

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

SATURDAY, MARCH 6—HENRY WALTHALL, in "FALSE FACES." From "no man's land" to New York city, SOME JUMP, but this daredevil of a French spy makes it—with his bare fists, his gun and a hun submarine. And he puts a big band of hun spies all on the blink before he is through. Come and see how he does it.

SUNDAY, MARCH 7—DOROTHY GISH in "BOOTS." Lots of people keep money in their boots but whoever thought romance, thrills and intrigue could be found in them? See what Dorothy Gish's boots hold.

MONDAY, MARCH 8—Eighth episode of "THE TRAIL OF THE OCTOPUS." Another special feature picture will be shown with this. Watch the Arcade lobby Monday for the announcement.

TUESDAY, MAR. 9—WILLIAM DESMOND in "DEUCE DUNCAN"—a clean western story with a beautiful love interest and big situations. "Deuce Duncan" is the name of the latest Desmond picture, wherein handsome Bill as a bad man and gun bully reforms under the influence of love.

MARCH 10 AND 11—"WHITEWASHED WALLS," another of William Desmond's best, a comedy-burlesque along original lines. What will you see in "Whitewashed Walls"? A Fourth of July celebration in Latin America; the way a Spanish beauty flirts with an American; an Irishman putting it over as a greaser, and the wickedest vamp that ever vamped.

MARCH 12 AND 13—CLARA KIMBALL YOUNG in her latest picture, "EYES OF YOUTH," one of the most gripping productions in years, because in addition to being one of the most famous plays of the year, as well as the best and most elaborate productions of Miss Young's entire screen career, the development of the story will show in a new and startling way the possibilities of reading the future through the process of crystal gazing.

RAILROADS GIVEN BACK TO OWNERS

Private Operation of Roads
Will Be Largely Under New Conditions.

Washington.—America's rail transportation systems, operated as one great public utility since December 28, 1917, were divided among their 230 respective corporate owners when the government released control at midnight, March 1.

Director-General Hines, as the agent of the president, handed over the properties and equipment, valued at approximately $20,000,000,000, to their old directors, free except for the jurisdiction retained by the government in the new railroad reorganization bill.

The roads go back to private control under largely new conditions. The railroad bill, signed by the president, gives the system certain new privileges, but as an offset, it enlarges the interstate commerce commission, both in power and personnel. The corporations no longer are masters completely of their bond issues, nor are they allowed to stand solidly against labor, for labor's demands, if not met by arbitration and negotiations between the parties concerned, go to a high court provided in the bill and on which sit, in addition to labor and railroad representatives, public representatives as well.

As for finances, Mr. Hines has asserted that the corporations would have had difficulty obtaining the necessary credit had the government not extended its care to them during the war. This difficulty has been swept away to some extent, for the roads can obtain loans from the government in these days of strained credit, it was explained.

The interstate commerce commission is also bound by law to consider the roads' final status in ratemaking so the properties may always stand on a solid basis.

U. S. AID ASKED IN ADRIATIC QUESTION

Washington.—The invitation of the British and French premiers to President Wilson to join them in a formal proposal to the Italian and Jugo-Slav governments to negotiate a new Adriatic settlement on the basis of the withdrawal of all previous agreements caused no surprise in official Washington.

It was pointed out, however, that while adhering to the agreement of December 9, the president in his last reply to the premiers had said that he "would, of course, make no objection to a settlement mutually agreeable to Italy and Jugo-Slavia, provided that such an agreement is not made at the expense of the nationals of a third power."

President Wilson has made it clear that he cannot accept the treaty of London as a basis for a settlement.

Under the premiers' proposal, however, no effort would be made to carry out the terms of this treaty until another attempt had been made by the United States, Great Britain and France to arrive at a settlement should the proposed negotiations between Italy and Jugo-Slavia come to naught.

The premiers express appreciation of an agreement with President Wilson's views with regard to the future of the Albanian people and say they are willing to urge upon the governments interested that they should bring their desires into line with the American viewpoint.

8000 OFFICERS CUT OUT

War Department Estimates Reduced
By the House Committee.

Washington.—Eight thousand fewer army officers than asked for by the war department are provided by the house army reorganization bill, formally presented by Chairman Kahn of the military affairs committee. Reductions in the number of officers were made in every branch of service, but the sharpest cut was for the aviation service, which received only 1154 of the 4500 asked. In all, the department sought 26,179 officers and the house committee granted 17,820.

None of the various plans offered to the committee for reorganizing the army was adopted by the committee. Instead the committee report as submitted by Mr. Kahn, based on the national defense act of 1916, was used as the working basis, the new law being a revision of the old one.

Tired Out?

Do you know that languidness, that "awful tired feeling," heaviness, lame or weak back, sore muscles, stiff or swollen joints, rheumatic pains, lumbago, in the great majority of cases, indicate kidney trouble?

Foley Kidney Pills

act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to a healthy condition.

Mrs. Robert Blair, 461 S. 20th Street, Terre Haute, Ind., writes: "I suffered two years with kidney and bladder trouble frequently getting backache. Mornings I would arise feeling very tired and having headaches, and see floating specks before my eyes. I saw Foley Kidney Pills advertised and made up my mind to try them. After taking them a few weeks I found my trouble dispelled. The backache stopped and my kidneys were restored to healthy, normal action. I am also free of those tired spells and headaches and my vision is no longer blurred. My recovery is entirely due to Foley Kidney Pills, which I gladly recommend."
