FAILS TO PAY JITNEY MAN TAYLOR IS "SQUEALED" ON

Because he failed to pay a jitney driver a fee of $10 to haul him from Cottage Grove to Eugene, Roy Taylor was "squealed" on by the driver for unlawful possession of liquor and was arrested by Sheriff Stickels. Taylor engaged a jitney at Cottage

Grove and was taken to Eugene Friday. The driver said he was given several drinks of liquor by Taylor and it made him sick. When the jitney arrived in Eugene the driver was arrested for having no state license for his car. Taylor had disappeared without paying for his ride and the driver notified the officers of the drinks he had taken.

SOCIETY

The M. P. G. club entertained most elaborately Friday evening at Moose hall, when husbands of members and a number of invited couples were present. Dancing was the principal diversion, cards being provided for those not wishing to dance. Vocal numbers were given at frequent intervals by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. C. C. Cruson, both in solo and in trio. Miss Myrtle Potts accompanied them on the piano. Music for the dancing was furnished by Miss Potts and "Happy" Roberts. Such of the refreshments as were not stolen from the kitchen were served at near midnight. All the cakes and cookies that were to have been served with the ice cream had been removed during the progress of the party, much to the discomfort of the hostesses.

Mrs. G. M. Scott was hostess to the LaComus club at her home Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant social afternoon was concluded with a dainty luncheon. The table decorations were orchids.

Several couples surprised Mrs. S. L. Mackin Monday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent socially, after which refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede.

Calvin T. Funk post, American Legion, entertained elaborately last night for ex-service men, their parents, wives, widows and children. A banquet was served following a social evening.

Mrs. S. M. Wendt informally entertained about twenty-five friends at her home on west Main avenue Wednesday afternoon. Vocal and instrumental music was a feature and a three course luncheon was served.

Mrs. George Gerr pleasantly entertained the Social Twelve at her home on Washington avenue yesterday afternoon. Mrs. W. G. Beattie, Miss May Harbert, Mrs. Helen Silsby and Miss Esther Silsby were guests of the club. Luncheon was served at the conclusion of the usual needlework and social hour.

Tonight will be the annual past matrons' and past patrons' night at the Eastern Star. Plans are being made for a big social affair at the conclusion of the regular meeting.

Fined for Having No License.
Eugene Register: C. A. Bennett, driver of a jitney for N. J. Nelson, of Cottage Grove, was arrested Friday by Sheriff Stickels on the charge of having no license on his car and was fined $20 in Judge J. G. Wells' justice court.

No sir-ee, bob!

No premiums with
Camels—all quality!

CAMELS quality plus Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos pass out the most wonderful cigarette smoke you ever drew into your mouth!

And, the way to prove that statement is to compare Camels puff-by-puff with any cigarette in the world!

Camels have a mild mellowness that is as new to you as it is delightful. Yet, that desirable "body" is all there! They are always refreshing—they never tire your taste.

Camels leave no unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste nor unpleasant cigaretty odor! Your say-so about Camels will be:

"My, but that's a great cigarette".

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes for 20 cents, or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine paper covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.
