HOME PAPER IS POPULAR WITH THOSE NOW LIVING ELSEWHERE

Former residents were as eager in taking advantage of The Sentinel's November subscription special as those living at home and every mail brought their remittances and expressions of appreciation of the old home paper.

L. K. Phelps sent check and kind regards to all from Klamath Falls; Wm. A. Horn sent an Emmett, Ida, money order; Mrs. J. E. Anderson doesn't mind living at Walla, Walla but wants the news from C. G.; George Atkinson has moved across the water from Wedderburn to Gold Beach but finds plenty of rain there too; E. A. Wheeler finds Sanitarium, Calif., a healthy place to send his subscription from; Mrs. N. E. Simmons, of Centralia, is another Washington subscriber who must have Cottage Grove news; Mrs. Alice S. Foskett enjoys The Sentinel very much among friends of former days at Perry, N. Y., and sends regards to her many friends here; W. J. Frost, of Lynn, Mass., believes his name by warmly welcoming the opportunity to renew; Mrs. A. H. Beagle continues as a member of The Sentinel's Washington family by renewing from Ridgefield, as does also Mrs. J. A. Merryman, now a resident of Tacoma; Mrs. R. Bohm now lives in Portland but the big dailies do not take the place of the home paper for her; H. W. Vincent sends his money from Brownsville; Mrs. B. G. Crowe writes from Salem that Mr. Crowe is improving slowly from his injuries; W. G. Beattie, former superintendent here, finds that the cultured atmosphere of Monmouth does not take the place of regular visits of the live wire newspaper; Frank Woodruff has lost track of things since moving to the big city of Portland and doesn't know how far his check pays him in advance, "but," he says, "you can't pay too far in advance for The Sentinel"; Mrs. D. H. Wills gets under the wire from Weed, Calif.; Mrs. A. F. Noth renews from Medford; Mrs. Wm. Fisher, of Roseburg (formerly Mrs. P. C. Oleott), says she likes her new home very much but would not attempt to get along without the old home newspaper; Lee Roy Woods kicks through from Weiser, Ida., and outside of being chief rooster for the champion baseball club, looking after the erection of a home, acting as chairman of the entertainment committee for several thousand visitors at the round-up, out-Carousing Caruso in the Philharmonic club, taking an active part in the American Legion and looking after affairs for John D., he seems to be spending his time in enjoying the sunny weather which has followed a rainy month; E. A. Clark writes from Cushman that when a copy is a day or two late he feels like telegraphing to find out what's the matter; Horace Cochran isn't satisfied to spend the winter in the wilds of Tiller without the companionship of the old home paper; A. W. Turpen, one of the first pioneers of the Coast fork valley, still finds much interesting home news, even though his residence has long been Modesto, Calif.; Mrs. J. L. Orr renews from Yakima, Wash.; Miss Bertha Sears renews from Portland; C. C. Hambrecht continues as one of the several readers from Klamath Falls; A. H. Sprinkel, who picked a town with a name as much like Cottage Grove as possible when he left here, says Forest Grove is all right as long as The Sentinel arrives promptly every week; Mrs. M. K. Rice finds she cannot properly attend to the S. P. interests at Medford without the news from her former home; Mrs. C. G. Whitlock writes from Portland that they would find it impossible to live away from Cottage Grove without the home newspaper; Bert V. Hands sends Merry Christmas greetings from Los Gatos, Calif.

DELIGHT VALLEY.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Dec. 9.—Quite a number from here attended the high school dance at Saginaw Friday night.

Miss Lois Jackson has been suffering with an infection in her right arm, caused by a bruise. It had to be lanced Saturday.

Mrs. E. J. Kent and Mrs. Lee Nixon invited some of the neighbors to surprise Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon last Thursday evening, it being their 36th wedding anniversary. It proved a complete surprise. Those present were the Joll, Jackson, Sears, Horn, Kent and Lee Nixon families, Miss Groom and Lester Pentico. Refreshments were served which consisted of weinies, sour cream, apple pie, sandwiches and coffee.

Miss Lucile Cornutt suffered with tonsillitis this week.

Mrs. C. H. Haight has a new electric washing machine.

Mrs. Alma Sears came out from the Grove Sunday to visit at the home of her son Ernest.

The Kent, Doane and the three Nixon families spent Sunday in Eugene with relatives, helping to celebrate Mr. Pickard's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Doane and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon remained there for the week.

Bird Rose and daughter Ruth with two girl friends, of Eugene, were Sunday guests at the J. A. Joll home.

M. A. Horn is installing an electric plant at his home.

E. J. Kent shipped some dressed veal to Portland, and J. A. Joll sold three dressed hogs this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nixon and Mrs. E. J. Kent were in Eugene Wednesday.

The Misses Lena and Iva Southwell arrived Wednesday from Pendleton for a visit at the home of their cousin, E. J. Sears.

SILK CREEK.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Dec. 9.—The men of this district are working on the telephone line.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Sprague went to Sutherlin Saturday to attend the funeral of Mr. Sprague's grandfather.

Lloyd Owens and George Gilder, from British Columbia, visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lena Bureham spent the week end with friends at Divide.

Elder Conley, formerly of Texas, spoke Thursday evening at the Adventist church.

R. V. Darnell spent the week end here with his family.

J. D. Grimes was hauling wood Monday for Mrs. E. M. Wheeler.

S. Bureham made a trip last week to Eugene.

It is easier for a person hopelessly involved financially to come back than it is to escape the breath of a scandal.
