

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

COME TO HUNDREDS OF COTTAGE GROVE PEOPLE.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, back-ache;

Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills.

Endorsed in Cottage Grove by grateful friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. Amanda Spriggs, 500 S. 1st St., Cottage Grove, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are not a new remedy to me for attacks of kidney trouble. I had terrible backaches and could hardly get about. Dizzy spells came over me, especially when I stooped. My limbs ached, my feet swelled and my kidneys acted too frequently. I used Doan's Kidney Pills as directed and they soon had me feeling like a different person. The aches and pains left and my kidneys did not annoy me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Spriggs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. m28jnd

A panacea for everything—Sentinel wantada.

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Friday, May 28—"Thirty a Week," by Tom Moore. If you think you can't live on thirty a week, don't fail to see this picture and maybe you will change your mind.
Sunshine comedy, "Damaged No Goods."

Saturday, May 29—"Test of Honor," by John Barrymore. He had only two choices; which should he take? Go to jail himself for seven years for a crime of which he was guilty, or send to jail the girl he loved for seven years, who was guilty of the basest crime within the ken of man. Which did he take?
"Spring Fever," by Herold Lloyd.

Sunday, May 30—"Louisiana," by Vivian Martin.
Mutt and Jeff in "Cut Out the Nonsense."
Pathe Review, motion pictures in colors.

Monday, May 31—"Broken Commandments," by Gladys Brockwell.
"Smashing Barriers," by William Duncan, fifth episode.

Tuesday, June 1—"By Proxy," by Roy Stewart. A breezy western picture.
"Pills of Peril," comedy.

Wed.-Thu., June 2-3—"His Majesty, The American," by Doug. Fairbanks. The best picture Smiling Doug. ever made. Eight big reels—just think of it. Two days at the Arcade.

Friday, June 4—"The Brand," by Rex Beach. One of Rex's famous northern stories. You'll say it is a good picture when you see it.

SOCIETY

Marvin Alstott, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Alstott, entertained a few of his friends Saturday evening at the home of his parents. Refreshments were served following a pleasant evening of games.

The meeting of the Constellation club scheduled for yesterday afternoon was postponed two weeks.

The M. P. G. club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. K. K. Mills. A picnic dinner had been planned, but on account of threatening weather the refreshments were served in the house picnic style. Mrs. G. A. Proctor, a new member, was present.

A social evening was given Wednesday at the Lester VanNortwick home in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Mr. VanNortwick's sisters, Mrs. Nathan Manock and Mrs. John Trunnell. Refreshments were served.

Huff Ishmael.
The wedding of Miss Wynifred Murrel Ishmael to Harvey Huff was solemnized in the pastor's study of the Christian church, in Eugene, Tuesday at 12:30 p. m. Both are residents of Cottage Grove. Those present were Mrs. Iva Ishmael, mother of the bride; Avery Arthur, Dessie and John Ishmael, brothers and sister of the bride; Mrs. Edna Pitcher, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Laura Ishmael. The happy couple are at home for a few days at the Walter Pitcher home but will soon leave for eastern Oregon. The mother of the bride made the trip from California to attend the wedding and will remain for a visit with her son Avery, her sister, Mrs. Edna Pitcher, her mother, Mrs. A. M. Crane, and other relatives.
