

BANKRUPT SALE

W. C. JOHNSON & CO.'S

ENTIRE STOCK BOUGHT FOR

51c ON THE DOLLAR

By F. J. Osterholtz of Portland and Seattle,
Broker in Bankrupt Stocks

Crowds Like a Circus

People thronged to this big Bankrupt Sale and bought as they never bought before. There's a reason.

IN THE HANDS OF G. W. KELLY

The entire bankrupt stock of Johnson & Company all to be sold directly to the buying public

This stock was bought from the Merchants' Protective Association, of Portland, by F. J. Osterholtz, dealer in Bankrupt Stocks and Mr. Osterholtz has placed it in my hands to be turned into cash in the shortest possible time. Mr. Osterholtz said to me, "Kelly, I bought this stock so cheap that I can afford to almost give it away. So I don't care how you sacrifice—it's the cash I want." So that's the story in a grain of wheat. The ridiculously low prices that I am marking on this merchandise would put life into Pharaoh's mummy; so come expecting to see the most sensational sale conceived since Cain and Abel played tag in the Garden of Eden.

Yours for good bargains,

G. W. KELLY.

I AM KNOWN

from coast to coast as the world's greatest bargain giver. When I take over a stock of merchandise to reduce or close out, it must move at once, no matter what the sacrifice may cost. Selling a stock like this is no snap but I know that if I take this high-grade stock and cut the prices low enough the public will respond quickly. And if you think I have not cut the prices to the quick, drop in at 10:23 a. m. tomorrow when the big slaughter starts.

G. W. KELLY.

You Keep What You Get

In justice to other merchants we wish to state to the public that the only reason that we are able to offer this high-grade merchandise at these extremely low prices is due to the fact that we bought these goods at 51% of the present wholesale price. We reserve the right to limit quantities.

Only a Short Time

AND JOHNSON'S STORE WILL BE BUT A MEMORY OF THE PAST. PRICES HAVE CRASHED DOWNWARD EVEN AS THE WALLS OF JERICO CRASHED INTO RUIN IN THE TIMES OF OUR LORD. RED TAGS POINT THE WAY TO REAL BARGAINS AND THROUGHOUT THE STORE
