

SOCIETY

Mrs. Roy Short entertained the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church at her home Wednesday afternoon, assisted by Mrs. Charles Adams and Mrs. J. T. Smith. The meeting was largely attended and work was planned for the ensuing year. Light refreshments were served.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. A. Wright. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. R. Hendricks. Sixteen members and visitors were present. The lesson topic was "Medical Missions in Siam." The mystery box contest resulted in Mrs. Hendricks' side winning three points. A motion was carried to combine the thank offering and ladies' aid, the meeting to be held at the church April 28. At the conclusion of the meeting light refreshments were served.

Mrs. E. A. Glenson and Mrs. C. E. Frost were hostesses to the Constellation club in the Masonic hall yesterday afternoon. Guests of the club were Mrs. J. A. Wright, Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mrs. Charles Stevens. At the conclusion of a social afternoon, a two course luncheon was served.

About forty members of Mrs. Leon DesLarzes' music class met Friday evening with Mrs. Ilma Beager and organized the Durthick club, which will hold regular monthly meetings. Miss Nieta Compton and Miss Lois Thomas assisted the hostess. After a musical program and the playing of games, refreshments were served.

The home of Mrs. Charles Adams was the scene of a pretty social affair Tuesday afternoon when the M. P. G. club met. An air of spring pervaded the rooms which were gaily decorated with fruit blossoms. Each guest was presented with an elaborate corsage bouquet. Following a social afternoon, a dainty luncheon was served at a prettily appointed table adorned with daffodils. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. W. Frasier Johnson, Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Mrs. C. S. Roberts, Mrs. George Proctor and Mrs. Wed Penoyar.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hall entertained with a covered dish party at their beautiful home on west Main avenue Tuesday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller and Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime.

The next regular communication of Cottage Grove chapter No. 4, O. E. S., April 23, will be past matrons' and past patrons' night. Following the business meeting there will be a social affair.

Divide Society.

A party was given Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Seely, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tapp, Mr. and Mrs. Neal McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dugan, Mildred Dugan and Nellie, Ruby and Lillie Miller.

Row River Society.

Young people of the community gathered at the Harry Hodgson home Tuesday and helped him celebrate his forty-eighth birthday anniversary. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and refreshments were served.

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

FRIDAY, APRIL 16—MADGE KENNEDY in "A PERFECT LADY." There is rich comedy and a string of novel situations in the play. A village morals committee attempts to reform the "perfect lady" and she turns the tables and reforms the reformers.

SATURDAY, APRIL 17—BILL HART in "POPPY GIRL'S HUSBAND." Now, Don't fail to see Bill as a convict. Oh yes, of course, you have seen Bill land in prison before, but you've never seen him in a picture that revolves around that theme. He married her and then did his "bit" in jail. Was she false or faithful while he was gone? See this great story of undying love and unsatisfied hate. And don't fail to see HEROLD LLOYD in "JAZZED HONEYMOON." Matinee on Saturday, admission 10c and 20c.

SUNDAY, APRIL 18—VIVIAN MARTIN in "LITTLE COMRADE." We can always expect a good picture from little Vivian.

MONDAY, APRIL 19—"TRAIL OF THE OCTOPUS." Also HARRY T. MOREY in "BEATING THE ODDS." What is the hardest thing in a man's life to live down? And can a man's past ever be lived down? These questions are answered with great dramatic strength in "Beating the Odds."

TUESDAY, APRIL 20—GLORIA SWANSON in "STATION CONTENT." Gloria Swanson makes a thrilling rescue in this picture. She has learned telegraphy from her husband, whom she deserts. At a lonely railroad station she takes the key in an emergency. Word comes across the wire that "Special No. 14" is dashing onto destruction toward a burning trestle. The train appears to be doomed. But Miss Swanson leaps on a gas car and rushes to the rescue with a red lantern. The middle of the trestle has burned through and the rails are hanging over the chasm when she arrives. As the heroine catches a glimpse of the trestle, her car shoots ahead, and just as she reaches the edge, she leaps off and the tricycle plunges into the chasm. The special is saved. This leads to a reunion with her husband, who is on board the train.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21—WALLIE REID in "YOU'RE FIRED." Many men nowadays are often heard to remark something along this line: "Well, I'm not going to work always. Pretty soon I'll marry some girl whose daddy don't know what to do with his dough, and then it will be easy sledding." But all men with such ideas had better see "You're fired."

THURSDAY-FRIDAY, APRIL 22-23—MAY ALLISON in "THE WALK-OFFS," the brilliant comedy that captivated New York. The story of a woman's struggle against temptation to sell her soul for wealth and ease. See synopsis elsewhere in this paper.

McReynolds Car Found.

Kenneth McReynolds left yesterday for Portland to bring home his Dort car, which was stolen here last week and which the thieves left in a Portland garage. Evidently they became frightened and decided not to return for the car. In this they were wise, for the authorities were watching for them. It is pretty certain that the thieves were the two young men from eastern Oregon who were here and disappeared at the same time as the car. Kenneth went to southern Oregon looking for the car and got trace of a Dort stuck in the mud just over the California line but found it was not his.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.
