SALVATION ARMY OPENS STATE RESCUE HOME FOR UNFORTUNATE GIRLS OF OREGON

Salvation Army Rescue Home and some of its babies.

The Salvation Army, as one of the big features of its Home Service Program for 1920, has taken over and opened the White Shield home in Portland as a rescue and maternity home for unfortunate girls. It is a state-wide home, where, under the most pleasant surroundings, with expert medical care the young mother is helped to shape her life anew. Last year, in the west alone, 1948 girls turned from the nightmare of despair to such Salvation Army sanctuaries as this. Of these, 900 were returned to the homes they left in their shame and, through the offices of the Salvation Army workers, were welcomed and their burdens lightened for them. The Portland home nursery now echoes the delighted cooing of more than a score of babies whose mothers are sheltered under its roof and taught how to go out into the world and win a clean living for herself and her baby.

SALVATION ARMY PLANS BOYS AND GIRLS INDUSTRIAL AND AGRICULTURAL SCHOOL

View of Bishop Scott school and Salvation Army boys being taught orchard work at Lytton school.

One of the big phases of the work the Salvation Army is doing in Oregon to prevent the ills of wrong teaching and poverty and to strike at the root of the despair and grief found in the cities, is the training and care of dependent boys and girls. One of the items of the budget to be raised for the Salvation Army work in Oregon provides for the purchase of the Bishop Scott school at North Yamhill as an industrial and agricultural school where neglected kiddies will be educated and made efficient workers so that when they go out into the world they will be an asset to society and not a charge upon the communities of which they will be members. The 1000 acre farm has a walnut grove and other orchards, and, under proper care of agricultural experts who will teach the boys, its productivity will go far toward making the school self supporting. The school is in no sense to be a penal or reformatory institution but on the other hand it is intended to provide sound vocational education for youngsters who, without it, are on the road to bad citizenship.

SALVATION ARMY MAKES MEN OF SOCIAL OUTCASTS

Following a well known rule the Salvation Army, in its industrial homes, is taking the class of man who early finds his way to the poor house and rehabilitates him, makes him over, gives him confidence in himself and turns him over to employment that enables him to sustain himself.

The County Government makes its "down and out" habitual indigents. It makes them a monthly allowance of money or goods for which it requires no service.

The Salvation Army takes the same man and gives him, not money, but work.

It pays him money for his work, and renews in him the knowledge that conscious and directed effort is entitled to and will bring him commensurate return.

It bathes him and wins him again to clean habit and thought. It builds up his strength and his morale until he is fit again for the fight with the world.

Then it finds him employment and sends him forth to work that he is fitted to do.

Here in a nut shell is the story of the Salvation Army's Industrial Homes and the story of the Industrial Home in Portland, where scores of men from all over the state have found themselves.

SALVATION ARMY RESCUE WEEK MAY 1 TO MAY 10

Following the meeting of the advisory board representatives in convention in Portland March 17, John L. Etheridge, appointed to the post of state president of the financial phase of the Home Service program of 1920, started to form his committees under county presidents throughout the state.

The dates of May 1 to May 10 were picked for the financial campaign to meet the budget of $284,000 approved by the convention, at which were representatives of nearly every county. The period was designed as Rescue Week because all of the funds raised during the period will be devoted to the work of rescuing the poor from their poverty, the unfortunate and downfallen from their slough of despair and the girl mothers from their betrayal.

The work is carried on among people in all walks of life, among children, among young men and young women who have fallen behind in the race of life, among old men and old women whose years are drawing to a close.

The work of the army is always constructive. Throughout forty years of work in the slums of larger cities the organization has developed lines of service that no other organization would or could enter upon.
