

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., July 9—"Woman on the Index," Pauline Frederick.
"Neighbors Keyhole," Sun-

Sat., July 10—"Girls," by shine comedy.

Marguerite Clark.
"Wanted, 5000," by Herold Lloyd.

Sun., July 11—"A Very Good Young Man," by Bryant Washburn.

"Rum Runners," by Mutt and Jeff.

Pathe Review, slow motion photography.

Mon., July 12—"Smashing Barriers," William Duncan.
Jazz Monkey comedy.

"Tempest Cody Kidnapper," by Marie Walcamp.

Tues., July 13—"Burnt Wings," by Frank Mayo.
"Bungled Bungalows," comedy.

Wed., July 14—"Desert Gold," by E. K. Lincoln. Zane Grey's greatest production. A dashing double romance of the great outdoors. Desert Gold is the most enthralling and gripping motion picture you have ever seen.

Comedy, "Footlights and Fakers."

Thurs., July 15—"Merry Go Round," Gladys Brockwell.

International News, current events of the nation.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Charles Beidler and Mrs. George Matthews were hostesses last night at a charming informal reception given at the Beidler home in honor of Miss Jessie Smith and Miss Jessie Kirkwood who recently arrived from Kansas. The entertainment was planned to introduce the young women among the younger set of the city.

Row River Society.

An enjoyable dance was given Thursday night at the Frank Pleurard home in honor of the twentieth birthday anniversary of Miss Elsie Pleurard. An appetizing lunch was served the guests at midnight by the hostess. The two large rooms used in dancing were very tastefully decorated in green and white.

Ten Births; Three Deaths.

The report of Health Officer Oglesby shows that during the month of June there were 10 births and 3 deaths. Of the births, 7 were males and 3 females.

Londonderry Streets Swept by Bullets

London.—Civil war conditions prevail in Londonderry and the authorities are powerless, it is declared in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Londonderry. Several additional persons were killed in Monday morning's rioting there, according to this message. The firing is being maintained with desperate intensity. Business is suspended and the postmen are declining to deliver mail. When the troops stop the fighting in one zone, the dispatch adds, firing breaks out in another.

New Leader of Marines.

Washington.—Appointment of Major General John A. Lejeune as major general commandant of the marine corps, to succeed Major General George Barnett, was announced by Secretary Daniels. General Lejeune commanded the famous second division when it broke the German line in the Meuse-Argonne offensive.

Oregon Restores Capital Punishment.

Salem.—Capital punishment was restored in Oregon by official proclamation by Governor Olcott, immediately upon completion of the official canvass by Secretary of State Koser of the vote cast in the special election of May 21.

Vancouver, B. C., Fire Fatal.

Vancouver, B. C.—Six lives are believed to have been lost and an unknown number of persons were injured in a fire which destroyed the Balmoral apartments, a six-story building.

If your wedding stationery is printed by The Sentinel, you are assured a long and happy married life. a29tf

City Meat Market

BARTELS & SAFLEY, PROPS

PHONE 89

QUALITY STEAKS—A good piece of steak is always in order. If you want a porterhouse, sirloin, club, tenderloin, flank or round steak, you will find that we can meet your every requirement, and the people of our community know that our market stands for the best quality in meats of all kinds.

BREAKFAST BACON—There are many kinds of bacon and more than one of the many kinds is good, but there is only one best—and that is the one you want. You will find it at our market. We will sell it in either sides or sliced, as you prefer. It has a reputation for quality with the people of this community.

CHOICE HAMS—There is nothing more appetizing than a slice of our choice ham. We have them smoked or boiled, as you prefer and, fried or baked or cooked in any other of the many ways they have a flavor you will soon forget. We have anything you may want in the way of meats.

FINE SAUSAGES—Linked goodness long drawn out aptly describes the sausage you will find at our market. But you can have it either in links or bulk and of a variety that will meet every taste. In it there is used only the best and most carefully selected meats. It will tempt your appetite.

According to the report of the postmaster at Salem the revenue of his office from the sale of stamps the past fiscal year was $7392. Second class mail matter brought $6654 and matter from the state offices $14,260.

In reply to a query from the district attorney of Grant county, Attorney General Brown has given the opinion that no official or person has authority to suspend the enforcement of the statute prohibiting minors from playing pool.

One of the largest deals closed in Baker for some time culminated when final arrangements were made by the Cornucopia Mines company for the issuance of a $300,000 mortgage to the Guaranty Trust company of New city.

Captain Jacob Speier, Portland harbor-master, has issued an order requiring all vessels entering from foreign ports to obey the provisions of the new city ordinance requiring adequate protection against the introduction of plague.

Apparently the finances of the young men of Lane county are better than they were a year ago. County Clerk Bryson issued marriage licenses to 59 couples during June this year, as compared with 36 for the same month last year.

As a result of action taken by the apple and pear growers of Oregon, practically the same regulations relative to grading the fruit and the size of boxes for shipment will prevail this season in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana.

Twenty-one voters determined the fate of a $105,640 budget it was ascertained when the count on the Bond special school district election was announced. The budget carried by a vote of 12 to 8, one ballot, improperly marked, being thrown out.

The grand jury at The Dalles, after examining 10 witnesses, found indictments against Oles Brown of Pensacola, Fla., charged with the murder of Otis Mayes, O. W. R. & N. brakeman, and Council Oliver, Norfolk, Va., as an accessory. Both are colored.

O. P. Hoff, state treasurer, is barred by law from purchasing improvement bonds issued by the city of North Bend, Coos county, for less than par and accrued interest, according to a legal opinion given by the attorney-general. The opinion was asked by Mr. Hoff.

Pioneers from all parts of the west assembled in Portland last Friday for the 48th annual reunion of the Oregon Pioneer association, whose membership includes only those who arrived in Oregon or were born here before 1859, the year Oregon was admitted to the union.

Construction of a paved highway extending from the southern Willamette valley to Salem and thence north of Salem to connect with the paved road on the west side of the Willamette river is the purpose of the Capitol Highway association, which was organized at Salem.

The West Coast Lumbermen's association is installing a display of Douglas fir and hemlock lumber in the state exhibit room on the ground floor of the Oregon building, Portland, that will make it one of the best educational showings of the kind that has ever been arranged.

Request for the assignment of two men in Portland from the United States health service to take adequate steps to prevent bubonic plague entering Oregon, was made by City Health Officer Parrish in conference with Major Richey Waugh of the United States public health service.

Members of state and congressional central committees who are elected by county central committees shall not necessarily be members of the county committees, according to a legal opinion handed down by Attorney-General Brown. The opinion was asked by E. B. Tongue, district attorney of Washington county.

No petitions of aliens who desire to become citizens of the United States will be received by the circuit court of Multnomah county after August 1. Aliens must hereafter apply for citizenship papers through the United States district court, but in other counties in the state where the applicants would be inconvenienced by the fact that the only federal court in the state is in Portland, the state courts will continue to hear naturalization cases.

A bomb was thrown into the plans for the annual mobilization of the Oregon National Guard when a ruling was received by Adjutant General George A. White from the militia bureau of the war department requiring a minimum of 52 men per company in order to draw federal pay. Under this ruling no transfers of men from one company to another in order to meet the minimum requirement nor the consolidation of companies will be permitted. This means, Adjutant General White states, that, with two or three exceptions, none of the companies of the Fifth Oregon infantry regiment will attend the camp unless a special dispensation is secured modifying the ruling so as to permit the consolidation of companies as heretofore.

Neighborhood News

DELIGHT VALLEY.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

July 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Preston Lake and son, of Riddle, visited from Saturday to Wednesday at the home of Mr. Lake's sister, Mrs. Alfred Cornutt.

Practically the entire neighborhood—and a few from Walker—enjoyed the picnic dinner in the Joll grove Sunday. A number from here went to the celebration at Eugene Monday, among them the Sears, Nixon, Cornutt, Jackson, Haight and Wichee families.

Mrs. L. J. Allen and baby, of Sutherlin, visited from Sunday to Wednesday at the W. A. Wichee home.

The Blakely family has moved to J. T. Shattuck's for the summer.

H. R. Robison, who recently bought the Shattuck place, just vacated by the Blakelys, is fixing it up and getting ready to move his family there.

Ivan Wichee, of this place, and Miss Nellie Corder, of Nehalem, were married at Eugene July 4. They left Wednesday for Nehalem, where they will make their home.

Max Sears has the measles.

Mrs. Oval Powell has been quite ill with measles.

A miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. Lowell Benston, a bride of last week, Wednesday afternoon at the W. A. Keene home. Nearly all the women and girls of the neighborhood and Mrs. F. T. Benston and daughter Gladys, Kathleen Allen and Mabel Wright, of Saguinaw, enjoyed this happy event, which was a surprise to the bride. Light refreshments were served.

DIVIDE

July 7.—Miss Ethel Mackey spent several days of last week visiting at the home of her uncle, Frank Parker, at Wilbur.

Mrs. N. Lewis, Mrs. George Allen and Mrs. Lee Dugan and children motored to Yoncalla last Thursday and spent the day with Grandma Guest.

D. D. Roberts and son Richard motored to Eugene last Wednesday.

E. L. Kelly and family left Friday for their home at Mendocino, Calif. Among those who attended the celebration in Eugene Monday were F. M. Chapman and family, Mrs. A. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, J. A. Mackey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Dugan and Miss Mildred Dugan.

Gus Turner and family are moving back to Divide from Marcola.

The E. L. McReynolds family motored to Scotts Valley Monday and picnicked.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patten and daughter Bernice visited Tuesday evening at the D. Dugan home.

Mrs. J. A. Mackey, Mr. and Mrs. Artie Dugan, Mrs. Roy Erickson and Miss Mildred Dugan motored to Drain Tuesday evening and visited Mrs. Etta Taylor and son Wyatt.

Mrs. Roy Erickson left Wednesday for her home in Portland, after visiting her father, P. A. Lindstrom.

Mrs. Frank Turner, who has been in a Eugene hospital for treatment, returned Sunday greatly improved.

COWS EAT HAY; FIGHT AND FINE ARE RESULT

Tony Delagardi and Pedro Perini, of Divide, were fined $5 each by J. E. Young in justice court Wednesday on a charge of assault filed by J. R. Wood, also of Divide. Domingo Perini, father of Pedro and father-in-law of Delagardi, was acquitted on the same charge. The encounter in which Woods was badly battered by Delagardi and Pedro Perini arose over some hay which cattle belonging to Delagardi were alleged to have destroyed. Woods and Delagardi both claimed that the other was the aggressor in the matter, but Woods was worsted after Delagardi's kinsman came to his assistance.

Drops Wood on Toe.

Hamilton Veatch was laid up a few days of the past week as the result of an injury to the great toe of one foot, which he had allowed to remain in the way of a falling stick of wood. The member was badly mashed.

Notice to the Public.

We have disposed of our grocery business to F. C. Coffman. We wish to thank our friends and the public for the loyal support given us by a very liberal patronage. We would bespeak for Mr. Coffman, who is well known in Cottage Grove, a continuation of the same with the assurance of courteous treatment and prompt service. Jlybe
KERR & SILSBY.

Card of Thanks.

Delight Valley, Saguinaw, Ore.—We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors who so cheerfully dropped everything in a busy time to render us assistance in every way in our time of disability and need. That kindly, helpful community spirit, that willingness to share the other fellow's burden, is one great factor that makes this valley so desirable a place to live.
W. J. and LAURA L. McCLELLAN.

A panacea for everything—Sentinel wantads. ***

A Few Points About Our Garden Court Toiletries

GARDEN COURT COLD CREAM—A smooth protective cream for sunburn or chapped skin. The finest of all cold creams.

GARDEN COURT TOILET WATER—Delightful for atomizer or bath. This alluring perfume is blended from 32 essences. Because of its lasting perfume, this toilet water is actually more economical than those sold at half the price.

IN OUR WINDOW you may see our display of Garden Court Toiletries. Our druggist salesman will be glad to show you the line. Ask to see our GARDEN COURT TALC—Fine as mist. Made from finest Italian tale.

GARDEN COURT DOUBLE COMBINATION CREAM—The first all-purpose cream. Takes the place of massage, vanishing and nourishing creams and is an ideal base for face powder.

FACE POWDER—Blends with the skin and stays on until you take it off. Pure and free from harmful ingredients.

GARDEN COURT EXTRACT—This is the true, highly concentrated Garden Court odor which lends its charm to all the other Garden Court Toiletries.

The White Pharmacy

(Formerly the Benson Pharmacy)

A Short Welcome Message to You. Just arrived this morning a brand new line of

Fancy Ribbons
Ginghams, Shallies and Percales

Come and See Them

A full line of Groceries always on hand

Powell & Burkholder

Corner of Fifth and Main

Phone 70