Dr. Hess Stock Tonic
A Spring Conditioner and Worm Expeller

Spring Is Here. Soon the litters of pigs will be coming, the calves, the lambs, and the colts will be dropped. Feed your brood sows Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before and after farrowing. It makes the bowels active, relieves constipation, promotes good health and good digestion which means healthy pigs and a mother with a milk supply to nourish.

Condition your cows for calving by feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic before freshening. Then feed it regularly to increase the flow of milk. It lengthens the milking period.

Give your brood mares a course of Dr. Hess Stock Tonic. And your work horses. It puts your team in fine fettle. You cannot afford to plow, harrow, sow, mow, reap or team with a team out of sorts, low in spirits, rough in hair, blood out of order, or full of worms. Dr. Hess Stock Tonic is good for sheep—especially good for ewes at lambing time.

MRS. KERR'S CLASS GIVES SPLENDID RECITAL

A well filled house and the enthusiasm of the audience at the recital given at the high school auditorium Wednesday night by the piano pupils of Mrs. George Kerr, assisted by voice members of the Euterpean club under the direction of Miss Esther Silsby, showed the interest taken by the public in Mrs. Kerr's work. After hearing the recital, those present felt that their big expectations were surpassed by the evidence of earnest, well directed work displayed by the students. The purpose of the recital was to show friends and relatives of the students the progress of their actual daily work and to inspire the young performers with confidence to appear before the public.

The first group consisted of little people who have been studying a year or less, Jerome Scott, Elizabeth Cooley, Max Sears, Dorothy Kurre, Leon Van Nortwick, Helen Stewart, Wenona Wendt and Cecil Ames. Jerome Scott and Leon VanNortwick took their first lessons February 12. Jerome had to climb to get up on the piano stool but had no trouble in playing "The Big Clock" once he got there. Dorothy Kurre displayed the right spirit by playing after having had only five lessons. Leone Hohl and Ethel Lambert began fundamental music training in September and really showed splendid progress. Perhaps the most appreciated instrumental performance was a trio by Thelma Kem, Beulah Smith and Muriel Young. Agnes Hilton gave "Valse Rubato" with admirable composure and accuracy. The students throughout showed an earnestness and skill that was rather remarkable.

The vocal work added greatly to the program. Miss Eva Hartung, accompanied by the violin, gave a solo that pleased her many friends and surprised those who had not heard her before. Miss Kathleen Kem and Francis Lacey sang a duet, "Calm as the Night," in a delightful manner. Dale Wyatt brought down the house with "Buddy." The selection especially fitted his voice while the sentiment of the song carried the audience back to No Man's Land with all which that means. This is the number in which Mr. Wyatt featured while a member of the O. A. C. glee club. The recital was a success in every particular.

Your Old Suit Made New

It is needful today to make the old suit last—though not at the expense of becoming tattered. Between the costliness of clothing at the one extreme and the shabbiness of them at the other there is a middle ground where economy and good appearance meet. Our modern dry cleaning establishment is this middle ground. Here our experienced cleaners can tune up your old clothes and preserve your new. Every person realizes the business advantage and the social value of clothes well cleaned and neatly pressed, but there is more in these details than improvement of "looks" alone.
