

RETURNS FROM VISIT TO INJURED SISTERS

Mrs. Wm. A. Garoutte, accompanied by Harold Dugan, returned Saturday from Turlock, Calif., where they had been at the bedside of Mrs. Garoutte's sisters and brother-in-law, Miss Edna Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. George Hodel, recently seriously injured in an automobile accident at Oakland. Miss Edna sustained a severe windshield gash the entire length of the nose, which also was fractured, a number of her teeth were loosened and she sustained another severe gash across the knee. Mrs. Hodel sustained a fractured hip bone and Mr. Hodel a fractured lower limb.

On account of an abscess from one of Miss Edna's teeth it was impossible for some time to treat the injuries to the mouth and she has had to live upon liquid food. The abscess broke a week ago. Mrs. Hodel is yet in a plaster cast and it has been impossible to determine how serious the injury to her hip is but it is not likely that she will be able to walk for a year or more. On account of trouble with her heart she has been unable to take much medicine and her recovery has been retarded on that account. All are getting along fully as well as could be expected. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson, parents of Miss Edna and Mrs. Hodel, who left here for California at about the time the accident occurred at Turlock at the time the injured people were being moved there from Oakland, having heard nothing of the accident until the time of their arrival.

Mr. Hodel was at the wheel of the car at the time of the accident. Just how it happened is not certain, but they were traveling upon a street where repairs were in progress and traffic had been confined to one side of the street. The Hodel car ran into a street car using the same street.

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Comedy, "Under Cover." Mon.—Tues.—"The Mark of Zorro," Doug Fairbanks. The background of the story is centered around early Southern California of nearly a century ago, when its destinies were zealously guarded by the Spanish settlers. A picture of Doug's latest wallops and rapid fire action, a picture snappy, romantic, full of action, bubbling over with romance, chivalry and glamor.

Dempsey and Carpentier in actual training.

Wed.—Thurs.—"The Brute Master," Hobart Bosworth, is a sweeping romance of love and adventure laid in the South Seas. On the high seas and beneath the palms of an island in the tropics there is enacted a colorful love-drama in which the chief players are delicate, gentle bred, gloriously beautiful girl and an iron willed, steel sinewed, half tamed savage of a man—a man who has ruled by fear and strength always. Hobart Bosworth and Anna Q. Nilsson in these two roles each achieve a great triumph.

Comedy, "Fingers and Pockets."

Tested Recipes

Scalloped Cauliflower—Scalloped cauliflower, as any vegetable is scalloped, with alternate layers of the vegetable and bread or cracker crumbs, using plenty of butter and milk in the alternate layers. This serves the double purpose of making a substantial meat substitute, and also "stretches" the cauliflower when the price is still high.

Broiled Swordfish—Wash, wipe dry and season with salt and pepper slices of swordfish or halibut; broil 10 to 12 minutes (over a charcoal fire if possible). Serve with horseradish sauce, made as follows: One-third cup butter, add 2 rounding teaspoons grated horseradish, 1 teaspoon mustard, 2 tablespoons hot vinegar, 1 saltspoon salt.

Raisin Batter Pudding—One cup of stoned seeded raisins, one cup flour, one teaspoon baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, two tablespoons sugar, one cup milk, one egg, one teaspoon butter. Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar into bowl; add milk and well-beaten egg and beat two minutes; add raisins, mix very lightly. Brush six custard cups with melted butter (heat the cups), fill each cup half full; place in hot oven and bake 30 minutes. Serve with milk and sugar or fruit juice. The cup will be full when baked.

Rice Croquettes—Take ½ pound of boiled rice and mix with it two tablespoons of grated cheese and a little nutmeg and onion; then take a little butter, six tablespoons of cold chicken breast, minced, 6 oysters, a little parsley and lemon peel, and mix together with rich milk or cream. Roll out a heaping tablespoon of the rice and put into it as much as it will hold of the mixture, folding the edges and enclosing it. Brush the balls over with yolk of raw egg, roll them in cracker crumbs and fry them light brown in boiling lard. Serve them hot when drained.

Household Hints

Old felt hats may be cleaned and cut into useful forms for "holders" to use about the stove.

Save small cork stoppers to protect the point of crochet hooks, especially the steel ones, when not in use.

Doorknob screws often work out and let the knob come off. This may be prevented by removing loose screws, covering them with glue and screwing them back into place.

Straw matting may be cleaned with a large, coarse cloth dipped in salt and water and then wiped dry. The salt keeps the matting from turning yellow.

Soak oranges in hot water for five minutes and the peeling will slip off easily.

It won't do some men much good to get a home in heaven if they don't hang around it more than they do here.

It beats all how a woman can think that a man who will stoop to elope with her is any better than the one she is married to.
