

The Fordson Smile

You can always tell the Fordson tractor farmer from the one who still does his farming by hand and horse. The Fordson farmer has a jovial expression, a cheer shining from his face which indicates that no longer is he a greatly over-worked individual working from daylight to long after dark; he now has time to come to town when occasion requires without worrying about work left undone; he acts as if his stomach were in good condition from having sufficient time to eat and digest his food and his general appearance is that of ready money—and the latter comes from the modern method of farming with a Fordson tractor.

And get more genuine chewing satisfaction, when you use this class of tobacco.

This is because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long, you don't need a fresh chew nearly as often.

And a small chew gives more real satisfaction than a big chew of the ordinary kind ever did. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Following an investigation held recently the Oregon public service commission has received a letter from officials of the Sumpter Valley Railroad company to the effect that all fire hazards along the lines of the corporation had been eliminated. It was charged that several fires had been started along the Sumpter Valley railroad through the carelessness of its employees.

Unless the county court of Wasco county obtains within a reasonable time rights of way for approximately one mile of road necessary to connect up the Columbia river highway with the state bridge across the Deschutes river, J. M. Devers, attorney for the state highway department, will institute legal proceedings to condemn the land necessary for the success of the project. This announcement was made by Mr. Devers following a conference with members of the state highway commission in Portland.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County.

Hazel R. Rhode, plaintiff, vs. P. M. Rhode, defendant.

To P. M. Rhode, defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons and if you fail so to answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, to-wit: For a decree of the court dissolving the marriage contract and matrimonial bonds now and heretofore existing between you and the plaintiff on the grounds of desertion and for the care and custody of the two minor children belonging to you and the plaintiff and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and for costs and disbursements of this suit.

This summons is served by publication by order of the County Judge of Lane county, H. L. Bown, dated the 10th day of August, 1920, and the date of the first publication of this summons will be the 27th day of August, 1920, and the last publication thereof will be the 8th day of October, 1920.

When you use Cottage Grove flour, you save the charge necessarily made on other flour for freight and handling, and the saving is large enough to be quite an item in the year's expenses. Naturally you should wish to use a home product, even were there no difference in the price, so there is a double inducement for the use of your home flour.
