

Program at Arcade Theater

TONIGHT—FRIDAY, NOV. 7—MAY ALLISON in "FAIR AND WARMER," one of the funniest farces ever written. This is an up-to-the-minute release and is one of the five big special feature productions which the Arcade has recently booked. It is sparkling, clean, fast and complicated and will leave a taste in your mouth like a million dollars. Whatever you do, don't miss this. The prices: 20c and 40c.

SATURDAY, NOV. 8—You should all try and see BILLIE BURKE in "The Make-Believe Wife." This is a charming comedy drama. Many men and women are not at their best until some great storm of life comes along. The test awakes in their hearts a heroism they little knew slept there. Come and see "The Make-Believe Wife" and imagine what you would have done under such circumstances.

SUNDAY, NOV. 9—You haven't been "gished" unless you have seen DOROTHY GISH in "Battling Jane." They had a thrifft stamp drive and baby show. Come and see the result.

MONDAY, NOV. 10—EDITH ROBERTS in "A Taste of Life." This is one that will appeal to everybody.

TUESDAY, NOV. 11—You all love great adventure and deeds of daring—then you should see MARGERY WILSON in "The Law of the Great Northwest," which deals with the Royal Mounted Police.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 12—Who would like to have a "Pistol Point Proposal?" EDDIE POLO will show you how this is done. We have, also, a two-reel comedy.

THURSDAY, NOV. 13—The eighth episode of "The Red Glove," featuring MARIE WALCAMP in the story of a thousand thrills. We will also have one reel of news and a special two-reel western play.

AMERICAN LEGION WEEKLY COLUMN

CALVIN T. FUNK POST NO. 32

Nearly a year has passed since the signing of the armistice, November 11, 1918. On that day the hearts of young and old were thrilled with happiness immeasurable. Repeated was the song of the heavenly host of two thousand years ago, "Glory to God in the highest; on earth peace, good will toward men." Words are utterly powerless to describe the ecstasy which pulsed in the bosoms of men and women on that day. Out of a world filled with the death cries of dying comrades the uniformed legions of democracy beheld unfolded before them a future of hope and promise. That which was so dearly won must be cherished above all earthly treasures. The forces of evil must never be permitted to reinforce themselves through hypocrisy and deceit. The autocracy of both the classes and the masses must be stricken from our national life. We must not forget the sentiment of our martyred president who expressed in words as deathless as his own love for his country, "That this is a government of the people, by the people and for the people." Devotion to our great American traditions should be no less now than when men were daily offering their lives to maintain them. Therefore, the day which marked the signing of the armistice will be the cue for every true American to give evidence of the spirit which makes 100 per cent Americanism possible. And don't forget the "Greatest mother of all." Become a member of the great American Red Cross.

Green Tomato Pickle—One-half peck of green tomatoes sliced fine, one-half cupful of salt, and drain two hours. Squeeze dry and add 12 large onions, sliced; pour over boiling water and let stand 15 minutes, then squeeze out. Add black and white mustard seed and celery seed to taste, one cupful sugar and one quart of good vinegar, boiled together. Place a layer of tomatoes and one of onions in a jar alternately, adding the whole mustard and celery seed to taste. Cover with a plate when cold and it is ready to serve.

SOCIETY.

The LaComus club pleasantly surprised Mrs. A. W. Kime Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. They gave her a handkerchief shower, which was in harmony with the weather conditions. The guests brought delicious refreshments with them. All members of the club but one were present and Mrs. Roy Romaine, of Portland, was a guest of the club.

About fifty endeavors of the Christian church held a social at the home Mrs. Loucks Hallowe'en. The rooms were decorated with jackolanterns and autumn leaves. Guests were received by ghosts and conducted through a "room of horrors." An enjoyable evening was spent in games appropriate to the occasion.

Mrs. Lydia Stouffer was pleasantly surprised last night by a number of members of the Eastern Star, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The guests remained until a late hour, serving refreshments which they had brought with them.

The LaComus club met Tuesday with Mrs. A. W. Kime. After a pleasant social afternoon, delicious refreshments were served.

Hallowe'en was an appropriately chosen date for a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lee Hubbard in honor of their brother, E. Dale Hubbard, and his bride, who are returning to Centralia, Wash., from their honeymoon in southern California. A delicious course dinner was served at seven o'clock. The dining room was artistically decorated with jackolanterns and Hallowe'en favors. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. E. Dale Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Proctor, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Lee Hubbard and Margaret and Allan Hubbard.

The aid society of the Presbyterian church meets next Wednesday with Mrs. W. Frasier Johnson. The hostesses will be Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Mrs. W. Frasier Johnson and Mrs. B. R. Job. All members and friends are invited.

No matter if your subscription is paid in advance, you'd better pay up to next November during the November special of $1.75.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

An excellent furniture polish can be made by mixing two parts of castor oil and one of vinegar. Rub over the furniture with a soft rag and polish with a duster.

For washing windows, which should be done when the sun is not shining on them, use warm water with a tablespoonful of kerosene added to each pail of water.

The cuffs of a man's cotton shirt joined together make an excellent iron holder of just the right size and thickness. Finish by binding with a piece of the same material.

When packing a hat, sew it to the bottom of the box. Simply thread a strong needle with cotton and sew through both hat and box. A few firm stitches will be sufficient and though the box may be turned upside down the hat will not move.

Jelly Roll—Beat three eggs very light; add a half cupful of brown sugar and five teaspoonfuls of sifted flour sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake in a sheet in a broad, shallow tin, well greased. While hot, spread with jelly and roll.

Don't forget to save that two bits by paying your subscription during November.

THINGS WE THINK

Things Others Think and What We Think of the Things Others Think

Some folks may not be helped by going to church—but they certainly won't be hurt.

The higher living gets the more we want to live.

People like to get all they can out of the government, forgetting that it is because everyone feels the same way that taxes are high.

Knowledge may be power, but the uneducated hustler gathers in the shekels while the modest scholar has to stand off his grocer.

It must take a lot of bravery to help a mob tar and feather some poor, helpless, seared to death victim.

Some women economize on everything else so they can afford to spend as much as they wish for a hat.

A person who swallows everything he hears is unmercifully abusing his digestive system.

Gout is not always caused by eating too rich foods. A man who has recently been attacked by the disease says he has boarded at hotels for 50 years.

Putting repairs on a house seems different to a man when he owns it than when he rents it.

A woman is likely to think it too sudden when the ballot says "vote 'yes' or 'no.'"

Kissing conveys deadly disease germs and still none of the girls around this old town are dead ones. Now, girls, how do you account for that?
