

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri. and Sat., Sept. 10-11—Wallace Reid in "The Lottery Man."

"Jiggs in Society," taken from the daily cartoons, "Bringing Up Father."

"Nuf Sed" on this program.

Sun., Sept. 12—"The Girl in the Rain," Anne Cornwell. A romance of the South, down in "Old Virginia."

"Pathe Review," motion pictures in colors.

"Topics of the Day." This is something that will sure please you.

Mon., Sept. 13—"A Fighting Colleen," Bessie Love. She didn't like the mayor, so she just tarred and feathered him in "A Fighting Colleen."

Tues., Sept. 14—"A Gun Fightin' Gentleman," Harry Carey. Harry Carey beats a "land grabber" at his own game in "A Gun Fightin' Gentleman," one of his latest pictures.

Comedy, "Stop that Shim-mie!"

Wed., Sept. 15—"Nugget Nell," Dorothy Gish. Nellie was a lady and she didn't give a darn who knew it; and if clothes could help, she was out to get 'em with a gun.

Comedy, "Jumps and Jealousy."

Thurs., Sept. 16—"Three Gold Coins," Tom Mix. Bob Fleming (Tom Mix), a happy-go lucky cow puncher in California, found himself broke in every way excepting spirit and 600 acres of worthless land.

While reading a notice from the tax collector he saw an automobile running wild. He took a flying leap on his horse, dashed after the car, roped it, and with the aid of Spike and Boots, two companions, saved it and its occupants from being dashed to pieces. This is only one of the daring stunts you will see in "Three Gold Coins."

Comedy, "Footlight Maids."

Fri., Sept. 17—"The Girl From Outside," one of the famous Rex Beach stories.

Power and Comfort in a Car of Which You May Be Proud

It can truthfully be said that the cost of the Buick is the first cost only. From that time you have only to consider the natural expenses which can not be overcome regardless of how much is put into making the car as near repair proof as it is possible to make a car. Any Buick owner will tell you that. Besides, the price is a very reasonable one when you consider its roomy comfort and the satisfaction of knowing that no matter where you start for you will get there safe, sound and soon. You feel certain that you have reserve power for any emergency, that you never will have to worry about getting a thousand miles from nowhere with a breakdown, and that with all of this you have a classy appearing car, which is considerable satisfaction to any driver. We expect a carload of these cars within a few days. Better place a tentative order today.
