

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri., Dec. 10—"Speedy Meade," Lois Bennison.
Eddy Polo in "The Vanishing Dagger."
Sat., Dec. 11—"Twin Pawns," by Mae Murray.
"Call the Cave Man," by Snub Pollard.
Sun., Dec. 12—"Miss Hobbs" by Wanda Hawley. She hated men—but you'll like her. "Miss Hobbs" is a sparkling comedy concerning a young woman who hates men and inclines to snoozes, futurist art, barefoot dancing and other such fads. Story written by Jerome K. Jerome.
"Pathe Review," "Topics of the Day."
Mon., Dec. 13—"The Woman Game," Elaine Hammerstein. What is "the woman game"? Ask Ma, she knows. In "the woman game" if you win you lose, and if you lose you win. Is "the woman game" as honorable as "the man game"?

Comedy, "The Champion Loser."
Tues., Dec. 14—"Bill Apperson's Boy," Jack Pickford. This picture takes one into the midst of one of the most curious people of the United States—the Blue Ridge mountaineers. The scenes give an intimate idea of how these Blue Ridge folks live.
Wed., Dec. 15—"Sadie Love," Billie Burke, a Paramount picture. Imagine it! Sadie hadn't been married ten minutes till she said she had made a mistake and began carrying on with that young Jimmy Wakely. Actually planning to marry him, too. And the minister scarcely out of the house!
Comedy, "Why a Divorce?" Mr. and Mrs. Carter DeHaven.
Thurs., Dec. 16—"The Cyclone," by Tom Mix. Nuff said.
Sunshine comedy, "Light Weight Lovers."

SOCIETY

A community dance was held Saturday evening at the Herman Rudolph home in Gowdyville. Many of the neighbors were present and three automobile loads attended from Cottage Grove. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Elbert Bede entertained several of the teachers of the high school Monday evening, the invited guests being Miss Curtis, Miss Miller, Miss Price, Miss Lee, Miss Currin and Miss Lamson. Light refreshments were served.

David H. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Williams, and Miss Lois Daisy Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Huff, all of this city, were married Tuesday of last week at the Christian parsonage in Eugene, Rev. Stivers officiating. The father of the bride was the only relative present. The young couple will make their home here for the present.

An enjoyable dinner dance was given Saturday evening at Hotel Bartell, the guest of honor being Miss Marcia Holt, of Portland, guest of L. R. Sanford. The four-course dinner was served at 9 o'clock. Dancing was indulged in until midnight. Music was furnished by an orchestra composed of E. A. Steen, violin, Miss Ruth Stewart, piano, and a saxophone and drum from Eugene. A large number of the young people and young married people were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon, of Delight valley, were guests of honor at a surprise party Thursday evening of last week, the occasion being their thirty-sixth wedding anniversary, although several of the guests are ready to make affidavit that Mr. Nixon was the youngest one in the crowd for that evening. Refreshments rounded out a most pleasant social time.

The second-year domestic science girls and their teachers entertained the football team and coach at dinner Friday evening. Following the dinner, speeches were made by several of the guests. The teachers were Miss Lamson, Miss Kroeger and Miss Curtis. The girls who served were Eva Broekus, Grace Jones, Lenora Hubbell and Veta Plaster. The decorations were in the class colors of blue and gold. An immense football formed the table centerpiece, from which strings extended to each plate. The place cards were adorned with small footballs. The guests were Anders Nelson, coach; Tommy Matthews, Jack Benger, Harvey Robinson, Wilbur Spray, Miles Wickes, Charles Smith, Wendell Cochran, Wade Mosby, Derrell Mosby, Harry Skilling, Rex Wheeler, Stewart Mitchell, Eston Porter, Ivan Sams, Roy Hoek, Leslie Hull and Claud Coffman.

The Mystic Dagger dramatic club held its usual meeting in the high school Wednesday evening. A clever stunt was put on by several members. Ruth Bede took the part of leading lady, Brighton Leonard that of the hero, Miss Marie McCarger that of a girl friend and Esther Heard that of a maid. This club plans to put on a play some time during the winter, to be coached by Miss Curtis.

Euterpean Club Elects.
Miss Silsby entertained the members of her vocal class at her home on Third street Friday evening. Officers for the Euterpean club were elected as follows: Myrtle Potts, president; Elnor Knowles, secretary; Doris Holderman, treasurer. The social part of the evening consisted of some very lively contest games, after which a two-course luncheon was served by the hostess. The following program preceded the election: Vocal solo, "Some Time, Somewhere," Doris Holderman and Elnor Knowles; vocal solo, "Slumber Boat Song," Kathryn McQueen; vocal solo, "Absent," Doris Holderman; vocal duet, "Sun of My Soul," Miss Price and Mr. Skilling; vocal solo, "So Blue Thine Eyes," Marie Vench; vocal solo, "Love in the Southland," Elnor Knowles; vocal solo, "If You Love Me," Edwin Skilling.

The Constellation club met yesterday afternoon in the banquet room of Masonic temple, Mrs. Joe Porter and Mrs. Elbert Bede being hostesses. Refreshments were served following a social afternoon. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. D. Sterling, Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. Robert Sutcliffe, Mrs. Armored Munson, Mrs. J. B. Lewis, Mrs. R. S. Trask and Mrs. C. J. Kem.

Mrs. K. K. Mills entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday. Dainty refreshments followed a social afternoon. Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. G. C. Dyott, Mrs. Earl Arthur and Mrs. C. S. Roberts were guests of the club.

The La Comas club meets next Tuesday with Mrs. Frank Knox.

Kime, assistant marshal; Mrs. Emma Powell, manager; Dr. A. W. Kime, physician. Refreshments and a social session followed.

Bad Street Saves Car.
John Hull is not in favor of improved streets for Cottage Grove. The reason is that an unimproved street saved him from losing his car Wednesday evening while he was attending a dramatic rehearsal at the high school. The thieves got away with the car, took a dark street to make their getaway and got stuck in the mud, where the car was found by those who assisted Mr. Hull in searching for it. The car was stolen from exactly the same spot where Kenneth McKeen lost his car.
