DEMPSEY WINS IN 4TH ROUND

American Champion Knocks Out French Challenger in Fourth Round.

New York.—Pugilistic history was made in a huge pine board arena in Jersey City Saturday afternoon, when Jack Dempsey defended his heavyweight championship against the fierce challenge of Georges Carpentier. Dempsey retained the championship when he knocked out Carpentier, the French challenger, in the fourth round.

Carpentier finished flat on his face, his legs and arms outstretched. Dempsey knocked him out a few seconds later the fourth round opened, sending him heavily to the canvas with a short right hook to the chin.

The actual time of fighting in the fourth round was one minute and sixteen seconds.

Previous to the knockout, Carpentier was floored with a left to the body and a right to the chin.

Carpentier took a count of nine before springing to his feet, where the grim, determined Dempsey measured him with a punch to the chin which ended the battle.

Seats were provided for more than 91,000 spectators. A purse of $500,000 was given by Promoter Rickard. Of this huge sum, an amount far in excess of any financial compensation ever offered pugilists in the past, Dempsey received $300,000 and Carpentier $200,000.

Ticket sales are believed to have amounted to nearly $1,500,000. It is estimated that the purse, cost of arena and numerous overhead expenses will mount close to $1,000,000.

Rickard, Dempsey and Carpentier are not the only persons to profit by the "battle of the century," as the contest has been aptly named. Uncle Sam will take close to $500,000 under the income tax laws.

SUMMARY DISMISSAL OF SOLDIERS OPPOSED

Washington, D. C.—President Harding, informed congress that while he had signed the army appropriation bill with its provision for a reduction of the regular army to 150,000 men by next October 1, it might be necessary to ask for a modification of the measure later to avoid embarrassment to the secretary of war.

The executive declared in a special message sent to both the senate and the house that summary dismissal from the army of men who had enlisted for a longer period than October 1 would seem to involve a repudiation of a moral obligation by the government which would have its effect upon the morale of the army and possibly influence enlistments in the future.

The nature of the modification which might be asked for later was not disclosed, nor did the president explain how it was proposed to meet the moral obligation to the men and at the same time carry out the directions of congress to reduce the force by some 70,000 men in the next three months.

Secretary Weeks, in discussing the bill, said that if the war department succeeded in meeting the limitations imposed by congress, some 30,000 civilian employees of the army, besides the 70,000 enlisted men, would be thrown on the labor market.

DEMAND CURB ON ORIENTALS

Oregon State Legion Convention Urges Land Limitations.

Eugene, Or. — Oregon's ex-service men will not rest until a check is placed upon the oriental. Such was the pledge taken by 250 ex-service men sitting in their third annual convention of the Oregon department of the American Legion.

Recommendations to the government to take positive action by "treaty or otherwise" and an added provision whereby an anti-oriental measure, forbidding ownership of real property by members of the race, be placed upon the ballot at the next general election, should no results be forthcoming from the government, were made to an accompaniment of cheers.

The Dallas was chosen as next year's convention city. Stirring addresses were made at the convention opening by Lemuel C. Bolles, national legion adjutant, and John W. Inzer, national chaplain.

Daughter Succeeds Father in Congress Springfield, Ill.—Governor Small will appoint Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck as a member at large in congress to complete the unexpired term of her father, the late William E. Mason. A resolution empowering the governor to fill the vacancy was adopted when the legislature met.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE XLV.—OKLAHOMA

OKLAHOMA holds the record for rapid growth. It was the first term of President Benjamin Harrison that Oklahoma was opened up. Good farm land available under the Homestead Act was difficult to find so the United States bought from the Indians, who had been segregated in Indian territory, a large tract of some 40,000 square miles that had been used largely by the Indians as pasture for their cattle and horses. This was called Oklahoma, a word meaning "fine country," and was arranged to be ready for sale to homesteaders at 12 o'clock noon of April 22, 1889. Troops were placed on guard to prevent any settlers entering before that time for more than 100,000 "boomers" as they were called, came from all over the country to obtain farms or places for business. On the stroke of the hour, bugles sounded and the mad rush by men, women and children to locate claims began. The government had arranged land officers at many places at which claims could be filed for the farms or city lots, and all that day these were besieged by fighting mobs to register their selections. Before nightfall hundreds of farms were staked out and Oklahoma City and Guthrie were well on their way to become cities.

Thus was developed this region which came into the possession of the United States as a part of the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 and which was set aside for so many years as Indian country. Previous to the formation of Oklahoma territory, congress had forbidden white settlers in this part of the country, and this edict was enforced by federal troops. As the demand for more land was felt and as the Indians decreased in numbers, Indian territory was added to Oklahoma territory, and in 1907 it was admitted to the Union as the State of Oklahoma, adding another star to our flag, which for eleven years had contained forty-five. The state has flourished to such an extent that it has ten presidential electors, which is more than double that of many of the older states of larger size.
