GOES TO EUROPE FOR LEAGUE, COMES BACK ENERGETIC OPPONENT

An important contribution to the controversy over the league of nations is found in the statement of C. I. Johnson, of St. Paul, Minn., who has just returned from a trip to Europe. Mr. Johnson is personally known to the editor of The Sentinel as a successful business man and one whose statements may be depended upon. He says:

"All in all, we Americans have much to be thankful for and can hope and pray that the Bolsheviks do not get control over here, for there are troubles slumbering in Europe that may be fanned into flame at any time. I went over there strongly in favor of the league of nations but after looking over the conditions and realizing what is stored up over there, I say none of it for me now."

TEARING DOWN ELECTION NOTICES IS UNLAWFUL

A report comes to The Sentinel that in one of the city precincts the election notices posted by the clerks have been torn down. It is possible that the notices were torn down by the elements, but it is well that attention be called to the fact that anyone tearing down or defacing election notices posted by the constituted authorities is committing a crime against the laws of the state.
