Mrs. Laura McKernan, of Cottage

Grove, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Martin Foster.
The freezing weather did much damage to fruit and berry trees in this valley.
Mrs. Bessie Harris is confined to her home with a severe cold.
Ralph Lynch has a crew of men putting up a sheep shed.
Miss Gladys Mitchell, teacher of the grade school, has recovered from an attack of measles and is again in the school room.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Cottage Grove, were fined by the Lorane officers for speeding, having walked from the Grove to Lorane in three hours. They promised never to do it again, so the fine was light.
Martin Foster, who sustained a broken leg in November, is able to walk some without his crutches.

Pruning and plowing is going forward in the orchards.
Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Farman entertained at dinner Sunday, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. George Farman and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Caster and baby.
The I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges here are waking up. They are holding meetings regularly and several new members have been initiated into each lodge.
Miss Vivian Mathews and Mrs. Chester Crow are visiting at the Mathews home.
Mrs. Della Crow and Miss Nellie Sanderson, who were operated on for appendicitis, are both home and on the road to recovery.
O. E. Crowe has painted his garage and woodshed, thereby setting a good example for the rest of the farmers of Lorane.
