NUMBER 35

DEVELOPMENT OF STATE IS STATE CHAMBER PLAN

Cottage Grove Organizes for Part It Is to Play in Campaign for Promotion Funds.

The definite part Cottage Grove is to play in a state-wide campaign of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce was outlined Tuesday by James G. Stafford, representing the state chamber, who visited Cottage Grove in connection with a survey of the state now being made.

Mr. Stafford discussed the campaign with a number of the leading citizens of Cottage Grove. T. C. Wheeler was selected as chairman of the executive committee, which will cooperate with other cities of the state in this state-wide movement. Associated with Mr. Wheeler will be C. E. Umphrey as vice-chairman, C. A. Bartell, Karl K. Mills and Elbert Hede.

The Oregon State Chamber of Commerce has undertaken to play a big part in the future development of the state of Oregon. Funds will be collected for advertising which will point out the opportunities to be found here, and to encourage land settlement, promotion of irrigation, extension of railroads, refund on reclamation fund, extension of highways, both for commercial purposes and through the national forest reserves, cooperation with agricultural and lumbering interests and numerous other big projects, the development of which will be of incalculable benefit and value to Oregon.

Other representatives of the state chamber will visit Cottage Grove later and complete organization work for the state-wide movement.

CHAUTAUQUA STARTS WEEK FROM THIS FRIDAY

Lecturers, Musicians and Entertainers of National Prominence Are on Six Day Program.

Cottage Grove's chautauqua under the Ellison White system opens next Friday in the big top which will be erected on the high school campus and continues for six days with daily afternoon and evening performances.

The program contains the names of lecturers and entertainers of national prominence. Dr. Ng Poon Chew, the Chinese Mark Twain, will explain oriental problems in their relation to the Pacific coast. President James A. Burns, of Onondaga Institute, will tell one of the greatest stories of achievement ever told; Kate Upson Clark, brilliant editor and author, will give her message on "The Mother of the Future"; Sam Grathwell, self-made man, will tell how to get by your hoodoo; Captain T. Dinmore Upton, recognized authority on recreation, will give his inspirational lecture on the girl and boy problem; Evelyn Bergelt, of the Chicago Art Institute, will give a notable lecture with cartoon accompaniment.

In the musical companies are the New York Artist Trio; May Elizabeth Rees, the violinist; Ruth Beverly Cumming, soprano; Lowell Patton, pianist; The Morrison Girls; Taylor's Singing Band; J. Walter Wilson, musical entertainer, and the Royal Philippine Sextet. Other numbers are Tom Corwin, fun maker, and Pauline Lucile Mayo, dramatic reader, who will present "Pollyanna."

BAND IS APPRECIATIVE OF SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR SUPPORT

The members of the band wish to express to the business men of Cottage Grove their appreciation of the recent substantial subscription taken up for the support of the band. In turning the money over to the band, C. A. Bartell, who collected the money, accompanied the check with a letter containing the following pertinent questions:

"What is a city without a band?"
"What is a city without a baseball club?"
"What is a city without a commercial club?"

The complete list of subscriptions will be published next week.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM IS WINNING EVERY GAME

Cottage Grove high defeated Roseburg high on the local diamond Wednesday afternoon by a score of 13 to 10. This is the second game won from Roseburg, the first having been played at Roseburg last Friday, the score of which was 7 to 6.

Albany high will be here this afternoon. The home team has won every game this season, two having been on foreign territory.

John Gray Dies at Salem

Salem Statesman: The funeral of John Gray, who died Saturday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. M. Gregory, 1730 Fairmont avenue, was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bigdon chapel. Rev. W. C. Kantner conducted the service. Burial was in City View cemetery.

Mr. Gray came to Salem only a week ago from Cottage Grove where he formerly made his home for years and suddenly became ill Sunday morning. He was 75 years old.

Cottage Grove to Yoncalla Sunday

Cottage Grove will play a return game at Yoncalla Sunday. Two weeks from Sunday a game will be played with Albany. Eugene may play a second game here a week from Sunday.

There's hardly anything a Sentinel wanted won't do, but if one doesn't do it, try two.

FOUR OUNCE EGG STARTS ANNUAL SPRING BIG EGG CONTEST

The annual spring biggest egg contest is on. The first contribution is a production by a Rhode Island Red birdy owned by Fred Saltsman. The egg weighs four ounces, and measures 6 1/4 by 7 1/4 inches. It was laid at one sitting.

Moonshiner Pays $150

M. F. Green, arrested last week on a charge of conducting a moonshine still, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $150. Mr. Green said that he has a wife in California who is in bad health and that in order to obtain money enough to keep her there, as she is unable to live in this climate, he was compelled to resort to something to make more than his wages in the snow mill brought him, and took to moonshining some time ago.

Federal Authorities After Moonshiners

Deputy United States Marshal Tichenor was in the city Tuesday in connection with the recent moonshine cases here, which probably will be taken up for action by the federal authorities.

MARCOLA GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT 14 TO 0

Game Not as Loose as Score Indicates; Visitors Are Simply Outclassed and Outplayed.

The baseball game here Sunday with Marcola was a slaughter of the innocents, the score being 14 to 0. At that the visitors didn't play a bad game and at no time did they go to pieces despite the way Cottage Grove batted the horsehide around. They were simply steadily outplayed.

The way Marcola started hitting Cella in the first inning made the fans sit up and take notice but only once afterward did they have any chance to score.

The score by innings:
Cottage Grove...4 2 1 0 3 1 0 3
Batteries: Marcola, L. Yockey, Dil- large and S. Yockey. Cottage Grove, Cella, Baker and King, Stewart.

Struck out by Dillarge, 4; by Yockey, 1; by Cella, 5; by Baker, 4.
Bases on balls, off Dillarge, 2.
Two-base hits: Smith, Arthur (2), Cella.

Umpires: Snodgrass and Yockey.

Diamond Dust

Cottage Grove's battery had as much fun as a cat teasing a mouse. After getting two down, Cella, who did not claim to be in the heat of form, eased 'em over where the visitors could slam 'em out and give the fielders something to do. Baker, who went in in the sixth, threw exactly four pitched balls in that inning.

Despite the inequality of the score, the game was not as loose as the score would indicate. The visitors issued only two free tickets to the initial sack. Both of these were issued to King, who believes in always looking 'em over, which accounts for his lack of hits in the box score. He scored on one of these and would have scored on the other except for the fact that he took too easy a gait on the final lap.

Cottage Grove got 14 hits and the same number of scores.

Only three batters faced Baker in the seventh. All of 'em merely agitated the salubrious ozone.

In the fourth, Marcola retired them one, two, three, at first, the second sacker fielding all three balls.

Things came so easy that Cottage Grove rearranged its line-up during the game, Cella retiring to Baker's place in right field and giving the box to Riker. King, who has never played with the locals in any other position than behind the bat, changed off with Stewart, who holds down the third sack.

Stewart has credit for the only clean home run on the local grounds this year. He eased one over the fence.

Marcola's second sacker fumbled a certain double play in the eighth, the error netting three scores for the locals.

Mrs. Rena Edwards Dies

Mrs. Rena Edwards, for many years a resident of Cottage Grove, died Monday in San Francisco. Herman Edwards, a son, has gone to San Francisco to accompany the body here. The funeral will be private, with interment in the D. G. McFarland cemetery. Warren Edwards, another son, arrived Wednesday from Eugene, where both are attending the university, and will remain until after the funeral.

Mescher Sawmill Sold

H. C. Davidson, of Hood River, has bought the P. F. Mescher sawmill at Curfin, together with the logs and timber owned by Walter Skidmore, and will continue for two weeks.

S. K. LEWIS, E. K. TURPIN DIE ON SAME DAY

Death Takes Mr. Lewis While He Is at Dinner Table; Mr. Turpin Succumbs to Cancer.

S. K. Lewis and E. K. Turpin died yesterday.

Mr. Lewis was suffering from brights disease and had suffered a stroke of paralysis a short time ago. A choking spell came on while he was at the dinner table and death resulted. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday from the chapel, Rev. Kelloms officiating.

Mr. Lewis was born in Polk county and was 61 years of age last month. He was in the merchandise business at Yoncalla for several years but had been a resident here for a number of years, having a ranch east of the city. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World lodge and prominent in grange affairs. He is survived by the widow, three brothers and a sister. One brother, James, made his home with his brother.

E. K. Turpin's death resulted from cancer, with which he had long been a sufferer. He was born in Missouri December 27, 1852, crossed the plains with his family when a little child and settled in California. He settled in 1864 in the Coast fork valley here, where he married Miss Emma Lackey, who survives. One son, Winnifred M., lives at home and another son, Lester L., lives in California. Mr. Turpin made the arrangements for the funeral which will be held at 10:30 Saturday forenoon from the Mills chapel. Rev. S. B. Kern will officiate, the music will be by the choir of the Christian church and interment will be in the Lane cemetery.

OLD COPY OF OF BOHEMIA NUGGET COMES TO LIGHT

The Sentinel is indebted to Mrs. Geo. H. Young for a copy of The Bohemia Nugget dated July 7, 1899, nearly 21 years ago. The paper was addressed to Johnston Taylor, former husband of Mrs. Young, who died quite a number of years ago. Among advertisers in this issue who are still residents here or in the county are Mrs. Pet Sanford, dressmaker; J. E. Young, attorney-at-law; Mrs. C. E. Jones, dressmaker; Eakin & Bristow; Benson Drug company; A. F. Howard; F. B. Phillips, hardware; J. S. Medley, attorney.

Alf. Walker carries an ad. for Wm. Renshaw's place, where the thirsty were assured that wet goods were on tap.

The Bon Ton and The Elite were in existence then, as they are now, but at that time the Bon Ton was a meat market, of which W. H. Beagle was manager, and The Elite was a barber shop, of which G. E. Griffith was proprietor.

In that issue appeared the homestead notices of John Gray and George Layng. John Gray probably was the one who has just died. Mr. Layng's homestead was near Rajada.

In the news items, W. W. McFarland appears as one of the principals in a lively boxing match; in the Fourth of sports program C. W. Jackson won the bicycle race and Duke Knox and James Potts won most of the athletic prizes; Al Churchill was down to the celebration and caught 75 trout on the way in. C. J. Howard was the editor.

COTTAGE GROVE WOULD PAY $1959 AND WOULD GET $2880

The statement has been repeatedly made by those supporting the proposed elementary school tax that it would produce for many districts more than those districts would pay in taxes under the levy. Figures compiled by H. D. Sheldon and County Superintendent Moore show that under this tax the Cottage Grove school district would pay $1959 in taxes and the return to the district would be $2880.

ELECTION RETURNS GIVEN OUT BY SENTINEL TONIGHT

Today is primary and special election day. The Sentinel office will be open all night receiving the returns, and information will be given any who telephone for it. No definite returns will be available before 10 o'clock. Complete returns for Cottage Grove and surrounding country will be posted in The Sentinel window Saturday forenoon.

High School Burns Note

The financial administration of the high school for the past year has been so successful that the student body has cleaned up a note for $200 which it gave at the beginning of the year to cover current expenses and pay off a debt left from the previous year. The note, which was endorsed by a number of the business men of the city, was publicly burned on the campus at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Free Methodist Conference in Session

The conference of the Free Methodist church of southern Oregon opened in the Baptist church Wednesday afternoon, Bishop Warner presiding, and will continue for two weeks.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN DIE ON SAME DAY

Mrs. Ora Davis Succumbs to Erysipelas; Death of Mrs. Glen Cooper Is Sudden.

Deaths of those in younger years is not common in the Cottage Grove country and it is an unusual coincidence that the death of two young married women occurred Friday morning of last week.

Mrs. (Ruby) Ora Davis died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Percy Rogers, after suffering painfully for a week or more with erysipelas. She was 25 years of age and was born in the silk creek country, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Single, still live. She graduated from Cottage Grove high and married Mr. Davis about six years ago, making her home at Lorane. Besides the husband and parents, two little daughters survive.

Mrs. (Mary) Glenn W. Cooper, aged 21 years, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dwyre, on Wheeler avenue. Mrs. Cooper had not been well since the arrival of a little one two months ago but was able to be down town the day before her death and was thought to be well on the way to recovery. Apoplexy was the immediate cause of death. The funeral was held Sunday forenoon from the Mills chapel, Elder Rippey, of Sutherland, of the Seventh-day Adventist church, officiating. The husband and little babe and parents survive.

COTTAGE GROVE EXAMPLE FOR CITY OF ROSEBURG

In a letter in Monday's Roseburg News-Review appeared a letter from S. C. Bartram, who is well-known here, urging support of the proposed bond issue for an aviation field. In that letter Mr. Bartram pointed to Cottage Grove as a live city and held it up to Roseburg as an example to pattern after. Among other things, the letter said:

"Cottage Grove, with less than 2500 people, supports some 15 sawmills, with a payroll of approximately $150,000 the month. Any one of these large mills would put Roseburg on the map. ... Eugene got the patrol base because she was ready for it. Cottage Grove proposes to purchase a field at a cost of more than $20,000, and yet that city is less than 25 miles from Eugene."

Mr. Bartram evidently intends to give this city some reputation to live up to.

HAVE FOR THIRTY-ONE YEARS BEEN ENGAGED IN EDUCATING YOUNG

For thirty-one years Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lamson, of this city, have been sending their own or other children to school, which probably is a record that will prove hard to beat.

Before their own two children had completed their schooling, they took their grandson, Francis Lacey, to make his home with them. He graduates this year and this probably will complete the efforts of Mr. and Mrs. Lamson to help the young to get an education.

During the time their own children and grandson were getting an education they had with them for two years a boy whose mother had died, and for the greater part of the past twelve years they have had boarding or rooming with them young people who were attending school.

M. H. ANDERSON DOUBTFUL WHETHER TO COLLECT OR PAY DAMAGES

M. H. Anderson is not certain whether he has a claim against the Oregon Pacific & Eastern railway, or whether the railway has a claim against him. One day last week one of Mr. Anderson's employes, who was hauling timbers to a loading station a short distance outside of the city limits, was using the railway's roadbed as a kind of relay dumping ground. One timber would be brought onto the track, then the team would return for a second timber, bring it alongside the first, hitch onto it and take both to the loading station.

While the train was backing into the city from the "Y" it ran into one of these timbers and one of the cars coupled behind the engine was derailed, landing on top of a "pick-up" engine which Mr. Anderson had installed for logging purposes.

Mr. Anderson is in doubt as to whether the railway has a case against him for the expense incurred by reason of one of his employes leaving an obstruction upon the track, or whether he has a case because the railway did not give notice that its trains were running at a speed that would enable them to overtake a stationary object, thereby resulting in serious damage to one of his timbers as well as to his loading engine.

CONVINCING SPEECHES FOR COUNTY ROAD BONDS

E. J. Adams Says Work Should Not Be Carried Forward Against Judgment of County Court.

Most convincing talks in favor of the proposed two-million-dollar road bond issue were made at a public meeting held here Monday evening, which E. J. Adams, C. M. Stevens and Dr. T. W. Harris, all of Eugene, were the principal speakers.

Mr. Adams said in part: "The opposition has but few legitimate arguments. The most potent of these is that these are abnormal times when it is unwise to start big projects, when full value can not be secured from the money paid for materials and for labor and when industry may be disturbed by taking labor for a big road program. This argument is good, but need not interfere with the putting through of the road bond issue. The county court is not compelled to spend this money at any particular time. If, in its opinion, the time is such that carrying out the program is unwise, it should not sell these bonds, and should not build the roads.

The adopting of the bond issue means that the county has adopted a definite road program, that money spent upon roads designated in the resolution of the court will be placed upon permanent roads. The court can go ahead making its plans for years ahead and will know that money will sometime be available to complete the work. If conditions return to normal next year, or the next, if labor needs employment, or if prices for materials become such that it is wise to go ahead with the program, the court will be in a position to do so. We should not imitate the Arkansas traveler and wait until the time to do the work is here before preparing to do that work. The bond issue will simply place the county court in a position to lay its plans to carry forward a definite, certain road program at such times as it sees fit and deems wise to do so.

"The building of the roads laid out in the program will so greatly increase the taxable wealth of the county that I make the prediction that as a matter of fact it will not cost anyone now living here an extra penny of tax to pay off the bonds."

C. M. Stevens explained what he characterized as the impractical and impossible proposition of attempting to carry out a definite road program under present laws and explained in detail the laws which hedge about a direct tax in such a manner that nothing but dissatisfaction can result. He explained that under a direct tax 70 per cent of the money thus raised must go back to the districts in which it is raised, thus giving Cottage Grove, Eugene, and other large cities a large amount of money which they would have no use for, while the country districts needing the money do not get enough to carry on any kind of a definite, comprehensive program.

Dr. Harris confirmed his remarks to a "pat" explanation of how a certain farmer of the early days paid in a single year a $1200 mud tax without knowing it.

A. W. Dugan, candidate for county judge, also a member of the party and a bond booster, spoke briefly.

None of the speakers referred to the proposition recently taken up by the granges of the county to issue bonds payable the next year after issuance, a method that would get around returning 70 per cent to the districts in which the money was raised.

The band gave several numbers on the street to attract the crowd. There was a representative attendance, of which a number were from the county districts.

C. G. DISTRICT IS SELECTED FOR SIGNAL HONOR

Only School in Lane County Which Will Be Given an Instructor Under Federal Act.

Cottage Grove has been selected by the Oregon Agricultural college to come under the provisions of the Smith-Hughes act, which gives the school federal and additional state aid. This city was selected over Eugene and other cities of the county because it offers the best opportunity for carrying on the work contemplated under the act. It is the only school district in the county which will be distinguished at the present time. The agricultural college has supervision of the work in the state under the Smith-Hughes act and makes the selection of the school districts which will be offered an opportunity to come under it.

E. J. Edwards, of Douglas county, has been assigned to this district by the college. He will arrive here July 1 to take up his work and arrange summer projects. The course will be maintained 12 months of the year. Mr. Edwards, in addition to acting as instructor in agriculture, will teach one high school subject. His salary will be $1800, of which $600 will be paid by the federal government and $600 by the state.

Students will be allowed credits towards graduation and a number have already been assigned to summer projects. This course is expected to draw many students from neighboring districts and it is thought that the part of the salary to be paid by the local school district will be largely made up by tuition fees.

Miss Maud Lamson, who is teaching at Marshfield, has accepted the position of domestic science and arts instructor here for next year.

WESTERN OREGON BEAUTY IS REAL EYE-OPENER

Ad. Club Caravan, On to Stockton, Is Piloted Through City and Stops Briefly.

The Northwest Ad club's "On to Stockton" caravan passed through here Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. The caravan was made north of the city by a car from the commercial club, which piloted the party through the city. Before leaving the city the caravan made a brief stop while members of the commercial club party visited with Governor Olcott, who was in the lead car, with President Strandborg, of the Portland Ad. club, and other members of the party.

The caravan was made up of the Pacific Northwest Tourist association, a member of the party, said that the trip through Oregon had been an eye-opener to him, despite the fact that it is his business to know what the state has to offer tourists, and that other members of the party are more than enthusiastic over the beauty and charm of a motor trip through western Oregon.

CAR DRIVERS MUST HAVE LICENSES AFTER JULY 1

More than 300,000 drivers of motor vehicles in Oregon are expected to register on or before July 1 under the act passed at the last session of the legislature providing for licensing operators or drivers of these conveyances.

The law provides that no person under 16 years of age shall operate a motor vehicle on the highways of the state. It also stipulates that no person physically defective shall drive an automobile or motorcycle except by special permit issued by the secretary of state.

The registration fee is 25 cents and the license is perpetual. License cards are now being printed, and it is expected that applications under the law will begin to reach the secretary of state's office this month.

COMMERCIAL CLUBS CAN NOT HOLD SESSION HERE

M. H. Anderson returned yesterday morning from attending a meeting of commercial club officers of the state at Portland. He represented the commercial club of this city. He issued an invitation for the holding of the next meeting here, but the invitation was not accepted due to the fact that it is difficult to get a large attendance except at a central point, and the next meeting will be held in Portland.

M. H. ANDERSON CHAIRMAN SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

Cottage Grove has organized for carrying forward the Salvation Army drive in this city during the early part of June. The local executive committee appointed by the county committee has selected M. H. Anderson as local chairman, W. J. White as secretary, and C. J. Kern as treasurer.

Cottage Grove's quota will be no over $900.

F. C. Coffman Is Honored

F. C. Coffman, of this city, who is attending the W. O. W. convention at Marshfield, has been honored by election as one of the four delegates from this district to the head camp session which will be held in California.
