson, and Miss Alice Garetson.

The most enjoyable meeting of the year of the ladies' aid of the Methodist church was held Wednesday at the Hogate country home, with Mrs. Hogate, Mrs. O. H. Heine and Mrs. E. J. Sears as hostesses. A business and social session was held with about 30 members present. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. A collection of $4.70 was taken.

The last meeting for the summer of the M. P. G. club was held Tuesday afternoon at Currin bridge, where the hostess, Mrs. Karl K. Mills, is one of a camping party. After inspecting camp arrangements and the beautiful surroundings, needlework and very informal refreshments were enjoyed around an inviting campfire. At six o'clock the husbands of the club members motored out and assisted a prodigious picnic supper to disappear. An evening of outdoor sports and songs, old and new, around the fire finished this delightful sojourn at "Camp Go Get 'Em." Additional guests were Colonel and Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Judd, Miss Nellie Judd, Mrs. S. W. Moody, Miss Nellie Myers and Miss Louise Garetson.

The LaComus club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. G. R. Pletcher. After a very pleasant afternoon, dainty refreshments were served. Guests outside of club members were Mrs. Pletcher's two sisters, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. McNeil, and her mother, Mrs. Kerr.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Hats and bags are being made of London prints and percales.

Taffeta and silk or wool jersey are used for motor coats.

Don't wash the face in warm water before going out in cold weather.
