

ELKHORN KRAFT CHEESE

FOR YOUR SANDWICHES
THE CHEESE OF CREAMY RICHNESS
PIMENTO, CHILI AND PLAIN
TWENTY CENTS THE CAN
KERR & SILSBY

Good Taste

demand a style of mounting or frame that will conform to the features of the individual.

We have a large and varied assortment of mountings and frames from which to select those that are best suited to the lines of your face.

If it's anything optical, you will be pleased with what we have to offer.

You are privileged to call and inspect our methods any time.

D. J. Scholl
OPTICIAN OPTOMETRIST
Factory on Premises
Cottage Grove Oregon

Tales of the Town

Mrs. E. A. Cottle spent the week end at Creswell with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sly.

Mrs. Sam Nazor and son Orrin, of Eugene, spent Friday and Saturday with Mrs. Nazor's mother, Mrs. Ella Wilson.

Look for Nelson's new ad. m21c
Mrs. R. W. Davis returned Saturday to her home at Yoncalla, after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chestnut.

Mrs. Frank Turner and daughter, Miss Julia, returned Friday from their visit in Missouri. They were accompanied by Mrs. Turner's nephew, John Gobel, of Rolla, Mo.

S. C. White Leghorn Chicks

I have 500 extra chicks for May 27. 10 per cent discount on all orders for that date. May chicks cost less, need less heat, and can be raised cheaper than any other chicks. Will lay in November. Try them.

Bert V. Hands
Cottage Grove Oregon

Chickens, hogs, veal and cattle wanted at the People's market. mh10fc

Mrs. Jephtha Hart was called to Salem Saturday by the illness of her son, Harry Mitchell.

Miss Margaret Galloway spent Friday night in Eugene.

Miss Beulah Brumfield spent the week end in Eugene with her sister, Miss Ruby.

The City Bakery has reopened and Mr. Bender says he will turn out the same high quality product as before and is ready to serve all former and future customers with the best in the baking line. m21ff

W. P. Rauch, of Portland, spent several days of the past week visiting W. J. White.

F. C. Cuffman, Lou McKibben and Lester Brant are attending the district convention of the W. O. W. lodge at Marshfield.

Raymond Vench is home from O. A. C. for the remainder of the term, illness having interfered with his work.

When you get rheumatiz, or gallstones, or a wheeze, or feel generally done up, you go to see a doctor and have him fix the machinery up so it will run smoothly again. When your car gets the rheumatiz, or gallstones, or the heavens, you should take it to once to the Service Garage for medical attention. Don't let it run until its lungs are shot and it is beyond hope. Spray, Long & Cruson, Studebaker agents. m21fc

W. J. White was in Portland Friday and Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harrel spent the week end in Eugene.

Waldo Miller is recovering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

C. G. Vulcanizing Works. E. J. Howe, vulcanizing, retreading. m21fc

Claud Kime and Roy Romaine motored up from Portland Friday, returning Sunday. Mrs. Romaine, who was already here, remained to act as cashier at the Wynne & Kime sale.

Mrs. Leslie Engram and Miss Marlene Hooper, accompanied by Mrs. Engram's brother-in-law, Ralph Engram, of Redding, Calif., who was visiting here, visited in Eugene Saturday.

Nelson has used Fords from $250 up. Come in and look them over. m21c
Mrs. M. G. Dunn, of Roseburg, visited during the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allen, of Yoncalla, visited several days of the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott.

The total of your repair bill will be smaller and the life of your car will be longer, if you keep your car running smoothly all the time. Little knocks soon develop into big ones and what might have been a few minutes' job in the first place soon becomes a big one. At the first sign of trouble run your bus into Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage, and while there take a look at the Studebaker model.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Husby, of Silverton, visited during the past week at the F. T. Burdick home.
S. R. Brand returned Saturday from an outing at McCredie springs.

Mrs. Carrie Oumpugh and Ella Applewhite, of Portland, visited during the past week at the Shelby Churchill home.

Insure your car against fire and theft. You would not let any other property of equal value go unprotected. Why take any chances with your car when the cost of protection is so low? Kenneth McKeonolds, at Sixth Street Garage.

Mrs. G. M. Hall spent the week end in Corvallis with her son and daughter, George and Miss Hildred.

Mrs. Darby's class of the Methodist Sunday school will hold a candy sale Saturday in front of Wynne & Kime's store.

Get Bender's bread at Bender's bakery. Reopened and ready for business. m21ff

Frank Kelly and Stanley Damewood returned Saturday from Washington, where they had been employed.

Superintendent and Mrs. W. G. Beattie spent the week end in Eugene.

Mrs. A. A. Austin, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Roberts, returned Friday to her home in Aberdeen, Wash.

Service, service, Service Garage, Spray, Long & Cruson, Studebaker agents. m21fc

Miss Margaret Hemenway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway, spent the week end in Eugene at the home of her grandfather, Daniel Read.

Mrs. O. H. Heine spent the week end in Eugene.

George Boyd has bought the Rinehart place east of the city.

E. A. Dorff, of Fountain, Wash., has bought the Mrs. Mary Ishmael ranch east of the city.

Jitney service at the Service Garage, Spray, Long & Cruson. Phone 76 for real service. j30tfc

M. H. Anderson left Sunday for Pendleton to represent the commercial club at a meeting there of commercial club officers.

Miss Violet Crowe and nephew, Donald Magee, who had been visiting relatives here, returned to Salem Sunday.

Did you know that Nelson sells some of the best makes of tires on earth?

Mrs. Wm. George visited Sunday in Eugene with her daughter, Mrs. Christine Phillips, who is in a hospital there.

Mrs. J. S. Benson and Miss Lillie Leonard visited in Eugene Saturday.

Yes, Spray pays as much for eggs right at your door as anyone in Cottage Grove. Yes, and delivers your feed as cheap as you can buy it in town. Phone 125-Y. mh19ff

A daughter was born Monday at the Portland sanitarium to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodruff, until recently residents of this city.

TO THE PUBLIC

If you want home-killed meats try PEOPLE'S MEAT MARKET

We also carry a full supply of lard, compounds, crisco, vegetable, hams, bacon, corn beef, wieners, bologna, and all kinds of lunch meats. Oleo-margarine, Nason, Gem Nut and Uneco.

FRESH FISH ON FRIDAYS
FREE DELIVERY PHONE 15

C. E. Stewart was in Eugene Friday night on business.

WANTED—UNIMPROVED TRACT OF 10 TO 30 ACRES, ADJOINING OR NEAR COTTAGE GROVE. SEND LOCATION, BRIEF DESCRIPTION AND LOWEST PRICE (HALF OR MORE CASH) IN FIRST LETTER. ADDRESS: R. V. HEATON, ENTERPRISE, ORE.

Mrs. Henry (Flora) McKinley arrived this week from Tillamook for a visit of a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Phillips, and other relatives.

Delbert Rouse was in Eugene over Friday night.

Our family wash service makes this unnecessary. Try us by sending us your BLANKETS, QUILTS, etc., that need cleaning NOW. Moderate rates.

The COTTAGE GROVE LAUNDRY
Ring Us Up Phone 79

Keep plenty of water in your batteries. We furnish that free and when the battery needs recharging you won't have a big repair bill. If anything does go wrong, take this free advice and have it looked after by the experts at Spray, Long & Cruson's Service Garage, Studebaker agents. m21fc
Mr. and Mrs. Worth Harvey, Mrs. Joe Landess, Miss Esther Silsby and Mrs. H. H. Vench motored to Corvallis Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with relatives and friends.

Elbridge Durlinger, of Eugene, was in the city Tuesday making arrangements to start a summer class here in piano and harmony.

Bring in your adjustment on tires. We will treat you square with any make of tire. Nelson's Auto Sales & Service. m21c

Auctioneer!!!!

Will sell your household furniture, stock, implements and machinery, and tools of all kinds; 5% up to the first $2000 and 3% for all over.

C. O. DeVERE
406 Main Ave. Cottage Grove

Miss Susan Camp went to Salem Tuesday to visit at the Perry Hubbard home.

Mrs. W. N. McLaughlin went to Portland Tuesday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thos. Window.

Bender's best, the bread you should eat. A home-made product. m21ff

Mrs. A. S. Powell and Mrs. H. H. Vench were Eugene visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Garoutte are moving to Leona, where Mr. Garoutte is superintendent for the Leona Mills company.

You never miss the water till the well runs dry. You can always get life insurance until something happens that physically disqualifies you and you can get fire insurance as long as the property is not destroyed—also you can get it now while the getting is good. Better talk with Metcalf. m7-28e

Mrs. Wm. Garoutte, Mrs. Earl Garoutte and Miss Edna Johnson were Eugene visitors Wednesday.

J. S. Benson is home from Wolf Creek for a few days.

Notice is hereby given that the service of my male animal is discontinued entirely except by special request. Fee $2.50 must accompany service. H. F. Brogdon. m21pd

Dan and Miss Lindley Welsh, of Kelso, Wash., who had been attending junior week end at the University of Oregon, making the trip there by motor, arrived here Monday and spent the night at the home of their grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Woods. Mrs. Welsh arrived the same evening by train and all returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Ella Thompson, who recently visited her brother, Richard White, who is at the state hospital, and who has been seriously ill, reports that he is now on the mend and may be home shortly.

The class in home nursing which has been conducted in this city for the past month under the direction of the Red Cross, has completed the course. It is planned to form another class for the fall and winter work.

Mrs. J. P. Godard, accompanied by her two small sons, went to Portland Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Laura Holcomb.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Small were in Eugene Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Jack Allison and son Jack arrived Wednesday from Albany for a visit with relatives.

Misses Essie and Winnifred Fair, who taught at London and Dayton, left Wednesday for a visit at Reedsport. Both will teach at Dorena next year.

A carload of Overland touring cars arrived here yesterday for the Auto Electric & Tire shop.

Mrs. Myrtle Mills, of Salem, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Boyd.

J. K. Pratt and Marion Vench were up from Eugene Wednesday selecting a committee to put over the Salvation Army drive.

J. E. Redford, of Dorena, was in Eugene Wednesday.

County Commissioner and Mrs. E. R. Spencer were up from Eugene yesterday. They remained over to cast their votes.

John E. Edwards, democratic candidate for sheriff, was in the city Wednesday lining up support for the general election in November. He has no opposition in the primaries.

Mrs. Jack Lewis and daughter Millie went to Harrisburg yesterday to visit Mrs. Lewis' father-in-law, J. B. Lewis, who is quite ill.

Mrs. J. Sams, accompanied by her son Kermit, went to Roseburg yesterday to visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Telford.

Mrs. Mary Robinson visited in Eugene yesterday.

Curtis Parker was up from Springfield Sunday. Mrs. Parker and child, who had been visiting here, returned with him.

Mrs. Lulu Crandall, of The Dalles, cousin of Mrs. K. K. Mills, visited at the Mills home over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Mills motoring to Brownsville with her Monday. Mrs. Crandall is state president of the Degree of Honor.

Alfred Beidler has undergone an operation for appendicitis and is getting along nicely. He is at a Eugene hospital.

The W. H. Blair residence on Washington avenue is undergoing extensive repairs.

Biley Snodgrass and family were up from Springfield Sunday.

Emil George, who has been ill in a state hospital at Salem, is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. George.

Miss Martha Johnson spent the week end in Eugene.

Mrs. Leon DesLarzes' vocal class, assisted by the Methodist choir, will give the comic operetta, "Trial by Jury," in the near future.

Mrs. J. P. Layng, of Pocatello, Ida., who had been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, George Layng, returned home Monday.

F. A. Garetson left Tuesday for an extended visit in California.

S. V. Allison is spending a month at Belknap springs for the benefit of rheumatism.

Miss Doris Harding was home from her school over the week end.

Grover Marksbury is home this week from an outing at McCredie springs.

C. E. Jones spent Sunday in Roseburg at the home of his daughter, Mrs. R. E. Bellows, where Mrs. Jones is spending a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Purvance arrived Monday from Metlakatla, Alaska, to spend a month. Mr. Purvance is an instructor in the government schools.

Mrs. Ipha Knox and little daughter left Monday for a visit in Salem.

Mrs. M. J. Morris, who had been visiting at the Judson Allen home, returned to her home at Salem Monday.

Miss Ruth Phelps and Miss Grace Harding were home from Monmouth over the week end.

SOCIETY

The LaComus club met Tuesday with Mrs. W. P. Hall, enjoying a pleasant social afternoon, after which refreshments were served. Guests of the club were Mrs. S. M. Wendt, Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mrs. Roy Romaine.

The girl scouts of the high school will give a hard times party tonight in the high school gym room.

Frankie Snodgrass entertained a few of his schoolmates Monday evening at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. P. Garoutte.

Mrs. J. W. Buckley entertained the Social Twelve club yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with the usual fancy work and refreshments were served. Guests of the club were Mrs. J. T. Johnson, Miss Huey and Miss Silsby.

E. D. Handy, who is employed at the Pallett Lumber company, was pleasantly surprised Friday evening, when a number of friends gathered at a party in the cook house in honor of his seventy-third birthday anniversary. Other of the company's employes present who are no longer spring chickens

If You Want to Taste Real Peanut Butter Get a Can of

ROGERS' "SCHOOL BOY PEANUT BUTTER"

Far Superior to the Common Kind
No. 1 Tin . . . 40c No. 2 Tin . . . 90c

A. Brund & Co.

were George Wilson, aged 65; James Groom, 64; Daniel Dugan, 58; Virgil White, 51; Jasper Patten, 68; Ed. Pooler, 53; William Abbott, 60. Women present were Mrs. Frona Whitehouse, Mrs. George Wilson and Miss Ola Williams.

Miss Bonita Beuger entertained about twenty of her friends Saturday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ima Beuger.

Children's night was observed at the regular meeting of the Eastern Star Friday. A number of children of members entertained with a program and a number of the members added to the merriment of the occasion with their juvenile raiment.

Mrs. E. G. O. Grant and Miss Bertha Cox, sisters, celebrated their birthday anniversaries Tuesday evening with a dinner at the Grant home.

The woman's missionary society of the Christian church met with Mrs. F. B. VanNortwick Thursday of last week. An interesting program was followed by a social hour and refreshments.

Announcement

Elbridge Durlinger, of the Durlinger Music Studio, of Eugene, will conduct a summer class in Piano and Harmony in Cottage Grove one day of each week. For particulars, call phone 102-L. High school students accredited in music.

Soft Light—Not Dim Light

To have plenty of light without unnecessary brightness use

National White Mazda Lamps

The tipless, white-glass bulb softens the light without dimming it. The ideal lamp for the home. Five in a Blue Convenience Carton.

W. L. DARBY & CO.

Just Think—9 Dozen Fountain Pens!

With nine dozen fountain pens of the highest grade, which you will find in our stock, you have a selection in which you will be able to find a pen which will exactly balance in your hand. The stock which we have is by far the largest and best which has ever come to Cottage Grove. A fountain pen makes a fine present for graduation or for a birthday.

The White Pharmacy

Wanted, Eggs, Mohair, Veal Hides and Chittem Bark. Store open Saturday evening.

JONES & EATON
PHONE 3

Saturday Specials MAY 22

SUGAR—20c lb., 5 lbs. to each customer with other groceries.
BEANS—White, good for seed or table use, lb. 9c.
SOAP—15 bars Liberty white laundry, 2 bars toilet soap, $1.
TOBACCO—7 cans of Prince Albert for $1.
FLOUR—We can still save you money on flour. Get our prices on barrel lots.
SYRUP—Syrups are advancing; we have a good variety of brands.
SPUDS—Nice spuds, per lb. 8c.

SMITH'S GROCERY
Walk a Block and Save a Dime