

GEORGE TELLIER'S PUBLIC SALE

At my residence three miles west of Walker, Ore., in Lynx Hollow, seven miles northwest of Cottage Grove, eight miles southwest of Creswell, I will sell at Public auction on the following described property:

Tuesday, September 16

Livestock—Black mare 12 years old, weight 1400; bay mare 10 years old, weight 1500; gelding 3 years old, weight 1100. Two cows giving milk.

Household Goods—3-piece bedroom set; 2 mattresses; 3 bed springs; cook stove; heater; hard wood chiffonier; 8-ft. extension table; chairs, dishes, kettles, frying pans, flat irons, and other articles too numerous to mention.

Implements—3/4 Racine wagon good as new, top box and spring seat; good top buggy; set heavy work harness; one single harness, gravel bed, hay rack, disc harrow, plow; one barrel spray pump with hose and nozzle; 20-gallon iron kettle; 9 stands of bees; hand saws, brace and bits, hammer, cross-cut saw, spade, shovel, heavy iron maul, rake, mower, 8-ft. spike-tooth harrow and one wheelbarrow.

SALE STARTS AT 10 A. M.—FREE LUNCH AT NOON

Terms—On sums of $15 or under, cash in hand; over $15 credit of 6 months will be given, purchaser giving bankable note at 8 per cent interest.

George Tellier, Owner
First Nat'l Bank, Cottage Grove, Clk. J. K. Greer, Auct.

LYNX HOLLOW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Sept. 10.—Harry Walker returned to his home in Portland Saturday of last week.

Several from here went to the Seavey hop yards the first of the week.

Mrs. Wm. Slater returned from Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson started for Iowa last Sunday.

George Tellier transacted business in Eugene Monday.

Several neighbors hauled grain and wood for George Tellier Tuesday.

Wm. and Miss Ivy Porter were in Cottage Grove Tuesday.

Mrs. A. Wolford and little daughter Audria came home from the Eugene hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hartley and son Harold started for their home in Bend, Ore., Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Dresser and daughter Varian and P. Barnett as far as the fish hatchery on the McKenzie.

MOUNT VIEW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Sept. 10.—Mrs. L. R. Long and son, Horatio Mosby, of the Grove, were out to the W. D. Heath home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Miller, Clarence Sears and W. D. Heath were in the Grove Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chapman and family and Mrs. Kate Sears attended the wedding of J. R. Chapman and Miss Rebecca Bales at Dorena Thursday.

Lyle Lowry was out from the Grove Friday to the W. D. Heath home.

Wm. Cox visited two days of last week at the C. W. Sears home.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chapman left Saturday for a visit at the home of Mr. Chapman's parents at Eugene, before returning to their home at Ridgefield, Wash.

Claude Arne was in Eugene this week on business.

C. W. Sears received a message Sunday that his brother David was very ill, and left that day for Sherwood, where his brother but recently returned from here, his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Quimby moved this week onto the H. B. Yancy place, which they recently purchased. A Mr. Allen has rented the Stocks place which the Quimbys vacated.

Mrs. Claude Arne and children left this week for a visit with Mrs. Arne's sister, Mrs. Robert Landwehr, at Westlake.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bales attended the wedding of Mr. Bales' sister at Dorena Thursday.

George Quimby has rented the Harrison place near the steel bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sears, Mrs. Kate Sears and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cooley attended the grange meeting in the Grove Saturday.

SILK CREEK.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Sept. 10.—Miss Lena Burcham left Friday for Marshfield, where she will teach.

Mrs. L. M. Owens had dental work done Monday in the Grove.

Paul Barnett, recently from France, was dinner guest Saturday at the D. A. Estes home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hartley, of Bend, Ore., visited Saturday afternoon at the J. F. Gildersleeve home.

Mrs. James Moran was in the Grove Tuesday on business.

Ernest Darnell went to Eugene Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Wood was down from Rujada and spent the week end here.

C. E. Wood and Mrs. John Wood were in Cottage Grove Tuesday on business.

M. F. Babcock is hauling wood to the public school this week.

Miss Varian Dresser, recently from Boulder, Colo., visited the last of the week at the D. A. Estes home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gildersleeve and children returned to Rujada Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Garner, D. A. Estes and Mrs. J. F. Gildersleeve were in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Dresser, of Lynx Hollow, and Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Babcock were guests of Mrs. E. M. Wheeler the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Darnell went to the Grove Thursday.

The rain has delayed threshing in this neighborhood.

Henry Gruber made a trip to Idaho recently to find a place to locate.

BLUE MOUNTAIN.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Sept. 10.—There will be preaching services at the church next Sunday at 11:30 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Kibbey returned from Portland Monday. Mr. Kibbey is not much improved in health.

Charles Whippis is home from Upton for a few days.

Max Whippis is home for a few days from Rujada nursing a sore hand.

Josie Seward went to the hop yards last week.

Mrs. Ralph Lancaster is here from Washington visiting her mother, Mrs. Page.

Mrs. Bert Lancaster and little daughter visited Thursday of last week in the Grove with her sister, Mrs. George Foster.

HEBRON.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Sept. 10.—Roy C. Stewart, of Albany, spent the week here with Norval Powell.

Lincoln Taylor, of the Grove, spent Sunday with his sisters, the Misses Taylor.

Mrs. Emma Kelly and children were in the Grove Monday.

Lester Gilerist was operated on at the Cottage Grove hospital Tuesday morning for appendicitis.

POULTRY DAY AT O. A. C. THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

An excellent program has been arranged for the big poultry day at the Oregon Agricultural college, September 18, according to information received by County Agent Robb from Professor James Dryden, head of the poultry department of the college.

There will be an excellent opportunity for poultry men to learn about the daylight culling work, and Professor James E. Rice, head of the poultry department of Cornell university, New York, has been secured as the speaker for the day.

Frank J. Heinrich Dies.

Frank Joseph Heinrich died Wednesday night at the age of 82 years, following a stroke of paralysis. He was a native of Austria. August Heinrich is a son. The funeral will be held Saturday.

'ALHIDOS

Chapman Bales.

Dorena, Ore., Sept. 9.—Miss Rebecca Evelyn Bales, youngest daughter of Mrs. Naomi Bales, was united in marriage to John Richard Chapman at 11:30 o'clock a. m. Thursday, September 4, the ceremony being held at the home of the bride's mother in the presence of 47 guests.

Miss Anna Chapman, of Eugene, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the wedding party took their places under an arch decorated with ferns and pink and white flowers from which were suspended a beautiful white bell.

Miss Daisy Bales, niece of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridegroom was supported by his brother, James Chapman.

The bride was very attractive in a gown of white silk and chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of pink lilies, white hydrangeas and ferns which was afterward caught by Benetta Teeters.

The maid of honor was gown in pink silk. The beautiful ring ceremony was read by Rev. Walter Callison, of the Christian church at Cottage Grove.

Immediately after the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served. The happy couple received many useful presents. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapman and children, of Santa Clara; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chapman and children, of Ridgefield, Wash.; Mrs. Kate Sears and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bales and daughter Dorothy, of Mount View; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. England and children, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Doolittle and children, Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bales and children, Mrs. Caroline Doolittle, Mrs. Naomi Bales, Arthur Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Lot Wagner and children and Miss Benetta Teeters.

Mr. and Mrs. Chapman will make their home in Eugene.

A score of members of the Women's Relief corps pleasantly surprised Mrs. M. L. Tompkins Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her seventieth birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Will Hall pleasantly entertained the Social Twelve club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Anna Hess and daughter Louise were guests.

The LaComus club was pleasantly entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. T. C. Wheeler. Mrs. Thomas Holleran was a guest.

The congenial spirits of the Gowdville neighborhood met Saturday evening at the J. S. Coleman home for a party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Step and daughter, of Fresno, Calif., who were visiting Mr. Step's brother, L. M. Step. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing, refreshments being served at midnight. A second stepping party for the Steps was held Wednesday evening at the Wm. Dorward home.

A party of their friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McInturff Monday evening, the occasion being Mr. McInturff's fifty-ninth birthday anniversary. Among the presents was a beautiful ring given by the children. Another was a birthday cake and when it was cut it was found to contain a silver offering from the members of the Church of God. Mr. McInturff entertained the guests with a synopsis of his life's experiences.

The Rebekah lodge held a social session Friday following initiatory work, which was exemplified upon four candidates. A watermelon feed was the feature of the evening.

The following, together with several other items, were overlooked by the compositor last week:

An informal gathering of young folk was held Wednesday evening at the W. Frasier Johnson home and several pleasant hours were enjoyed.

The Constellation club met yesterday afternoon in the banquet room of Masonic temple. Mrs. S. S. Allison and Mrs. C. E. Frost being hostesses. Mrs. B. R. Job, Mrs. A. A. Richmond, Mrs.

PRINCE ALBERT

YOU can't help cutting loose joyous remarks every time you flush your smokespot with Prince Albert—it hits you so fair and square. It's a scuttle full of jimmy pipe and cigarette makin's sunshine and as satisfying as it is delightful every hour of the twenty-four!

It's never too late to hop into the Prince Albert pleasure-pasture! For, P. A. is trigger-ready to give you more tobacco fun than you ever had in your smokecareer. That's because it has the quality.

Quick as you know Prince Albert you'll write it down that P. A. did not bite your tongue or parch your throat. And, it never will! For, our exclusive patented process cuts out bite and parch. Try it for what ails your tongue!

Toppy red bags, tidy red tins, handsome pound and half pound tin humidors—and that clever, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

H. B. Griggs and Mrs. J. F. McFarland were guests of the club. Mrs. Job presented the appeal of the Alhordina Kerr home for funds and the club voted to participate in the campaign.

The M. P. G. club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. O. L. Nichols, the occasion being the club's sixth anniversary. The center of the decorations was a cake bearing six pink candles. Elaborate decorations were in pink, and delicious refreshments were served. The following officers were elected: Mrs. Roy Short, president; Mrs. Armand Wynne, secretary-treasurer.

Hebron Society.

A dinner party was given at Wm. Mayben's Sunday, those present being Mr. and Mrs. Peek, of Silk Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Mayben and Stanley Mayben, of McKenzie, and Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Huff and family.

Mrs. C. C. Gilham entertained Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter Ada. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Small and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lents and family, Mrs. Webb and children, of London, Mrs. Emma Kelly and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Murray and family, Mrs. B. M. Kappauf and children, Mrs. Jasper Finley, Claude Shortridge and the Abeene children.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, it has been the will of the Supreme Ruler of the universe to remove our esteemed neighbor, Caroline Christman, from our Circle, be it

Resolved, That she be honored as one of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it

Resolved, That we extend the sympathies of the entire Circle to the aged husband and to the children of Neighbor Christman; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the husband, a copy published in The Sentinel, and

a copy spread upon the minute book of St. Valentine Circle, and that the charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

ALICE COFFMAN,
MAUDE WHEELER,
MYRTLE McFARLAND,
Committee.

of our first members of the Neighbors of Woodcraft; and be it