

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., July 2—"Turn of the Wheel," Pauline Frederick.
Comedy, "Mounted Police Safe."

Sat., July 3—"White Heather," a special production. In this you will see pictures taken beneath the surface of the sea.
"Be My Wife," by Herold Lloyd.

Sun., July 4—"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," by Mary Pickford. Everybody knows that "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" is the best picture that Mary Pickford has ever made. Those who have never seen it will want to see it—those who have seen it will want to see it again. Matinee afternoon and evening.

Mon., July 5—"Smashing Barriers," Tenth episode—the Dynamite Tree.

"Sahara," by Louise Glaum. The story of an American civil engineer who is ordered to Cairo and the Egyptian desert to construct a railroad into the heart of sensuous, mysterious, black Africa. Matinee both afternoon and evening.

Tues., July 6—"Sundown Trail," by Monroe Salisbury. Spanish Bar, a gold mining camp in the days of '49, lay at the foot of Sundown Trail. The "Oh, Be Joyful" saloon and dance hall was the glittering hub around which the miners revolved in a whirl of liquor, Mexican dancing girls and high stake gambling. No white woman ever entered the camp. The men were lawless to depravity, but were held in check by "Quiet" Carter, the leader of the vigilantes and holder of one of the richest claims. You will find this a very interesting picture.

Comedy, "Officer, Call a Cop."

Wed., July 7—"Deadlier Sex," by Blanche Sweet.

Comedy, "The Man from Egypt."

Thur., July 8—"Terror," by Tom Mix. Tom no longer needs an introduction. We are getting to like him better each time.

SOCIETY

Matthews Smith.

The wedding of Miss Jessie Smith to Mr. George Matthews was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening of last week at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Charles A. Beidler, 635 First street. Rev. D. A. MacLeod, of Newport, former pastor of the Presbyterian church here, performed the ceremony in the presence of immediate members of the families of the contracting parties. The bridal march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Ada Matthews, sister of the bridegroom. Little Madelle Beidler, niece of the bride, was flower girl. The ceremony was performed under an arch of ivy, ferns and white roses. The bride was beautifully gowned in white georgette with veil of tulle and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Refreshments were served immediately following the ceremony. The living room and dining room were both beautiful in a color scheme of green and white. The happy couple left at once on a trip up the McKenzie. The bride has been a teacher for several years, is a vocalist of some note and one of the most popular of the young women of the city. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews, is one of the owners of the Cottage Grove flour mill, and served in France and Belgium with the 361st ambulance corps. He and Rev. MacLeod, who performed the ceremony, spent several months together in the service at Camp Lewis.

A program was given by Helen Ostrander, Millicent and Jerine Burrows, and Almond Hemenway. Talks were made by D. T. Awbrey, who with Mrs. Awbrey, has just returned from California to make their home in Eugene; by Clem Sarff, A. Stevens and Mrs. L. M. Thompson, after which Mrs. Chas. Caldwell presented Mr. and Mrs. Dorward each with a book as a token of the esteem in which they are held by the members of the church. Mr. Dorward responded feelingly for himself and wife. Refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served.

SEVEN PATROL AIRPLANES TO BE STATIONED AT EUGENE

Seven airplanes will be stationed in Eugene during the summer for the forest patrol, according to the members of the patrol, who have already arrived there to begin their duties. One plane is already there and six more are expected in from Mather field, Sacramento, by the first of next week. Hangars for all the planes will be erected by the government as soon as the material arrives.

Two planes will be operated out of Eugene every day, one going as far south as Medford, covering the Cascade mountains one way and the Coast mountains the other way, while the other plane will proceed as far north as Portland, where gasoline and oil will be taken on each day.

Eastern pros. are getting it figured out so that by following a well laid out plan a person can live on 25 cents a day. Some of them will figure it out pretty soon so a man can read over a bill of fare and satisfy his stomach by swallowing his words.

Salmon Chowder—One can salmon, six medium-sized potatoes, one small onion, salt, pepper. Cover with hot water and boil 15 minutes. Now add one can evaporated milk, piece of butter the size of an egg, and crackers if desired. Cover closely and set on back of range 10 minutes.

A young man in Wyoming drove two miles alone before he discovered that his sweetheart had fallen out of the buggy. Love-making in that state must lack some of the ardor that characterizes it around here.
