CAR PLUNGES INTO DITCH HIDDEN BY FOLIAGE

Man and Woman, Presumed to Be Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bevier, of Ashland, Hurt in Accident.

A man and his wife presumed to be Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bevier, of Ashland, were seriously injured Wednesday afternoon in an automobile accident on south Pacific highway inside the city limits. The driver of the car turned out to allow another car to pass just after he had crossed the small wooden bridge about a block south of Main avenue. The steep bank at this point is partially hidden by blackberry bushes and the road is just barely wide enough for two cars to pass. The driver, being on the inside, was deceived by the foliage and his car went into the ditch and part way under the high sidewalk, demolishing part of the underpinning. The woman was thrown out of the car, landing on the sidewalk, being badly bruised but still able to walk. The man sustained a severe concussion above the left eye, evidently from impact with the windshield.

Saying that they did not wish to cause worry to relatives by publication of the fact that they had been in an accident, the occupants of the car refused to give their names. The license number of the car is Oregon 24096. This number was issued to C. B. Bevier, 1008 Ninth street, Hillsboro. The owner of the car admitted that they were driving from Hillsboro, their former home, to Ashland, their present home. The car remained right side up and outside of the demolition of the windshield and top was not greatly damaged.

The injured people were taken to the Dr. Hamilton home nearby, where they are being cared for until ready to continue their trip within a day or two.

CHAUTAUQUA SPIRIT BEING FREELY DISPENSED

Francis Lacey Is President, J. F. Godard Ticket Committee Chairman, Mackin on Publicity.

Cottage Grove has struck its chautauqua stride this week and the chautauqua spirit is being freely dispensed without let or hindrance from the constituted authorities.

Francis Lacey has been elected president of the association and J. F. Godard has been appointed chairman of the ticket committee. S. L. Mackin is the publicity expert. All of these have been busy during the past week trying to keep pace with Mrs. F. C. Ralston, who holds the long distance record as a ticket seller.

Mr. Lacey was elected president in recognition of his ability as head of the student body when it put over the recent lyceum course.

A meeting of all the signers has been called for next Monday evening in the high school auditorium. The dates of the chautauqua are May 28 to June 3, making the opening date two weeks from today. The school grounds have been offered by the school board for the big tent.

Tickets are on sale at the following places: H. B. & M. Store, U. & M. Store, The Fair store, The Elite, and The Sentinel office.

The car swerved and struck a tree or stump and the occupants were thrown out. Mrs. Martin escaped injury but Mr. Martin's back was injured. The car was not seriously damaged and the trip to Lorne was completed, Mr. Martin returning here.

President Ackerman Speaks Here.
President J. H. Ackerman, of Mouthmouth normal, addressed the high school assembly yesterday forenoon. Professor E. F. Elliott, of O. A. C., state superintendent of agricultural work under the Smith-Hughes act, spoke later in the forenoon. He was in the city for the purpose of interesting the school board in taking up the Smith-Hughes work, which gives federal support to local schools.

Sustains Smashed Finger.
Merville Veach sustained a severely smashed middle finger of the left hand Wednesday afternoon while employed as a brakeman in the yards of the O. P. & E. railway. On account of a defect in the coupling mechanism he had to handle the pin with his hand and in doing so the finger was caught. The flesh was badly bruised and the second joint may have been crushed.

Marcela Comes Here Sunday.
Marcela has been secured to play here next Sunday. It is said that the team from there is made up of a bunch of live ones who will make the contest one that will test the skill of the local pennant-winner sluggers.

TWO MOONSHINING OUTFITS ARE CAPTURED HERE

Ardee Geer and M. F. Green Get Into Toils of Law Charged With Manufacturing Brew.

Moonshining in the Cottage Grove country probably will be a little unpopular for some time to come, two manufacturers of the illicit brew having been captured this week through the efforts of Deputy Sheriff Pitcher and other members of the sheriff's force.

Ardee Geer, of London, a 17-year-old lad, was caught Tuesday by Pitcher. His still consisted of a coffee boiler and a rubber hose running through a barrel of water for the worm. He said that his operations had not been very successful. He was caught through his own inattention, in talking on the streets here that he was making the brew. He was operating his still in an unoccupied house owned by the family. He pleaded guilty before Justice King in Eugene and was fined $100.

M. F. Green was caught Wednesday by Sheriff Stickels and Deputy Croner. An odd feature of the arrest of Green and the capture of the still is that the officers slipped up to the residence and standing on the outside beneath a window heard Green and a woman companion talking of the still, the woman pleading with Green to get rid of it as she feared that the officers would soon raid the house as they had done on Geer's still the day before.

When the officers slipped in Green was easily persuaded to disclose his outfit in a cellar under the house. He had a very complete outfit made of copper. A second outfit not in operation was found locked in a cupboard. A quart of the liquor was found.

The sheriff's office had for some time been watching the neighborhood in which Green and Geer live, as it was known that quantities of moonshine were coming from that section. Green had been under suspicion for some time. He is a former minister of the gospel and aged about 65 years. He is in the county jail.

New Ferry Boat at Harrisburg.

A new ferry boat will be built at once to replace the old craft on the Willamette river at Harrisburg, where Pacific highway crosses the river, according to announcement of members of the Lane county court who met with members of the Linn county court at Harrisburg last week.

The old ferry boat is in bad shape, said E. R. Spencer, Lane county commissioner, after his return. Heavy motor trucks have almost broken it down, he said, and it is dangerous to be used any longer.

Both courts are waiting to see what the highway commission will do in regard to the selection of a permanent route for the main trunk of Pacific highway—whether it will continue to extend through Harrisburg or the new route through Coburg is chosen—before planning any big improvements on either side of the river at that point. It is the belief that the highway commission will stand a portion of the cost of a bridge if the route through Harrisburg is chosen.

High School Defeats Eugene.

The high school baseball team won its first game of the season at Eugene Friday, when the high school team of that city was defeated by a score of 9 to 4. The lineup from here was as follows: DeWald, c; Leonard, p; De Lassus, 1b; Spray, 2b; Lacey, 3b; Robinson, rf; McQueen, cf; Hubbell, lf; Heck, ss.

MOONSHINE OUTFIT FOUND IN PROMINENT STORE ON MAIN STREET

Marshal Pitcher thought a few days ago that he had located the source of some of the moonshine that has been causing faces to radiate hereabouts during the past few months. He found a complete moonshine outfit being shipped into the city and the consignee was a prominent business man of the city on Main avenue. He said nothing but kept his eyes open. Finally he was rewarded by finding the still in operation. A fire was burning under it and the liquid was being taken off through a most up-to-date "worm" and taken from the worm and stored in suspicious looking brown bottles. All this was being done openly. The still and the complete moonshine apparatus was set up in plain sight of those who might peek around the counters. Such bold infraction of the law!

But Marshal Pitcher makes certain that he has the goods on a fellow before he makes an arrest, so he waited until he was certain several of the brown bottles had been filled with liquid. One day he, casually dropped into the business house and asked that he be permitted to examine the "brew."

Certainly, have a drink of it, was the courteous reception. This he did and he acknowledged that he never before had such a drink. It was the purest of distilled water.

The location of the "still" is in the White Pharmacy and anyone wishing to see a complete moonshine outfit in operation turning out nothing but the purest of aqua pura will be accommodated upon request.

Manager White was compelled to give a heavy bond to the government before being permitted to install the "still" and government inspectors will regularly visit the store to see that the distilled water doesn't get mixed with raisins or other foreign substances that might turn the water into an inebriating beverage. The residue left in the "still" after a few gallons of water has passed off in steam looks as if it would kill at forty rods.

Portland Daily's Opinion of a Cottage Grove Candidate

Portland Telegram: Elbert Bede, editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, is a candidate for representative from Lane county—the third district. There are five candidates for the office of representative in that county and three of them are to be elected. Mr. Bede ought to be one of the winning three.

Other things being equal, the people have a right to expect good legislative service from a member of the Fourth Estate. On the whole, the contact of the newspaper editor is wider and, in the public sense, more informative than that of men in almost any other profession. His opportunities for knowing public need and observing public attitudes are exceptional. From the very nature of his business he specializes along those very lines; and if he is an earnest and honest man with any measure of capability that commends him, the newspaper editor is equipped beyond the average for good service in lawmaking.

We say that "other things being equal" all these things count in favor of the editor. In Elbert Bede's case the "other things" are more than equal. The tone and character of the paper he publishes indicate that. The esteem to which Elbert Bede has attained among his editorial brethren of the state during his nine years' stewardship with the Cottage Grove Sentinel proves it.

Mr. Bede has been secretary of the Willamette Valley Editorial association for a number of years; has served one term as president of the Oregon State Editorial association, and has also served as president of the Lane County Publishers' association.

The Cottage Grove Sentinel is a journal of influence in the Willamette valley, and particularly so in Lane county. In that fact is reflected the energy, intelligent judgment, fearlessness and probity of its publisher. All these are characteristics which the average citizen deems to be essential to good service in legislation. Hence, we

COUNTY BOND ISSUE TO BE DEBATED HERE

Cottage Grove is to be treated to a debate on the county bond issue by men ably qualified to handle both sides. E. J. Adams, exponent of the bonds, has accepted the challenge of the Tax-sanity league to debate the issue here and at Eugene. The date has not been set and the speakers who will oppose Mr. Adams have not been named.

PLENTY OF GAS IS ON HAND FOR BUSINESS NEEDS

Shortage of Motor Fuel Not to Be Relieved Before Some Time During Month of June.

Apparently the gasoline shortage has not yet caused any serious inconvenience here. The supply station is rationing all dealers and allowing them about half of their ordinary requirements. There is plenty on hand for all commercial purposes but "juice" for pleasure purposes is being doled out a few gallons at a time.

Manager Sudtelt, of the local station, says that no relief can be looked forward to before some time in June.

Free Methodist Annual Conference.

The annual conference of the Free Methodist church for southern Oregon will open in the Baptist church at 2 o'clock next Wednesday afternoon. Bishop Warner will preside and President Elder Dodge will be present several days.

Tie Plant Removal Talk Stopped.
Talk of moving the Latham tie plant probably is stilled for a time by the fact that the Southern Pacific company has just gone to a heavy expense in building extensive platforms at Latham.

Mrs. G. M. Keibelbeck's mother and sister, of Deernhorn, spent Tuesday night with her.

G. L. Carlie, of the Grove, spent Tuesday night at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Q. A. Young.

Mrs. John Keibelbeck was in Eugene Wednesday.

Mrs. G. M. Keibelbeck went to Salem Wednesday for a few days' visit with a sister.

Frank Parker and daughters Lola and Golda, on the way from Portland and Vancouver to their home at Wilbur, visited at the J. A. Mackey home.

Miss Brownell and Miss Hare, county nurses, visited school Wednesday. Eighth grade examinations will be held at the school Thursday and Friday.

ELBERT BEDE.
Candidate for Lower House.

say that Elbert Bede ought to be one of the three successful candidates for representative from Lane county.

(Editorial Note—Mr. Bede has made no campaign whatever for the position for which he is a candidate. He has been too busy to even attempt a campaign and he feels that as the position is one that is an expense financially he cannot afford to put any money into his effort to give Cottage Grove representation in the legislative assembly. He would, however, greatly appreciate a strong endorsement from home and, as none of the candidates for this position are making a campaign, he seems to have an even chance to be one of those selected.)

NOTED ORATOR WILL SPEAK THIS AFTERNOON

Hon. Montavilla Flowers, of Los Angeles, reputed to be an orator of rare gift, will speak on the street at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the interest of the candidacy of General Leonard Wood for the presidency. Mr. Flowers was a personal friend of the late Theodore Roosevelt, is a personal friend of ex-President Taft and has taken part in many presidential campaigns. He has just returned from the east, where he was with General Wood on a campaign trip.

W. C. APPLEWHITE BUYS THE WEST SIDE GARAGE

The West Side garage has again changed hands. W. C. Applewhite has bought the new owner. He took charge of the business yesterday morning. Mr. Harrel, the recent owner, returns to his former position with Woodson Brothers. Mr. Applewhite has been a resident of the city for a number of years, coming here from Eugene when he became interested in the Cottage Grove Manufacturing company.

LARGE SUBSCRIPTION IS RAISED FOR BAND

Cottage Grove business men are boosters for all of the city's civic organizations. Only a short time ago $500 was raised for the ball team and last week a substantial sum was raised for the band. The total will probably reach $200. This is the first year that either organization has been adequately supported.

The members of the band promise that the city will be amply repaid for this unsolicited support. They are holding regular rehearsals with Charles Cochran as director.

H. S. OUSTERHOUDT DIES WEEK AFTER FATHER-IN-LAW

H. S. Ousterhoudt, of Hopewell, Ore., near Salem, died Thursday of last week within a week from the time of the death of his father-in-law, L. B. Woodruff, who died at the Ousterhoudt home April 30 following a brief illness. The two were taken sick on the same day. Mr. Ousterhoudt was so far recovered that the physician said he could get up. From the meager information received here it is probable that the exertion brought on heart trouble that resulted in sudden death. Mrs. Ousterhoudt is seriously ill.

—you don't think that you need to advertise.

—you think everybody knows you, knows where your store is, and what you have to sell.

—possibly you are correct; but if you are correct, how do you explain the fact that every big store is one that has been a consistent and persistent advertiser?

—have you ever noticed two stores of about the same size and then wondered why one enlarged a little every year while the other remained the same size?

—hasn't it always been the case that the store that grew was one which advertised while the one that remained the same size was a non-advertiser?

EUGENE BADLY DRUBBED BY C. G. SLUGGERS

Locals Bunch Their Errors So as to Permit Visitors to Cross Home Plate.

In a 9 to 5 game Sunday in which the locals won from Eugene, Cottage Grove showed that it is getting into its stride. Of 10 hits, two were three-baggers by Stewart and Arthur, and there were two-baggers by Hill, Smith and Arthur. Only Bellar and Earl, of the visitors, got more than a single. A doubtful three-bagger by Bellar slipped over the fence and netted two scores. Earl's was a two-bagger.

Errors by the locals came at a critical moment and were bunched, netting the visitors three scores.

Eugene was the only team to defeat Cottage Grove last year and rivalry between the two aggregations is keen.

Batteries: Eugene, Shields and Laughlin and Earl; Cottage Grove, Callers and King. Struck out by Shields, 7; by Laughlin, 1; by Callers, 11.

Bases on balls: Off Shields, 1; off Laughlin, 1; off Callers, 3.

Diamond Dust.

Glen Smith has the sun to blame for an error which evidently blinded him so that he did not get his mitt in the right spot under a high one.

General King, who is in his old position behind the bat, is getting almost too good a reputation with that peg of his to first and second. With a man on third he shot 'er to second, evidently expecting the ball to come back in time to catch the runner who would take advantage of the opportunity to score. Evidently the runner was too wise to the play, for he wouldn't move out of his reserved seat. The joke was on him, for the ball was lost in the dust at second long enough to have allowed him to score.

With a pickup of a nasty one Cederstrom redeemed himself for an inexcusable error a moment before.

The feature play of the game was a steal from third by Slim Stewart while the box artist was winding 'er up. But for this play, the locals would have been one score short.

Cottage Grove got the worst of it at least two decisions but refused to fuss.

Bellar, roosting on third, waiting for a chance to complete the circuit, thought one of Callers' corner-cutters should have been called a ball and asked Slim Stewart how much the ump's was getting. "WE don't need him," Sam replied.

The band was on the job, per usual.

The value of uniforms was demonstrated when a Eugene player threw the sphere to third, mistaking a Cottage Grove man in uniform for the Eugene third-sacker, who was in khaki dress. The locals scored on this play.

FEEDS SUNFLOWER SEEDS; SUNFLOWER BLOWN IN SHELL IS RESULT

J. W. Eddy has discovered to his entire satisfaction that the rationed feed to hens have a great deal to do with the kind of eggs which the hens produce. A few days ago he gave his hens a ration part of which was sunflower seed. Since then one of the hens has produced an egg with a perfect sunflower blown in the shell. He has decided to name his place the Sunflower chicken ranch.

She Feels Fine Now.
Aches and pains often indicate kidneys out of order. Your kidneys surely need help—and quickly—when your hands or feet are swollen and you feel dull and sluggish, lose your appetite and your energy and there is a puffy look under your eyes. Mrs. L. Gibson, 12th and Edison St., LaJunta, Colo., writes: "My kidneys were giving me a great deal of trouble for some time. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they helped me right away. I feel fine now." Sold everywhere.

Kicked by Horse.
A. C. Skelton, who is employed at a Curtin mill driving a team, sustained a severe injury to the lower lip yesterday. He stooped to hitch a trace that had become loose. The horse became frightened and kicked him. The lip was painfully but not dangerously injured.

MRS. VanBOSKIRK AND MRS. SPENCER INJURED

Car in Which They Are Riding Is Run Down by Swiftly Moving California Car.

Mrs. Grace VanBoskirk, of this city, was severely injured and Mrs. E. K. Spencer, wife of County Commissioner Spencer, was bruised and shaken up when the car in which they were riding was run into near Walker Sunday afternoon by a California car in which three men were riding.

Mrs. Spencer was driving her car, she and her sister being on their way here from Eugene. Mrs. Spencer was two cars coming toward them at high speed. One evidently was trying to pass the other but the first car did not give the road. On seeing the Spencer car the driver of the second car evidently tried to stop, but was too late. Mrs. Spencer turned out as far as she could, but just as the first car was opposite them the second car dodged in between the two and collided with the Spencer car with a crash. Mrs. VanBoskirk suffered a badly sprained ankle and was cut about the face. Mrs. Spencer escaped with bruises. Both cars were pretty badly damaged.

The California car was occupied by A. M. Strang, who was driving, Tom Parson and Ed. Shane, all of Taft, Calif. Their car was taken to Eugene and Sheriff Stickels is holding it until they pay the damages, which they have agreed to do.

AUTO CAMP IS MADE READY FOR TOURIST SEASON

Residents of the City Join in Cleaning Up Grass, Weeds, Rubbish and Refreshments

Cottage Grove observed its second annual park day Wednesday afternoon. Business houses of the city closed in order that all might join in the work at the park. Grass, weeds and brush were cut and removed, a large oven was built in that part of the park set aside for an auto camp ground, a fence was built to separate it from the part reserved for pleasure purposes, rubbish was removed and the park and camp grounds given a general cleaning up. Many wives were surprised at the dexterity of their husbands with the instruments provided, a dexterity they had never shown around home. A large number of the boys of the city joined in the work and almost outdid the men.

Signs were put up about the city during the afternoon directing traffic to the park and along Pacific highway informing tourists that a camping ground can be found in the city. The Washington avenue stub leading into the park was graveled and in the park signs were put up for the information of tourists as to the care of the park. A number of the women of the city prepared refreshments which were served at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. John Hicks Dies.

Mrs. Rebecca J. Hicks, of Central Point, a former resident of this city, died Friday of last week in a Modford hospital. Interment was in the Mountain View cemetery at Ashland. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. M. F. Young, of Central Point; one sister, Mrs. Johnston, of Yuba City, Calif., and two brothers, John and Ed. Ashby, of Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Warren Asher, a niece, of Portland, and George H. Young, a brother-in-law, and Mrs. Joe McKibben, a niece, of this city, attended the funeral.

Never Saw Anything Better.

For colds that "hang on" and for lingering coughs that follow the "flu" there is one safe family cough medicine sold from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mrs. A. B. Griffith, Box 154, Andrews, Ind., writes: "Last winter my family all had the 'flu.' I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and never saw anything better. From now on I will not be without it in the house." Don't let children suffer from croup or whooping cough when this reliable remedy can be so easily procured. Sold everywhere.
