

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Fri.—"The Mollycoddle," Doug. Fairbanks. Six reels of Fairbanks humor, thrills, love, speed, action. Last showing today.

Sat.—"The Right to Lie," Dolores Cassinelli.

Comedy, Soub. Pollard in "Start the Show."

Sun.—"Her First Elope-ment," Wanda Hawley.

Comedy, Larry Semon in one of his famous comedies, entitled, "Well I'll Be—"

Mon.—Tues.—"Outside the Law," by Priscilla Dean and Lon Chaney. The story of the daughter of a reformed crook, who forsakes the straight path when her father is "framed" by a former henchman and sent to prison. How she matches her wits against the minions of the law and the underworld; how the maternal instinct softens her soul and how her reformation is accomplished by the Confucian philosophy of a Chinese sage.

Wed.—"An Adventure in Hearts," Robert Warwick. A Paramount picture.

Thur.—"Mid-Channel," by Clara Kimball Young. It is a master play from the hand of a master dramatist. It is the sensational stage play in which Ethel Barrymore achieved a magnificent dramatic triumph at the Empire Theatre, New York. It is the play which critics have pronounced "the ultra smart of the fine pictures"—"the production extraordinary"—"the master picture of the season." If you have read the story, you will be thrilled by the elaborate presentation, the wondrously drawn characterizations, the scenes, settings, investiture and atmosphere. Played by a chosen cast of supreme excellence, it brings to the screen unquestionably one of the greatest pictures in years and the finest picture in which Clara Kimball Young has ever appeared.

OUTSIDE THE LAW IS LATEST ADDITION TO CROOK DRAMA CYCLE

Once every five years there comes a great crook drama.

In 1900 there was "Jim, the Pen-man." In 1905 there was "Lash Kleschna." In 1910 there was "Alias Jimmy Valentine." In 1915 there was "Within the Law." Now in 1920 comes "Outside the Law," starring Priscilla Dean and in which appear Lon Chaney, E. A. Warren, Ralph Lewis, Wheeler Oakman, Melbourne MacDowell and Wilton Taylor. Whether this will be another classic of crook-dom, of course, cannot be safely predicted. But the favored few who have already viewed this Universal-Jewel feature film, pronounce it a smashing human drama, flavored with a romance of the underworld and the mystery of a terrific oriental justice. Cottage Grove screengoers will have an opportunity to form their own opinion of "Outside the Law," when Browning's play is shown at the Arcade theatre Monday and Tuesday nights, March 21 and 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shearer, formerly of Dorena, now of Choholis, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mr. Shearer's brother Harry at Dorena.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Dean Bexell, of O. A. C., gave an interesting assembly talk Monday morning on "Hidden Assets." Among other things he said, "An idea is the greatest thing in the world and it grows by division. If I have a dollar and you have a dollar and we exchange we are none the better. But if you have an idea and I have an idea and we exchange we each have two ideas instead of one." He was here in behalf of the Oregon institutions of higher learning and particularly of O. A. C. After the assembly he met the members of the graduating class and answered questions about different colleges.

After considering for several weeks the possibility of an annual, the high school has finally decided to publish one. Nearly all the editorial staff has been selected and in a few days will be ready to start work. It is planned to have 200 copies printed. Each copy will have nearly a hundred pages dealing with high school affairs and several pages will be devoted to advertising.

The general science class which has been studying the grafting of trees the past week, experimented on Mr. Edwards' orchard Friday morning. Mr. Edwards made a graft as an example. Each student then experimented individually. Four methods of grafting were studied and used.

The physics class is taking up the study of steam and gas engines. A drawing and an explanation from memory are required of class members.

Soft Spun Towels

There is a wealth of satisfaction in soft spun towels. This complete and reliable line, the product of the Marshall Field mills, you will find only at our store. They build sales for themselves and represent long wear.

In connection with the study of artificial cooling, a trip through the City meat market's cooling plant will be made.

Cottage Grove high school will on this Saturday evening again present the O. A. C. glee club, this time with a better concert than ever. The success of this organization this year has been nothing short of phenomenal. The program is a varied one, including side splitting laugh producers, simple, haunting home melodies that linger in the memory with the treasured experiences of a life time and delicate operatic airs. The concert is divided into two parts, the first being chorus numbers, with the full club, 20 in number, on the stage. Three vocal solos follow by artists of rare interpretive powers, one of whom is a composer of some note. A seven-piece jazz orchestra number, a monologue and a lively Jew skip complete the program.

The girls' basketball team played the last game of the season at Roseburg Saturday night but were handicapped by a larger floor than usual and the introduction of a running center. The final score was 23 to 13 in favor of Roseburg. The girls were given a reception after the game.

On Tuesday morning a committee composed of three members of the faculty, the student body president and two representatives from each class elected the high school annual staff as follows: Managing editor, Claud Sherman; editor, Marian Lowry; assistant editor, Florence McFarland; faculty editor, Miss Elsie Price; literary editor, Cecile Bennett; athletic editor, Roy Beck; society editor, Lucile Davidson; joke editor, Mildred Hopper; business manager, Brighton Leonard; subscription manager, Wilbur Spray; advertising manager, Ardie Eby; cartoonist, Bert Hatch; senior reporter, Ivan Sams; sophomore reporter, Ruth Bede; freshmen reporter, Helen Broedlove.

Nearest Depot 100 Miles.

When Douglas Fairbanks and his company of 75 people went to Arizona to film scenes in his next picture, "The Mollycoddle," the troupe was compelled to travel a distance of 100 miles from Holbrook, the nearest railway station, to Polacca, in the Hopi Indian reservation. The company spent two weeks on the Arizona painted desert, traveling more than 1000 miles from place to place during this time, by foot, by automobile and on horseback to obtain the wild and primitive scenes required for this picture, which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre beginning Thursday and Friday this week.
