MOUNTAIN BACKBONE FOR SKYLINE ROUTE

Bountiful scenic and recreational features await development along the summit of the Cascade range from Mount Hood to Crater lake, asserts Forest Examiner F. H. Cleator, who accompanied the recent survey party of the proposed skyline road.

Great open areas with remarkable vistas, that may be traveled over on horseback, innumerable lakes which are even now being stocked with fish, majestic mountain peaks, most interesting lava deposits and attractive summer home sites were among the features discovered. Cleator took 650 pictures on the trip.

"The thing that struck me most forcibly," said Cleator, "were the lakes and the easy travel along what is usually considered a high, rough country. You can go horseback almost anywhere. There are hundreds of lakes that are not stocked that are capable of supporting fish. Frank Leslie put in 60,000 fry this summer and by the time the Skyline road is built these lakes should make good fishing."

Public Health Conference.
Miss Brownell, Lane county public health nurse, will hold conferences at the library rooms of the high school from 2 to 4 o'clock on the second Tuesday of each month, beginning with November 9. Any one interested in his own health or that of any one else is asked to consult with Miss Brownell at these times.

New Road Not to Be Built.
The S. F. Jackson road, which was designed to be a cutoff road to avoid Koeck hill on the Eugene-Lorane highway, will not be established, if the report of P. M. Morse, county engineer, and J. M. McCausland, assistant, is adopted by the county court.

After a visit to the premises Saturday the engineers decided that the old road over the hill can be cut down to a maximum of six per cent as compared with 10 per cent and as high as 13 per cent in one short stretch at present.

The reason for the action of the engineers is the excessive damages asked for right-of-way by William Moore, Hazel Smith and others through their places.

HUNTER'S LEG SHATTERED BY COMPANION'S BULLET

William Lewis, one of the seven Lewis brothers, farmers, of Crow, Lane county, was shot in the left knee by his brother-in-law, J. B. Embry, of Polk county, while they were in the mountains several miles from Crow hunting deer Friday. Lewis was taken to Eugene late that night and the leg was amputated between the knee and the hip. The bones were completely shattered by the 30-30 bullet fired from Embry's rifle.

Lewis and Embry both sighted a deer down the canyon. Lewis started one way and Embry the other in order that one of them might get a shot at it. Embry saw the deer again after he had descended the hill and fired. Lewis happened to be close by and the bullet crashed into his knee. It took Embry and Alvin Lewis, brother of the injured man, from 8 o'clock in the morning, when the accident happened, until 4 in the afternoon to carry him out of the timber.

Different Here.
Eugene Registrar: E. F. Moore was fined $25 in police court for speeding his automobile on Thirteenth avenue east and W. T. McDermott was fined $5 for failure to display a lantern on a pile of building material left in the street.

Henry Fisher Resigns.
An item in a Portland paper states that Henry Fisher has arrived there from Leona to make his home. Mr. Fisher formerly was connected with the mill business here, but the past five years or more was superintendent of the Leona mills.

COTTAGE GROVE DOWNED IN GAME AT EUGENE

Cottage Grove was defeated at Eugene Saturday by a score of 20 to 0. The locals outplayed their opponents in the first half, but in the second half were careless in guarding their ends, allowing the ball to be carried dangerously near the goal. Eugene had the beef to force the ball for the final few yards required. Derrall Mosby was seriously injured the first time he got into the play. This was his first game.

The lineup of the Cottage Grove team was as follows:
- Roy Heck and Harry Skilling, ends;
- Wade Mosby and Leonard Smith, tackles;
- Jack Besger and Eston Porter, guards;
- Wilbur Spray, center; Claude Coffman and Harvey Robinson, half backs; Derrall Mosby, quarter back; Charles Smith, full back; substitutes, Leslie Hull and Stewart Mitchell.

HARDING CLUB GOAL REACHED AND PASSED

As indicating which way the wind blows, the state Harding and Coolidge campaign club, which set its goal at 15,000 members, has reached that goal and is now going out for 20,000 members. The members of the club are pledged to vote a straight republican ticket and 10 per cent of the members report that they formerly voted the democratic ticket.

FAIR BOARD $2000 BETTER OFF THAN WAS THOUGHT

After the Lane County Fair association had just borrowed $1200 and intended to borrow about $1000 more to pay off the premiums won by exhibitors at the recent fair, Miss Edna Ward, county treasurer, announced that there had been in her hands all summer $2065 to the credit of the association as Lane county's apportionment of the state fund for county fairs.

Miss Ward said she knew all the time that the money was there and wondered why the association had not drawn it out, but W. C. Yorran, secretary, and other members of the board said they did not know of the existence of any such fund. They were agreeably surprised when Miss Ward informed them of the fact.

This amount will about pay the remaining premiums and the money borrowed will be returned at once.

She sprang a complete surprise upon her guests with living pictures. The characters were enshined in a frame of autumn leaves and mellow colored lights were thrown upon them. Mrs. R. A. Trask, in her wedding gown, represented the bride, took her position to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and maintained the pose while the violoncello played "Annie Laurie"; little Margaret Short posed as "The Last Rose of Summer"; little Burdick Trask as the "Barefoot boy with cheek of tan" and as a little hunter; Sylvia Veach represented "Just Sylvia"; Mrs. Roy Short represented "Whispering Hope" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer"; with little Burdick Trask kneeling at her feet in the latter picture, and Mrs. Elbert Bede and daughters Ruth and Beth represented "An Old Sweetheart of Mine". Mr. Trask was supposed to do the dreaming in the latter scene but is understood to have been indisposed. Refreshments of wedding cake, birthday cake and ice cream were served.
