DR. SUTCLIFFE, DIVINE AND LECTURER, DIES HERE

End Comes Following Notable Public Career as Pastor and Member Chautauqua Talent.

Dr. Robert Sutcliffe, noted chautauqua lecturer and divine, died at his home here Monday noon. The funeral was held Wednesday forenoon from the chapel. The local Masonic lodge, of which he was a member, had charge of the services. Several hymns which Dr. Sutcliffe had himself selected were sung and the scripture reading and form of the service were also of his selection. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes.

Robert Sutcliffe was born in Exhilt, Yorkshire, England, September 21, 1868, and was 51 years of age. He came to Canada in 1890, marrying Miss Bessie Lewis in Prince Edward Island in 1891 and coming to the United States in 1893. For 15 years he was pastor of Methodist churches in Maine. He came to Oregon in 1909, remaining a few months in Yamhill county and being sent to Cottage Grove in the fall of that year. He served the church here for three years, going from here to Lebanon for two years. He joined the Ellison-White Chautauqua talent while a resident there. As a result of his visit to Idaho Falls, Idaho, in his chautauqua work he was called to that place to accept the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of which faith he had become a member. In 1915 he again joined the Ellison-White talent, traveling over nearly every section of the United States and Canada and proving one of the most popular lecturers with the Ellison-White system. On account of ill health he gave up his chautauqua contract last fall and since then had made his home here, where he had a beautiful home and orchard which he had only recently disposed of. For many months he knew that there was no hope for his recovery, carcinoma being the cause of death.

Dr. Sutcliffe, during his ministry here, was probably the most popular pastor the city has ever had, that popularity being attested by the large audiences which attended his services. The Ellison-White people valued his services highly.

Besides his Masonic connection here, Dr. Sutcliffe was a member of the Elks and W. O. W. lodges at Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Surviving relatives are the widow; the mother, Mrs. May Sutcliffe, who made her home for years with her son, and the following children: Mrs. Elmer (Armour) Munson, of Portland, and Robert, of this city, who is the thirteenth successive oldest male child to bear the name. A brother, Walter, lives in Maine. The son had just reached Dr. Drain with the Ellison-White system when he received word of his father's death.

MUCH ROAD WORK BEING DONE NEAR HERE

Scarfier Works on Row River, London and Silk Creek Highways; Rock Crusher Starts.

Road work is well under way in this section.

A county road crew has just completed scarfing the Row river road from the steel bridge to Row River. Scarfing is now in progress on the London road between the Boyd hill and the Rouse bridge. A county rock crusher on the Bud Thorne place will start work Monday and the piling of rock on the London road will commence immediately. From the London road the scarfier will go onto the Silk creek road. Grading on the Delight Valley detour road between the steel bridge and the F. B. Phillips place has been completed.

A crew from the state highway department has resumed work on Pacific highway at Divide and this piece of work will be completed this year. The highway at this point was in a deplorable and almost impassable condition during the past winter.

SHEEP HERE DOING THEIR PART TO HIT OLD HI COST O' LIVING

If the high cost of clothing isn't reduced it will not be the fault of the sheep in the Cottage Grove country. The fleece of one Cotswold yearling lamb just sheared by Ed. Conner weighed 22 1/2 pounds. A 12 or 14 pound fleece is considered a good one. Some of the wool from this fleece measured 16 inches in length.

STATE COMMISSION IS AFTER GAME VIOLATORS

The state game commission evidently is determined to stamp out dogging deer. Having received continued complaints that deer were being chased by dogs in this section, Mr. Brown, chief deputy from the Portland office, and E. S. Hawker, special deputy from Eugene, were here several days during the past week. Officers of the commission made another visit here only a short time before.

YONCALLA IS DEFEATED AGAIN BY C. G. CHAMPS

Cottage Grove continued its unbroken string of victories by taking Yoncalla into camp Sunday on the latter team's grounds. The score by innings was as follows: Cottage Grove.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 3 24-7 Yoncalla.....1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0-2 Quite a number from here accompanied the home team.

TEXAN INFORMED COTTAGE GROVE WANTS PRAIRIE DOGS FOR PETS

Some practical joker from the Web-foot state must have been stringing the gullible denizens of the Lone Star state. The commercial club has received a communication from Burnia Reid, of Stamford, Texas, saying that he has been informed by a resident of this state that prairie dogs are in great demand here as household pets and bring fancy prices among Cottage Grove's "400." The writer says he has several pairs which he is willing to dispose of on favorable terms. No far the commercial club has been unable to learn of any crying demand for pets of this kind and has been unable to find anyone willing to part with any great quantity of filthy lucre in exchange for the cute little animals which the Texan inquirer recommends so highly as household companions.

DECORATION DAY WILL BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

Forenoon Parade Starts From Bank Corner at 10 o'Clock; Orations at 1:30 in Afternoon.

The annual Decoration day exercises will be conducted Sunday under the auspices of Appomattox post, G. A. R. The parade to the cemetery will start at the bank corner at 10 o'clock. The old soldiers expect citizens of the city to furnish cars to convey them to the cemetery, where the usual Decoration day ceremonies will be held. The American Legion, ex-service men, civic societies, fraternal orders and citizens generally are invited to take part in the parade.

The annual Decoration day oration will be given at the Methodist church at 1:30 in the afternoon by Rev. E. G. O. Groat. A program of readings and music will be given at the same time. A large audience attended the Memorial sermon at the Methodist church Sunday forenoon, the sermon being given by Rev. Hamrick.

WRECK OF LOGGING CARS TIES UP TRAFFIC

Dragging Brake Beam Dislodges Frog at Switch and Trucks Follow the Wrong Rail.

The wrecking of two loaded logging cars just north of the Main avenue crossing on the O. P. & E. railway Friday afternoon tied up traffic on that line until Monday. The train was backing into the yards with several cars behind the engine. Apparently the frog at the switch gave way. It is thought that it may have been dislodged by a dragging brake beam. The forward trucks on one car followed the wrong rail and the car was forced around crosswise of the track and the car following was derailed. Both cars were heavily loaded and the rails and roadbed were wrecked for a considerable distance.

Pays Dollar Fine.

Carl Bennett enriched the city treasury this week to the extent of one large cartwheel, having been summoned before Justice Young on the complaint of G. W. McFarland, who claimed that Bennett had nearly run him down at the intersection of Seventh and Main when Mr. McFarland was turning into Main. Mr. Bennett claimed that he thought Mr. McFarland was going to turn down Main in the same direction his machine was going and that he turned out to give the McFarland car room to do so. Mr. McFarland claimed that he had the right of way and gave the signal that he was going to turn up Main avenue in the opposite direction. The testimony was so conflicting that the judge imposed the modest fine of one dollar.

UNION FORENOON CHURCH SERVICES AT CHAUTAUQUA

On account of the number of people who will wish to visit the graves of friends and relatives on Sunday morning and decorate them with flowers, arrangements have been made for a union service in the chautauqua tent. The service will begin promptly at 11 and close at 12. The various Sunday schools will meet at the usual hours and in the usual places.

Memorial services will be held at the Methodist church at 1:30 sharp. This service will close in time for all to reach the tent in time to hear the concert by "The Morrison Girls."

COTTAGE GROVE GARAGES ARE LIVEST IN THE STATE

Copies of the subscription list to the campaign fund for the state road bond amendment disclose some interesting facts. Cottage Grove garages contributed $35 to the fund, while the city of Eugene contributed only $40. Ashland contributed only $10, Astoria only $80, Bend only $30, The Dalles only $40, LaGrande only $10, Marshfield only $20, North Bend only $10, Pendleton only $20, St. Helens only $10, and Vale only $10. Cottage Grove quite evidently has the liveliest bunch of garages in the state.

STRENGTHENED EUGENE TEAM HERE SUNDAY

A spirited baseball game is promised for Sunday, when the Eugene team will again play here. This team has strengthened its lineup for the occasion and the old-time rivalry between Cottage Grove and the visitors will be very much in evidence.

MRS. MONROE SUCCEUMS TO LINGERING ILLNESS

Death Occurs Two Days After Being Taken to Eugene Hospital for Treatment.

Mrs. A. L. Monroe, who was taken Sunday to a hospital in Eugene, died there at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning, the cause of death being enlargement of the heart. Her condition had been serious for several months. The funeral was held from the chapel yesterday afternoon, Rev. Hamrick officiating. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

Mrs. Monroe's maiden name was Clara Sherbert. She was born August 21, 1872, in Brown county, Wis., and was in her forty-eighth year. She moved with her family to Nebraska and there married William Holcomb, who died in 1894. In 1899 she married A. L. Monroe, who survives. They came to Eugene in 1910 and moved to Cottage Grove during the same year. She was a member of the Royal Neighbors, who had charge of the service at the grave, and was a charter member of the Social Twelve club. Surviving children are Clyde Holcomb, of this city; Mrs. F. M. Hildreth, of Los Angeles, and Miss Fern Holcomb, of this city.

Mrs. Edwards Is Buried Here.

The funeral of Mrs. Rena Edwards was held Sunday afternoon with private services at the D. G. McFarland cemetery, where Rev. Hamrick officiated. Herman Edwards, a son, accompanied the body here from San Francisco, where death occurred.

WATCH YOUR LABEL.

Local Candidate for Legislature Gets Home Vote.—Commissionership Is a Pretty Contest.

Cottage Grove voters stood strongly by the educational measures, all of which received a large favorable vote. The blind school measure was the particular favorite. The state road bond amendment carried in the city precincts and lost in the country precincts. County road bonds lost by a few votes in the city but were everlastingly hammered in the country precincts, where the roads will be built by the money provided. All of the other measures carried in both city and country except these two.

Both city and country districts went for Sharp for county commissioner, but Mr. Spencer carried his own precinct. The difference between the two in this end of the county was 108 votes. Elbert Bede, candidate for the legislature, carried both city and country by a vote of about two to one, but was defeated in the county by 500 votes. Chamberlain was the favorite here for the democratic senatorship. In the county Emmett Sharp won over Spencer for the county commissionership by a large majority, although it was nothing like the two or three to one vote reported here Saturday.

The three Eugene candidates for the legislature, Gordon, Bean and Allen, were nominated. Barnard won out for the county judge nomination and C. N. Johnston for the district attorneyship nomination.

The state has gone for Johnson for president, although the contest with Wood was close, Johnson's margin being only a few hundred votes at times as the count progressed.

JESSE B. LEWIS, PIONEER IS NO MORE

Was Early Merchant Here, Charter Member of M. E. Church and Mason for 56 Years.

Jesse B. Lewis, pioneer resident of Cottage Grove, died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Lamb, near Coburg, where he had made his home since last fall. The funeral will be held from the Methodist church at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Hamrick officiating. The Masonic lodge will have charge of the service at the grave.

Mr. Lewis was in his eighty-sixth year. He was born in Indiana September 5, 1834, and crossed the plains in 1853, settling with his family in Polk county, later moving to Benton county, and coming to Cottage Grove in 1888, when he at once entered the mercantile business, in which he continued until retiring to private life in 1913. C. H. Burkholder and O. O. Veatch, both still residents of this city, are former business partners of Mr. Lewis.

He was a veteran of the early Indian wars, was a charter member of the Methodist church of this city and had been a Mason for 56 years.

He is survived by the wife and the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Fred Lamb, of Coburg; Mrs. R. S. Frank and Jack Lewis, of Cottage Grove; Mrs. E. M. Oberg, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Lester L. Lewis, of Eugene.

R. C. Schiller, former clerk at the Oregon hotel, where he was known as "Dud," died Tuesday, May 4, at Vancouver, Wash. The funeral was held there May 8.
