

DAYS OF DIZZINESS

COME TO HUNDREDS OF COTTAGE GROVE PEOPLE.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, languor, back ache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. Don's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney ills. Endorsed in Cottage Grove by grateful friends and neighbors. Ask your neighbor. Mrs. Amanda Spriggs, 500 S. 1st St., Cottage Grove, says: "Don's Kidney Pills are not a new remedy to me for attacks of kidney trouble. I had terrible backaches and could hardly get about. Dizzy spells came over me, especially when I stooped. My limbs ached, my feet swelled and my kidneys acted too frequently. I used Don's Kidney Pills as directed and they soon had me feeling like a different person. The aches and pains left and my kidneys did not annoy me." Price 60c, at all druggists. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Spriggs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. 410-17

NOTICE OF SCHOOL INDEMNITY SELECTION.

United States Land Office, Roseburg, Oregon, December 8, 1920. Notice is hereby given that the State of Oregon, on December 7, 1920, applied for the NE 1/4, Sec. 34, T. 21 N. R. 2 W., W. M., and filed in this office a list of school indemnity selections in which it selected said land, and that said list is open to the public for inspection. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described land or any legal subdivision thereof, or claiming the same under the mining laws, or desiring to show said land to be more valuable for mineral than for agricultural purposes, or to object to said selection for any lawful reason, should file their claims or their affidavits of protest or contest in this office.

I hereby designate The Cottage Grove Sentinel, published at Cottage Grove, Oregon, as the newspaper in which the above notice is to be published. W. H. CANON, Register.

Old woolen waists, or men's trousers, can be made into dresses and rompers for children 2 or 3 years of age. They make good play dresses for cold days, and save washing.

When the tablecloths begin to look worn at corners cut off a narrow strip from one end so that the corners will be in a different place the next time cloth is laundered.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The corn show held in Woodburn Saturday was a great success. The number of licensed amateur radio stations in Portland now totals 39. Plans have been launched for organization of a national guard in Astoria. The 1911 budget for Wasco county will call for an expenditure of $209,915.34. Mrs. Electa Anderson has been appointed postmaster at Placer, Josephine county. Life insurance agents of Eugene have decided to form a permanent organization. A total of $8,755,241.27 is given as the assessed valuation of Deschutes county property. A big body of high grade iron ore has been discovered in Coos county, just south of Powers. The new $6000 ferry at Harrisburg is not a success, and the demand for a bridge is becoming insistent. Hood River county poultrymen will meet in Hood River Friday to organize a county poultry association. On account of the alfalfa weevil Baker county alfalfa is now quarantined against shipment into California. Harvey Straw, aged 20 years, lost his life at Powers when a released log rolled over him and crushed him. The assessed valuation of property in Jackson county is $5,386,967.20, approximately $180,000 less than last year. The home of O. C. Rice and the post-office at Lost Valley, Wheeler county, were totally destroyed by fire last week. The value of the property in Umatilla county is $46,695,685, the greatest in the state outside of Multnomah county. Some sand found recently in the oil well which the Oregon Petroleum company is sinking east of Lacombe is 68 per cent oil. Speeders and other traffic violators of Portland have paid a total of $22,091 in police court fines during the present year. A machine gun company of the Oregon National guard, to consist of 73 men and two officers, will be organized in Albany. Approximately 400 health officers of Oregon will attend the annual health officers' meeting in Portland December 17 and 18. The records of the building inspector at Astoria for the 11 months past show the amount of new construction work done totaled $443,805. Coquille is contemplating the erection of a pavilion to house the 1921 corn show. The building will be 90x150 feet and will cost $6000. It is reported that the Vulcan Oil Gas company has concluded arrangements to begin immediate drilling on its holdings in Sams valley. Eight carloads of hops, representing nearly a quarter million pounds, left Eugene recently, consigned to the Atlantic seaboard for export trade. The Dalles now has an independent income of about $100 a day, which soon will be increased to $150 a day by the sale of rock from the city rock crushed. According to a recent statement of the state tax commission, there are 3446 acres planted in loganberries in Marion county and in the entire state 5367 acres. After years of effort to supply North Bend with a modern hotel, a recently revived campaign has proved successful and a modern structure will be erected in 1921. Captain C. C. Hoven, who operated a ferry boat between Kalama and Goble for many years, was drowned at Goble when he fell from his boat into 20 feet of water. Unexplained losses of cattle on the Sisters-Metolius range during the past season will total at least 150 head out of 3500 placed there by the Stockmen's association of Bend. The Gaston people have subscribed for $9000 worth of preferred stock and the Gaston State bank will guarantee subscriptions for enough more to build a first class cheese factory at that place. Both the city council of Roseburg and the city council of Klamath Falls have voted to cooperate in any movement which has for its purpose the abolishment of the public service commission. The Crown-Willamette Paper company has filed an application with the public service commission for permission to construct a temporary railroad over county roads between Seaside and Nehalem. A power reserve sufficient to take care of much larger pine milling operations than are now conducted will be created at Bend next month by the Shevlin-Hixon company, when a battery of five tubular boilers will be added to the 11 now in use.

The Bend city council has voted in favor of sewer construction for this winter, to involve the expenditure of approximately $150,000.

Turkey raisers of Douglas county profited by a pool formed just previous to Thanksgiving, and a sum in excess of $3000 was saved by holding firm for an advance over the opening price of 40 cents.

Persons having houses for rent in Salem must take adequate sanitary measures to protect the health of their tenants or the dwellings will remain vacant, according to an order issued by the city sanitary officer.

The Lincoln county court has agreed to stand 25 per cent of the cost of extending the Alsea road from the bridge on Alsea river to the west boundary of the Stuelaw national forest. The three miles will cost $25,000.

Mrs. H. M. Gurness, committed to the state hospital for the insane from Portland December 25, 1915, committed suicide in a lavatory of the institution Saturday by hanging herself with a belt tied to a window guard.

Deschutes county's first dollar-a-year official went into office when the county court announced the appointment of A. J. Sanford of Redmond as bee inspector. Sanford is head of the county and state beekeepers' association.

R. S. Shelley, supervisor of the Stuelaw national forest, who has just returned from a trip to the coast, stopping at Mapleton and Florence, says that nearly all of the shingle mills and sawmills in that locality have closed down.

Albany alone has subscribed more than the entire quota of Linn county for the Oregon W. C. T. U. children's farm home, and D. H. Bodine, chairman of the campaign, estimates that the county would exceed its quota by more than $2000.

Frederick Rader, Grant county rancher, charged with the murder of E. E. McCue, whom he fatally shot in an altercation arising in February, 1918, at the latter's ranch near John Day, was acquitted by a circuit court jury at Pendleton.

Robert Littler of Salem was elected president of the Western Oregon Older Boys' conference during their session at Salem last week. Other officers elected were: Homer McArthur, West Lynn, vice-president; Harold Sox, Albany, secretary; Ralph Emmons, Salem, publicity manager.

Representative Hawley has been advised of the allowance of the following pensions to war veterans at $72 a month in each case: Christian F. Beltz, Tillamook; John W. Short, Gold Hill; William E. Page, Roseburg; Jordan Fuqua, Willamina; Omar Hoskins, Eugene; James H. Lincoln.

At a meeting at the Friends' church in Newberg a campaign was launched to standardize Pacific college. Subscriptions to the amount of $25,000 were taken as a start on the road to $150,000, which is required to bring the endowment up to meet the demands of the standardization board.

As a result of a quarrel at Wapinitia, east of The Dalles, Louis McCoy is nursing a knife wound in the shoulder, and Charles Delores, E. Barzee and V. Fitzpatrick are under arrest charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Delores is alleged by county police officers to have done the stabbing.

The Oregon single tax league has filed with the secretary of state a proposed constitutional amendment providing for single tax in this state. The amendment will go before the voters of Oregon at the general election in November, 1922, unless a special election is called before that date by an act of the legislature.

Application for permit to appropriate water has been filed in the office of the state engineer by M. F. Hanley of Medford, covering appropriation of water from the north fork of Little Butte creek for irrigation of 780 acres in Jackson county. It is estimated that the development will cost approximately $44,000 and will consist of a power plant.

Measures having for their purpose the regulation of interstate traffic as it relates to the operation of motor vehicles, and uniform laws for all the northwest states will be submitted to the legislatures of Washington, California, Oregon and Idaho, in case of officials in charge of the automobile departments of these states comply with the request of Sam A. Kozor, secretary of state, who in a letter issued Saturday urged a conference at as early date to decide upon regulations needed in handling the traffic situation.

Secretary of the Interior Payne advised Representative Sinnott Friday that some change will be made in the contract with the California-Oregon Power company for the construction of the Link-river dam at the outlet of Upper Klamath lake. A clarifying provision will be inserted, making clear the paramount right of the government to the water. In addition, the secretary of the interior has decided to approve the Sinnott bill which would permit the organization of a drainage district under the Oregon state law for the purpose of dyking several thousand acres of marsh lands in the same locality.

My Claim to Your Glasses

Patronage is based on the satisfaction of having made glasses for over six thousand people living in Eugene and vicinity during the past three and a half years. This is rather definite proof that my methods and prices are about right.

If I did not feel fully qualified to give you entire satisfaction when you feel the need of having your eyes examined or glasses changed, you would not be reading this advertisement.
