

The man who keeps driving right at his job is the one who makes a bit with us.

More people fail to get somewhere from never starting than from having others put impediments in their way.

Candidates for congress who had their speeches memorized last fall can't remember a word now of what they promised then.

An easy mark for a woman is a merchant who marks his goods down from 50 cents to 49 cents.

The young lady who will acknowledge that her sweetheart has any faults isn't far enough in love yet to make a real wife.

Most cooks are taxidermists in a way—they stuff animals.

The average person swells all up over a very small charitable act.

A cipher is an important thing in our business life; not so with a do nothing.

The divorce courts wouldn't be so bad if they didn't make it possible for people to go and do the same things over again.

The man who builds a landing place and warehouse for the ship he expects to come in may be classed as a real optimist.

No man really cares to have folks say he is pretty.

A young girl in love acts like one possessed—or like one who wants to be possessed.

If the government could be induced to donate its red tape for use as binder twine, the agricultural vote would be fixed solid.

We know a lot of people who need have no fear of dying of congestion of the brain.

As long as he himself does not suffer it seems hard to convince a man that his mistake is serious.

It is very unsatisfactory to have to argue a man into believing that you agree with him.

Nearly all the sins of this world are committed by people who know better.

Women talk too much—and men chew tobacco.

It may seem peculiar, but the person with the best known reputation for honesty does the least advertising himself.

West Point is located about as far east as it is possible to get in this glorious country of ours.

The fellows who get up the folders for the railroads and summer resorts are sure enough optimists.

The world is benefited by the lives of some people—and by the demise of

It's funny that some people are so contrary that they try to argue you into believing that what you are trying to argue them into believing is wrong.

Anyway, Noah didn't have to pump the water when his wife wanted to do the washing.

The cry that there are no honest men is a false one. Think of the physician who cures his patient and shuts off his source of revenue.

A girl who sparks isn't always a jewel.

The man who took time to figure out that the people of this country spend nearly eight million dollars a year for shoe laces must be what the papers term a string fiend.

The centipede ought to be able to stand on its own feet.

Folks with the most dough are not always the best bred.

We often speak of the failures of others as an excuse to brag of our own business sagacity.

It's funny how getting married brings a man to his senses—but it is then too late to use them.

Women are just wise enough to let men thing they are foolish to fall for the stuff the men tell 'em.

Some folks look with suspicion upon some men merely because they are so particular about attending church.

Sometimes we imagine the office girl marries the bossy employer to get a chance to turn the tables.

An undertaker is about the only man who doesn't have catalog house competition.

To err is human, and so is criticism.

The man who can't support himself thinks the other fellow should be his brother's keeper.

Floors—Refinish Yours Yourself with paint or varnish. We tell how

IT'S a simple matter, if you cannot get a painter, to refinish any floor—fun, in fact, to do the work yourself.

We make the finest finishes. They dry over night, so you can walk on them in the morning.

They are made for laymen's use as well as painter's—they flow and spread easily and cover well. The result is a smooth and lustrous finish—just the one you want to get, although you—an amateur—do the work.

Women can apply these products as well as men.

Fuller makes a famous floor paint—Rubber Cement Floor Paint and two famous var-ishes called "Fifteen-for-Floors" and "Fullerwear."

They are Fuller's Specifications for home floors—each for a particular effect.

We make also a special line of paints, varnishes, enamels, etc., for all kinds of interior decorating. And we maintain a Free Advice Department that will tell you in detail how to use them. You simply describe the article, how finished now, and the effect you want to get.

We've specified these materials and methods for you after 72 years' experience with paints and painting practice. We are one of the largest paint manufacturers in the United States.

Don't think you can't do work like this simply because you haven't ever done it. Follow Fuller Specifications and you'll get the right effect.
