Poem Derides Short Skirts.

New York, June 28.—Scant summer styles, as exhibited in these parts, have inspired the Rev. John Rensch Stratton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, to pen a "poem," which was going through its second edition in the public prints today.
Wrote Dr. Stratton:
"Mary had a little skirt,
The latest style, no doubt;
But every time she got inside
She was more than half way out."
In a prose foreword, delivered from his pulpit Sunday night, Dr. Stratton declared he did not advocate a return to the old street sweeping styles. "There is a style for women's dresses which is in harmony with the laws of sanitation as well as the principles of modesty," he said.
