LET RUSSIA ALONE, IS WILSON ADVICE

Integrity of Ex-Czar's Empire
Should Not Be Violated,
Says President.

Washington.—"Public and solemn" engagement among the great powers not to violate or to permit the violation of the territorial integrity of Russia is regarded by President Wilson as the sine qua non of an attempt at the pacification of Armenia and other states bordering on the former empire. His views are given in a note transmitted to Paul Hymans, president of the league of nations assembly, by Acting Secretary of State Davis.

"The distressful situation" of Armenia, invaded by both the Turkish nationalists and soviets is only one detail of the Russian problem, the president said, and he urged his conviction that it is only by a general and comprehensive treatment of the problem, "only by full co-operation of the principal powers," that a hopeful approach to the pacification and independence of Armenia can be found.

The president said he has never believed that the problems raised by the bolshevik coup could be solved by outside military actions, and he expressed the hope that the tragical events on the Polish front and in the Crimea have convinced the world that armed invasion is not the way to bring peace to Russia.

The president suggested a "public and solemn" declaration among the powers to refrain from extending such aid to the nations bordering on Russia, declaring that in this way responsibility for any new war on the Russian border would be "clearly placed."

BILL CURBING MEAT PACKERS IS PACKED

Washington.—By a margin of 13 votes the senate passed the long fought bill for federal regulation of the meat packers and other agencies of the livestock industry.

The vote was 46 to 33. The legislation now goes to the house, with its supporters hopeful. A special rule to expedite house action is to be sought.

Most democrats supported the bill, while a majority of the republicans opposed it. The party lineup was 18 republicans and 28 democrats for passage, with 23 republicans and 16 democrats against.

All fundamental features of the legislation as presented by the agricultural committee as a substitute for the original Kenyon-Kendrick bill were retained by the senate.

Only two important amendments were passed by the senate before passing the bill. One by Senator Wadsworth, republican, New York, would include horses and mules and goats within the operations of the bill. Another by Senator Pittman, democrat, Nevada, would exempt all persons whose chief business is in livestock growing or production of agricultural products from the bill's provisions.

FARMERS' OFFER ACCEPTED

Hoover Committee Will Distribute Corn to Needy.

Chicago, Ill.—The recent offer of the farmers of the Middle West to contribute surplus corn for the relief of the starving millions of Europe and China has been accepted by the Hoover relief committee and similar organizations, according to a message from the New York offices of the American Farm Bureau Federation, through which the stocks were offered.

The relief committees expressed the belief that funds for transporting the supplies could be raised without difficulty.

R. D. Henkle, general secretary of the American committee for the China famine fund, has written President Howard that 6000 tons can be transported from Tacoma in February, and expressed hope that the stocks may be available at that date.

Warner's Rust Proof Corsets

The Corsets That Women Like

We know this because we sell so many of them and sell them over and over again to the same customers.

It is probably because Warner's is such an "all-round" corset. It is fashionable in its lines, giving any type of figure those firm, trim contours that are just right under tailored clothes; it is the soul of comfort, women tell us—and we think that is because it is so well made and the boning is so skillfully placed. It is certainly the most economical corset you can buy, because it is guaranteed not to rust, break or tear.

Henry Ford not only started the high cost of living on the toboggan by arbitrarily reducing the price of the Ford car—an action which had its effect on every line of merchandise—but he has again attacked the same problem from a different angle. He has announced a cut of nearly 25 per cent in the Fordson Farm Tractor, the most useful farm implement ever manufactured, placing it within the reach of hundreds of thousands of farmers, thereby making possible a corresponding increase in production, which, after all, is the quickest and surest route to normal conditions. The Fordson Farm Tractor will increase your production and decrease the expense of your farming operations. You can't afford to be without a Fordson.
