SOCIETY

A number of families gathered at the S. I. Godard home Monday evening to assist Sherm. over the fortieth milestone. A cafeteria picnic dinner was served.

Frank Ellsworth and Miss Clara Tiller, both well-known young people of the city, were married Sunday at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Hamrick officiating.

The ladies aid society of the Methodist church was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. L. Darby. Thirty-five were present. The devotional were led by Mrs. Darby. Mrs. Darby's Sunday school class gave a song, Helen Broedlove gave two readings, Hester Hurd gave a piano solo, and Gertrude Cochran gave a reading. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. V. S. Goff and Mrs. D. W. Sturgis.

The marriage of George W. Matthews and Miss Jessie Smith, two popular young people of the city, took place last evening as The Sentinel was going to press. Further notice will be given in the next issue.

Corvallis Gazette-Times: Miss Myrtle M. Green, a teacher in the Eugene schools, was the bride at a wedding solemnized at three o'clock this afternoon (Wednesday, June 16) at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Ragsdale, when she was united in marriage to Virgil R. Hickethier, of Wendling, Lane county. Rev. C. W. Reynolds, of the Christian church, performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few close friends. Mr. and Mrs. Hickethier left at once on a wedding trip and later go to Wendling to reside, the bridegroom being an employe of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company of that vicinity.

The bride is a sister of Mrs. G. J. Landess, of this city, and of Mrs. Emma Ragsdale, formerly a teacher here.

To polish mahogany furniture rub it well with cold linseed oil and polish by rubbing with a dry cloth. Do this once a week and your mahogany will become so finely polished that water will not injure it. The linseed oil hardens when exposed to the air and fills all the wood surface, making it like glass.

When cream is too thin to whip, add one or more egg whites in proportion to the amount of cream.
