ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., Nov. 26—"Down on the Farm," a 5-reel Mack Sennett comedy.

Comedy, "The Great Nickel Robbery."

Sat., Nov. 27—"The A, B, C of Love," Mae Murray. Something for the women—not forgetting the men. The maid of many moods will teach you the alphabet of love as she taught it to her husband.

Eddie Polo in "The Vanishing Dagger," 9th episode, will be shown on Saturday instead of Friday for this week only.

Sun., Nov. 28—"Anne of Green Gables," Mary Miles Minter.

"Pathe Review," motion pictures in colors.

"Topics of the Day," from the Literary Digest.

Mon., Nov. 29—Kulolia's Hawaiians, an elaborate spectacular musical production. The greatest of all Hawaiian shows, carrying their own special scenery and electrical effects and presenting a performance lasting two hours. Steel guitars, ukeleles, banjo, tarro patch, violin, banjoke, flufe, xylophone. Nani, greatest of Hula Hula dancers.

Two reels of comedy.

Tues., Nov. 30—"The Delicious Little Devil," Mae Murray. Length, six reels; place, New York slums. The sensational road house scenes in which Miss Murray exhibits several startling creations.

Wed., Dec. 1—"The Market of Souls," Dorothy Dalton. Come and see New York in her gayest revel. See her on a New Year's eve in the most sensational cafe scene ever filmed.

Thurs., Dec. 2—"Checkers," a special attraction, by an all star cast. One of the greatest horse races ever filmed.

Comedy, "Heart Snatchers,"
