

Program at Arcade Theater

FRIDAY, FEB. 20—LEW CODY in "THE BROKEN BUTTERFLY." This picture is an adaptation of Penelope Knapp's great story "Mareene." The story of a great love and sacrifice, pictured in the tense portrayal of a master. The prices are 15c and 25c.

SATURDAY, FEB. 21—JOHN BARRYMORE in "HERE COMES THE BRIDE." Barrymore's sweetheart asks him to marry her at once. Meanwhile he has committed matrimony for a year in order that he may get $100,000. What did he do? See this wonderful comedy drama and find out. Prices, 10c and 25c.

SUNDAY, FEB. 22—WALLACE REID in "THE DUB." A dub is what is commonly known as "a poor fish." If you want to see what a dub really is like, you will see Wallace Reid in "The Dub." And there is love in it. No dub could fail to get mixed up in a love affair. Some say that to be a dub one must be in love; others say that if you are not in love you are a dub. Anyway, it's an interesting subject.

MONDAY, FEB. 23—The sixth episode of "THE TRAIL OF THE OCTOPUS." Also the feature entitled "THE HEART OF A GYPSY."

TUESDAY, FEB. 24—JANE MILLER in "THE UNBROKEN PROMISE," an entertaining five-part feature. Also a two-part comedy, "MAID MAD WITH MURRAY FAZENDA."

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 25—BILLY RHODES in "HOOP-LA," a five-part story of a circus orphan and the big elephant clown who was her guardian. Also a comedy entitled "A FAIR SAMPLE."

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, FEB. 26-27—BERT LYTELL in "LOMBARDI LTD." He was a dressmaker but he didn't know how to sew. There are 610 laughs in this screen production of Oliver Moroso's stage success. Prices, 15c and 35c.

SATURDAY, FEB. 28—FRED STONE in "JOHNNY GET YOUR GUN." This is a charming story of an athletic western cowboy who becomes a motion picture actor and is involved in a series of thrilling episodes in which he saves a lovely girl from a fortune-hunting count. Mr. Stone is an acrobat as well as a comedian, and his acrobatic stunts are the big outstanding feature of "Johnny Get Your Gun."

SUNDAY, FEB. 29—DOROTHY DALTON in "HARD BOILED." Deacon Simpson was not only a bad egg; he was hard boiled, at that. Then he sort o' fell for Dorothy Dalton; and because he was boss of the town he thought he could boss Dorothy Dalton. But there's only one boss when Dorothy's around—and that's Dorothy. Don't miss it. Also the comedy in two parts, "DOG DAYS," and "THE BEACH MODEL GIRLS" IN PERSON. Prices, 25c and 50c.

Society

The lower classmen of the high school entertained the upper classmen socially in the "gym" room of the old high school building Friday evening. Games were the principal diversion, which were followed by a half hour's dancing and refreshments. The room was very tastefully decorated.

The I. O. O. F. hall was the scene of a pretty social event last Friday afternoon when Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Will Hall, Mrs. A. W. Kime and Mrs. H. A. Miller gave a valentine party. About sixty invited guests were present and were entertained with vocal solos by Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, followed by an interesting guessing contest that excited much merriment. The popular hostesses served a splendid two-course luncheon in the banquet room at long tables which were beautifully decorated with hearts, cupid and red carnations with valentines for place cards.

The high school basketball team was pleasantly entertained at the home of Miss Mary Ellen Benson after the game Thursday evening.

Little Miss Dorothy Umphrey was hostess on Saturday afternoon to a dozen small playmates, the occasion being her birthday as well as St. Valentine's day. A postoffice over which Master Donald Umphrey presided contained valentines for each one, and the small guests indulged in merry play until they were invited to the long table gay with cupid and paper lace and centered with a fascinating birthday cake with five candles.

Mrs. Leon DesLarzes' music class and the Methodist choir enjoyed a pleasant social affair Tuesday evening at the J. S. Benson home, the hostesses being Miss Mary Ellen Benson and Miss Lenora Hubbell. The musical program consisted of vocal numbers by Miss Hilda Hardin, Mrs. C. L. Churchill and Miss Elsie Chestnut. Mrs. F. J. Alstoft gave several readings and Mrs. DesLarzes read an article upon music. On account of receipt of word during the party of the death of Mrs. Benson's half-brother, Lawrence Wynne, the party went to the home of Miss Margaret McDonald, where refreshments were served.

"STERLING" COMPOUNDED FEEDS

It is an undisputed fact that honestly and accurately compounded feeds give better results than any straight grain feed. When we started in this business we were thoroughly convinced that the public cares as much for quality as for price. Believing this, our motto has been "A Higher Feed Value for Less Money." And because we have constantly kept this in mind, "Sterling" Compounded Feeds are recognized as being all the name implies.

Our specialties are horse feed, hog feed, and dairy feed, for which we make the claim "There are none better."
